

Canada.

A country whose rich plains extend from Melville's icy shore South to where genial suns their rays on fruitful landscapes pour; Westward from where Atlantic's waves round Breton's headland's race...

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Claims Against the Government.

SIR,—I observe you are advocating a change in the Electoral Divisions of this Province for the Dominion House of Commons. I think you should advocate increased representation for the Metropolitan County, and that would fully justify the changes you ask for.

There is another matter in which I would like to see you use your facile pen in favor of the appointment of a Board of Claims for this Province—to hear and determine causes against the Government or its departments. You are doubtless aware that such cases exist. Take, for instance, the Rustico Breakwater. The contractor of that work, through no fault of his own, and from causes which he could not prevent or foresee, suffered great damage, and he has no remedy or redress; but if we had a Board of Claims, that would consider equity as well as justice, he would have no difficulty in proving a case.

Resolution of Condolence. At the regular meeting of the Emerald Branch of the Benevolent Irish Society, held in their hall on the 16th inst., the following resolution was moved, seconded and unanimously carried:—

Resolved, That we, the members of the Emerald Branch of the Benevolent Irish Society, do unite in extending to Brother Goodwin our most sincere and fraternal sympathy in his sad and irreparable affliction. Knowing well the painful loss in the family circle by the demise of an affectionate wife and good mother, we pray God in His goodness to grant our brother member and his family grace to bear with fortitude and resignation their great trial; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be tendered our worthy President; also spread on the minutes of this meeting and published. Emerald, Feb. 16th, 1889.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It cools the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. (April 1888)

PLANTS.—We are raising over a million V. getable and Flower Plants for the spring trade. Quality better and prices lower than ever. Catalogues ready in April.—RICHARD HUNTER, Montreal, P. Q.

MARRIED.

On the 13th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Little York, by the Rev. M. R. Knight, Osalet F. Enman, of Vernon River, and Edith, eldest daughter of Robert Vessey, Esq.

At the residence of the bride's father, on Dec. 25, by the Rev. J. S. Phinney, John McKenzie, of Cape Bear, Lot 64, to Alice M. Roberts, of Murray Harbor South, Lot 64.

DIED.

After a lingering illness of one year, Mary E. McDonald, daughter of Captain Donald H. McDonald, of Chepstow, died at her home on the 10th inst., aged 17 years.

Suddenly, at Rock Barra, on Feb. 6th, after a brief illness of seven days, Catherine, relict of the late Angus McDonald, aged 76 years. Deceased was of an honest and upright character, beloved and respected by all who knew her. She leaves a large family of three sons and four daughters to mourn their irreparable loss.

(B. C. and California papers please copy.) At his residence, Morell Rear, on Saturday, Feb. 2nd, after a few days' illness, James Walsh, at the advanced age of 75 years. Deceased was a native of the County Kilkenny, Ireland, and emigrated to Newfoundland in the year 1835, where he resided for a short time, removing afterwards to P. E. Island, and then settled in Morell where he underwent the hardships and disadvantages of an early settler; but through perseverance, honesty and industry, he made for himself a comfortable home. The deceased was well and favorably known to the early pioneers of Morell, and on Tuesday a large concourse of people followed his remains to St. Joseph's Church, where the funeral obsequies were conducted by Monsr. Macdonald, V. G., thence to the cemetery, where he was laid to rest. May his soul rest in peace.

At his late residence, on Peter's Road, on the 31st of Jan., 1889, Mr. Wm. Johnston, in the 74th year of his age. Deceased was born on Sept. 6th, 1815, in the vicinity of Lockerie, Parish of Dryisdale, Scotland. On Dec. 27th, 1839, he married Miss Elizabeth Cowan, and in May, 1845, they came to P. E. Island. On Sabbath, the 27th Jan., he was at church as usual, though frail from the effects of a paralytic stroke received in October last, and on Monday evening, while conversing with some neighbors who had called in, was suddenly struck again and never spoke till he died. By his death a forty-three years' connection with the neighborhood is dissolved, a forty-nine years' enjoyment of the married state brought to a close, and the end of a seventy-three years' race reached by an industrious, kind, genial old Christian gentleman, whom to know was to esteem and respect. Mrs. Johnston still remains to mourn his loss, as does also a large family of sons and daughters. They have the sympathy of the neighborhood. "Athen father and husband till the resurrection." GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of Diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal ailment by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

DRUNKENNESS

It can be given to a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; it is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to return. Circular and full particulars address: (G.D.)
