

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

SEPTEMBER 16, 1891.

Civic Matters.

The little split which has appeared in the ruling party of the City Council might be hailed with pleasure if it were an indication that petty partizanship was about to lose control of civic affairs...

In respect to the voting of $125 to a man who had incurred damages by tripping over a loose plank, the Council seem, also, to have acted with undue haste...

We sincerely trust that the City Council will, ere long, put away partizanship and learn to consider carefully and reasonably every question upon its merits.

The War Cloud.

The action of Great Britain in taking possession of Sigi, on the Island of Mitylene, speaks far more eloquently of war than all the assurances of peace that have recently been published...

The seizure of Sigi has caused a sensation throughout the world. It will, at all events, prove to Russia and to Turkey that they cannot with impunity break the most solemn treaties...

Grand exhibition of new fall boots and shoes, the largest stock ever shown in Charlottetown, and the lowest prices, will be complete in a few days at the Dominion Boot and Shoe Store.

ETANGELISTIC.—The series of Evangelistic services is drawing to a close. The meeting last night was large. Mr. Bliss made some excellent points from the words "This man receiveth sinners..."

NOTES FROM OTTAWA.

Prosperity in P. E. Island.

The Pulpit Speaks Out.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE EXAMINER.]

After prayers, on Monday, Sir John Thompson rose and said he desired to make a short statement to the House. It was evident that misapprehension existed inside and outside of parliament as to the position of Sir Hector Langevin...

In the course of the debate on the appropriation for immigration, Mr. Skinner of St. John, N. B. said:

"I say to the hon. member for Guysborough (Mr. Fraser) that when he stands up here as a representative of the Maritime Provinces and attempts to persuade this parliament that because the Maritime Provinces have not increased in population they are not prosperous, he makes a mistake..."

Mr. Perry—"How do you know?" Mr. Skinner—"Because I have been there."

"Mr. Perry—"When?" Mr. Skinner—"I have been there a good many times, and I know of what I speak. There is no place where you will find more men, not of large, but of proportionate wealth, than in Prince Edward Island..."

Some of the preachers who are nothing if not sensational, and depend upon scandals and immorality for their texts, have been letting themselves loose over recent developments before the parliamentary committees. It is needless to say that they predicted nothing short of direct disaster for our young Dominion...

"I greatly fear from many things which reach me that young men and lads are now in danger of coming thoughtlessly to the conclusion that really high principle and Christian compassion for the multitude have wholly disappeared from this fair Canada of ours..."

There is much to make us thankful and hopeful. Revelations of corruption, which would raise a revolution in less favored lands, do not threaten to disturb society in this happy and contented country...

Religious Notes.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian Church at Wood Islands was occupied last Sabbath by Rev. J. Sellers, Methodist minister. Mr. Sellers took for his text, Song of Solomon, chap VI, 10, "Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners..."

It is not often that a religious journal, independent of church control and depending on its own merits for support has called forth so warm a reception as has the Methodist. The press of the sister provinces has spoken of it in the most complimentary terms, and it is steadily growing in public favor...

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"The Bigots of the Iron Time, Had Called the Harmless Art a Crime."

SIR,—In a communication in Monday's EXAMINER, headed "Old Times are Changed, Old Manners Gone," the writer makes the occasion of having a lily on the preacher's desk in the Methodist church an opportunity for getting off a senseless practical joke on the Rev. Mr. Brewer...
