Gavin-Connolly Wedding

The marriage of Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Connolly of Alberton, and Leo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Gavin, also of Alberton, was solemnized at the Sacred Heart Church Wednesday morning, July 9th, at 10 o'clock. The Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. W. E. Monaghan. The wedding music was played by Mrs. E. E. Larter with Mrs. Raymond Ahearn as soloist. The bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin. The full skirt and lace insertions, the fitted bodice, with long pointed sleeves, featured a lace yoke with high neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She wore a double strand of pearls with matching earrings, and carried a bouquet of red carnations. The bride's groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. W. E. Monaghan. The bride's father, Mr. John Connolly, and the groom's father, Mr. Peter J. Gavin, both wore tuxedos. The wedding party included the bride's mother, Mrs. John Connolly, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Peter J. Gavin. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride and groom were accompanied by their bridesmaids and groomsmen. The wedding was a private affair with only family and close friends in attendance.

Alberton and Vicinity

Among those attending the recent Gavin-Connolly wedding at Alberton were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Noonan of Albany, Mrs. J. F. MacDonald and daughter Janet of Charlottetown, Mrs. R. H. Durant of Halifax and Mrs. Lloyd Hogan of Halifax.
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Green, who have been guests of Mrs. Green's sister, Mrs. Roy Leard, and Mr. Leard at Alberton for the past few weeks, left on Sunday to begin their trip home to England. During their first visit to Canada Mr. and Mrs. Green have been very favorably impressed by this "Garden Province". They are being accompanied as far as Montreal by Mr. and Mrs. Leard.
—Ann Sheridan and Victor Mature topline the cast of "Stella", Twentieth Century-Fox's new comedy romance arriving tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre. Miss Sheridan fills the title part, and unquestionably fills it beautifully, of Stella, who gets involved in an insurance policy covering her accidentally killed Uncle Joe. The casting of the policy becomes complicated by her many family's haste in covering up the circumstances of Uncle Joe's death. Ann, or Stella, also gets involved, romantically involved that is, with the handsome young insurance adjuster who comes to town to look into the peculiar case of Uncle Joe. This would be Mature's role. With this fresh, funny premise, and the talented writer-director Claude Binyon to carry it out, "Stella" looms as a major attack on the funnybone, in the offbeat tradition of "Arsenic and Old Lace" and other farces that have parlayed laughs and chills to exciting-comic effect.

Alberton South Lady Dies In Charlottetown

Mrs. Wallace Richards (nee Adelaide Fraser of Alberton South) passed away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, early Saturday morning, July 12th, as the result of a fall sustained three days previously. She was seventy-eight years of age. In recent years she has spent the winters at Beach Grove and the summers with members of her family at Alberton. More than ten years ago her sight began to fail and for the past five years she has been totally blind. Her husband predeceased her twenty-nine years ago.
She is survived by two brothers and two sisters, Herbert Fraser of Alberton South, Frank Fraser of Alberton, Mrs. Eldred Hutt of Alberton South and Mrs. Emerson Matthews of Montreal.
The funeral service from the home of her brother, Hubert Fraser, on Sunday afternoon was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. It was conducted by Rev. A. R. Wallis of Alberton United Church. Hymns sung were: "Will Your Anchor Hold" and "Abide With Me."
Pall-bearers, life long friends and neighbors of the deceased, were George MacBeth, Byron Smith, Herbert Avery, William Leavitt, Silas Matthews and Maurice Perry, Sr.
Flower bearers were, Cecil Hutt, Lemont Hutt, Kenneth Hutt, Hubert Fraser, Upton Fraser, Eldon Matthews and Philip Kinch.
Interment was in the Baptist cemetery.

Number 3553 was the lucky number drawn on Saturday night at the Charlottetown Summerside Store and the holder of this lucky number will win the sum of $1000 in cash provided he or she comes forward to claim the money within one week.
The contest was held in connection with the big 95th anniversary sale held last week. Customers presented their sales slips to Miss 1857 which they deposited in a large drum. On Saturday evening, in the presence of a large crowd of people Mrs. Jack McIsaac of Borden, who was selected from the crowd to draw the lucky number, drew ball number 3553 and five others as well. The others were placed in sealed envelopes and in one week, if the first ballot (3553) is not brought in the second will be opened and declared the winner and so on until some lucky holder appears to claim the $1000.
The drawing was broadcast over station CJRW and Mr. Robert Holman, president of the firm stated that this birthday sale was the greatest in the history of the store. He expressed a hope that all would be present in five years time when the 100th anniversary sale would be held.—S

The contest was held in connection with the big 95th anniversary sale held last week. Customers presented their sales slips to Miss 1857 which they deposited in a large drum. On Saturday evening, in the presence of a large crowd of people Mrs. Jack McIsaac of Borden, who was selected from the crowd to draw the lucky number, drew ball number 3553 and five others as well. The others were placed in sealed envelopes and in one week, if the first ballot (3553) is not brought in the second will be opened and declared the winner and so on until some lucky holder appears to claim the $1000.
The drawing was broadcast over station CJRW and Mr. Robert Holman, president of the firm stated that this birthday sale was the greatest in the history of the store. He expressed a hope that all would be present in five years time when the 100th anniversary sale would be held.—S

Lucky Number Is Drawn At S'side Store

Number 3553 was the lucky number drawn on Saturday night at the Charlottetown Summerside Store and the holder of this lucky number will win the sum of $1000 in cash provided he or she comes forward to claim the money within one week.

last quarter drive began cutting into the Hanover mare's lead. Pet Hanover still led at the upper turn but about fifty yards from the wire Dean Gallon trotted into the lead to win the dash.
In the second dash it was Dean Gallon all the way. Anyway, driven by Dave Wisner, placed second with Pet Hanover coming up from behind to finish third.
Babe Britton had little trouble in winning the sixth race. O'Meara took the Babe into the lead at the three eighths pole and from then on in she was never challenged. Feather Duster finished second about two and a half lengths back.
Harold Cudmore drove Joandale into the lead in the back stretch on the second trip around to win Anderson.
