

Household Hints.

A little baking soda placed upon a burn will soon remove the fever.

Lamp tops, when boiled occasionally in a little soda and water, are as good as new.

Lemon rubbed on the face and hands tends to remove freckles and whiten the skin.

When peeling onions, place a pin tightly between the front teeth. This prevents the tears from coming.

A hall window may be made very pretty by pasting on it stained glass paper, which can be purchased for a small sum of money and easily applied.

Never wash in warm water before going out in the cold air. Such a practice will roughen the skin. Warm water should be used only before retiring.

To keep the feet narrow, they should be tightly bound every night in bands of linen. When drying the feet always rub down, as rubbing both ways, tends to roughen the skin.

A very palatable dish can be made of mashed potatoes and a little finely chopped meat of one or more kinds mixed together, flavored with salt and pepper, and fried in small flat cakes.

To brighten the eyes for a ball or party. Eat a half hour before leaving home, a lump of sugar on which a drop of cologne. This generally proves effective.

A divorce was recently granted in Boston for what at first sight appears a very frivolous cause. On the second night after the marriage, the husband seized a valuable hand-painted toilet bottle from his wife's dressing-table and flung it at a caterwauling cat in the back yard. This was held to be an offence of sufficient magnitude to justify the judge in granting a divorce. This decree establishes the inviolable sacredness of a wife's goods. For while a husband has a perfect and unalienable right to fling out of window at howling dog or crying cat his boot-jack, his slippers, his hair-brush, his razor-straps, and even in extreme cases the razors themselves, he must keep his clumsy hands off his wife's toilet stand.

The New York World's London cable, dated 10 p. m., 3rd, says: All was quiet to-day on the Liverpool Cotton Exchange, and speculation is absolutely at a stand-still. A survey of the wreck caused by the downfall of Morris Ranger, on Wednesday, now shows that 15 firms are bankrupt, and several more so seriously crippled as to be tottering. It is not believed however, that the list is yet completed, and the next settling day, 10th inst., is awaited with anxious forebodings, and conviction that it will bring the announcement of several more failures. The meeting of Ranger's creditors is announced to take place on the 22nd inst. It is probable that it will be a stormy one, as the feeling against Ranger is bitter on the part of many of his creditors.

HAIR VIGOR

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled: it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silky in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRECHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AVER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Oa.) Enquirer, says: "AVER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGE FAIRBAIN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which besting time procureth, I have used AVER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, crators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlottetown, Mass., April 11, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AVER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly use but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

WE have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AVER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.
