READ THESE RULES CAREFULLY

Through the co-operation of the sponsors, whose advertisements appear in connection with the contest in the Charlottetown Guardian is publishing the Shopword Contest for thirty-six consecutive weeks and prizes are being awarded each week as listed above. In the form of service or merchandise orders.

CONTEST RULES

Any readers of the Charlottetown Guardian may participate. (Excepting employees of the Guardian Publishing Co., and members of their families.)
It is important that each reply shall be accompanied by a receipt from any one of the firms whose announcement appears in the contest.
It is also important that you state on your entry which of these firms you wish to draw your prize from.

EXPLANATION OF CONTEST

In the numbered spaces in the heading of this contest there appear slogans and phrases which may be found in some of the advertisements in this section.
To qualify the reader is required to find the advertisement in which these "SHOPWORDS" appear.

HOW TO ENTER

Read the ads thoroughly. Write down the number of the "shopword" as it appears in the heading. Then opposite the number write the name of the advertiser in whose space you have found the phrase. In the case of the fourth "shopword" it is required that you state in addition to the name of the firm, the name of the manager, the location of the business premises and the lines carried.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S CAMP — The little patients at the Crippled Children's Camp in Marshfield were pleasantly entertained on a recent evening when several Junior Red Cross members from East Royalty visited the camp and presented a delightful program. The following Juniors took part: Ada and Elvia Robertson, Shirley Darrach, Velma Andrew, Kathleen Royton, and Bernice Moore. They also supplied much appreciated treat of ice cream and cake. Several other friends have contributed to the success of the camp. On Monday of Confederation Week the children had a thrilling time watching the parade, being transported to town by Mr. C. N. Borden, vice president of the Red Cross Society and Judge Duffy. The little campers and the staff are deeply grateful to all those who have contributed in any way to the success of the camp which is being conducted for a period of one month and terminates Aug 9th.

Mrs. Ernest E. McMillan, her daughter Mrs. Tiers and granddaughter Miss Evelyn of Victoria, B. C., after a very enjoyable visit with Mrs. McMillan's brother, Mr. George Abbott, Union Road, Lot 33 and Mrs. Abbott left for their home on Thursday morning by rail. They will stop off at different places en route and expect to spend about a month on the way.
Mr. Craick has already visited Moncton, arriving here on Thursday afternoon, spending yesterday forenoon and afternoon in the city and Summerside respectively. He leaves this morning enroute to Halifax, whence he will proceed to St. John via the Annapolis Valley and Digby, and will complete his Maritime tour by visiting Fredericton.
The Federal Government and all the Provincial Governments throughout Canada and the C. P. and C. N. Railways are co-operating with the Empire Press Union to make the 1940 conference as successful as it is possible to be.
As secretary-treasurer of the Canadian section of the Union Mr. Craick has heavy responsibilities on his shoulders but is thoroughly competent and willing to carry them.
He was very favorably impressed with the Province yesterday, and although it was not his first visit, it was the first since the recent developments and improvements in Charlottetown, and the laying of hard service roads throughout the Province.
KENT KEEPS COOL
DYCE, Scotland (CP)—An airplane headed over, spilling a tank off here, alarming officials at the Duke of Kent was aboard. But Duke calmly clambered from the overturned plane, lit a cigarette, and strolled back to the port.

They will stop off at different places en route and expect to spend about a month on the way.
Mr. Craick has already visited Moncton, arriving here on Thursday afternoon, spending yesterday forenoon and afternoon in the city and Summerside respectively. He leaves this morning enroute to Halifax, whence he will proceed to St. John via the Annapolis Valley and Digby, and will complete his Maritime tour by visiting Fredericton.
The Federal Government and all the Provincial Governments throughout Canada and the C. P. and C. N. Railways are co-operating with the Empire Press Union to make the 1940 conference as successful as it is possible to be.
As secretary-treasurer of the Canadian section of the Union Mr. Craick has heavy responsibilities on his shoulders but is thoroughly competent and willing to carry them.
He was very favorably impressed with the Province yesterday, and although it was not his first visit, it was the first since the recent developments and improvements in Charlottetown, and the laying of hard service roads throughout the Province.
KENT KEEPS COOL
DYCE, Scotland (CP)—An airplane headed over, spilling a tank off here, alarming officials at the Duke of Kent was aboard. But Duke calmly clambered from the overturned plane, lit a cigarette, and strolled back to the port.
