

THE mails from Cape Tormentine arrived at Cape Traverse this evening at 3.20.

ALL communications for the DAILY EXAMINER must be handed into the Office before one o'clock, to insure publication in that day's issue.

THE ice on the Hillsborough is now attracting large numbers of those who wish to indulge in refreshing and unconfined stretches on "woodstocks" or "springs."

THE steamer Albert sailed from Pictou on the 7th on a sealing voyage. She will call at the Magdalen Islands with passengers and mails.

DAVID LEACH, an old miser of Jersey City, N. J., died a few days ago, leaving, it is said, a will bequeathing his hoardings, amounting to nearly $15,000, to Queen Victoria.

LAST evening one of our news vendors was attacked by three unknown miscreants, who beat him in a violent manner and abstracted from his vest pocket the result of his evening's toil, which amounted in all to twelve cents.

SEVERAL complaints have been made to us regarding our newsboys selling Thursday's EXAMINER on Friday. If this be a fact, they were sold without our knowledge. In future we will take steps to prevent any such impositions.

A SELFISH SUGGESTION.—The Editor of the Patriot is burning to appear in masquerade at a skating carnival. He says: "Now that the skating carnival for grown people has passed off so successfully, might we not have one for the children?"

WILLIAM RICE appeared before the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon, charged with stealing a load of coal from the schr. Racer. Capt. S. McRae was the plaintiff in the matter. As there was no witness appeared on his behalf, the case was postponed till Monday.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this morning John Gormley, drunk and refusing to leave the corner, was fined $2 or eight days. Peter Ferguson, drunk and disorderly on Grafton Street, was fined $2 and costs. Mary Young, drunk and using abusive language towards Policeman Shea, was fined $3 or fourteen days. William Rice, on complaint of Samuel McRae for larceny, was postponed till Monday.

SMALL POX AT NEWCASTLE, N. B.—There is some talk here over a case of small-pox. The victim is a young man named Bryne, a railway employee. The doctor says the case is a very light type, but immediate steps will or should be taken to prevent the spread of the disease, or serious consequences may ensue. Some members of the Council are moving in the matter.—Globe.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Hon. S. Frowse and Dr. Robertson have called meetings of their constituents in three central places in their district to consult the electors on the questions of the day, and the requirements of the district. A meeting will take place this evening at Murray Harbor North Hall. Hon. W. W. Sullivan is likewise attending public meetings in his district to ascertain the nature and extent of local wants, and the views of his constituents before the opening of Parliament.—Adv. the 9th.

ALEX. PATEN and Timothy Brown, members of very respectable families, in Ottawa, have been living rather fast for some time without any apparent source of income. Detective McVeity, when given a jewelry larceny case to work up against the boy who opened the shop, learned that these young gentlemen had been frequent callers, and on visiting houses of ill-fame frequented by them, he found part of the stolen articles. He arrested his men and found none of the stolen property on one of them. They were committed for trial.

The friends of Cuban independence in New York are at last obliged to admit that the island leaders have surrendered, and that the insurrection is at an end. They profess, however, to think that it will again be renewed. The New York Sun calls the event a disgrace to the United States, which should long ago have recognized "Free Cuba," and says that the result has been brought about by treachery on the part of some of the leaders. Other accounts, however, say that a leading cause was a departure by the Spaniards from their old custom of shooting on the spot every "patriot" whom they captured. For some time back they have been acting on a different plan, and have been holding out amnesty and safety as an inducement to the insurgents to come in. Recent events in Madrid have greatly assisted them in creating a favorable impression, and now the insurrection is certainly over, after having continued for over nine years.

THE LATEST WHALE STORY.—It was a seafaring man named Sinbad who, according to the Arabian Nights story, was wrecked on what he and his comrades took to be a desert island, but which subsequently proved to be the back of a whale. Almost as curious as this, and, needless to say, more authentic, was the experience of a ship's crew who lately anchored off the coast of Newfoundland. They were surprised to observe one afternoon that, although the sails were not set and the anchor was still overboard, the vessel was underway and going at the rate of 12 knots an hour. It was soon found that an enormous whale had been caught in the cable and was dragging ship, anchor, and cable as fast as he could go. Great was the astonishment of the crews of other vessels who saw the phenomenon of a schooner scuttling merrily along without sail or wind, recalling legends of the Phantom Ship, and

The bosun tight
And the midshipmite
And the crew of the Nancy Brig.
Fortunately the monster of the deep took a seaward direction, and finally the cable broke, and released him from his self-imposed task.—Her. Herald.

WAR NEWS.

Special Dispatch to Examiner.

LONDON, March 9.

A colliery explosion occurred to-day near Glasgow. Twelve miners were rescued and seventeen are still in the pit, but it is not expected that they will be alive when reached.

In the Commons this morning, Stafford Northcote announced that England had accepted the invitation of Austria to attend a Conference which will be held in Berlin.

Lord Lyons, English Ambassador at Paris, has been selected to act as Plenipotentiary.

The date of the conference has not yet been fixed.

In the House of Lords this afternoon, Derby said that Persia has assured the Government that she has no understanding with Russia regarding the cession of the district of Bayazid.

Earl Derby also said that the Government was now communicating with the other Powers principally regarding the basis on which the conference should proceed.

The Government had stated their opinion that not merely a part but the whole of the treaty between Russia and Turkey should be submitted to the Congress.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 9.

It is stated that Safvet Pasha will represent Turkey at the Congress.

VIENNA, March 9.

The Political Correspondence publishes, under reserve, the following from Bucharest:—

It is said that the Russians on March 6th occupied the Bessarabian towns of Ismel, Colul and Bulgrad.

The Roumanian Government at present keeps this a secret, but a Cabinet Council is said to have been held under the presidency of Prince Charles, to frame conditions.

MALTA, March 8.

The Channel Squadron is still here awaiting orders. The troop ship "Cupharthes" is homeward bound with 1,068 soldiers, and the "Serapis," outwards bound, with 29 officers, have also been detained. Since March 6th four smaller men-of-war have gone to the Dardanelles and one to Crete.

VIENNA, March 8.

It is believed in well informed quarters that the reorganization of Bulgaria will be entrusted to a more moderate politician than the late Prince Teherkassy, thus removing all suspicion of a Russification or lengthening stay of the Russians.

LONDON, March 9.

A despatch from Pera says that Raouf Pasha's departure for St. Petersburg to exchange ratifications of treaty, has been postponed for a few days.

After the 9th inst., a police regulation comes into force, by which police may enter houses in Turkey occupied by foreigners without the authority of consuls.

GENERAL NEWS.

Cardinal Franchi has been confirmed as Pontifical Secretary of State, Cardinal Simeoni as Prefect of the Propaganda, Cardinal Morichini as Camerlengo, and Cardinal Bartolina as President of the Congregation of Rites.

LONDON, March 6.

The decline in silver is stated to be due to the increase in the amount of India Council bills to be allotted to-day £500,000 instead of £300,000, coupled with the feeling of uncertainty about the probable future financial requirements of the Indian Government.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian telegraphs that Lord Beaconsfield is strongly opposed to the annexation of Egypt.

ROME, March 6.

The correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says: "Public opinion is irritated at the irreconcilable attitude which appears to have been adopted at the Vatican."

BERLIN, March 6.

The "National Zeitung" says the resignation of Camphausen, Finance Minister, and Vice-President of the Council, is final. He only acts pending the appointment of a successor.

ROME, March 6.

The Pope and Cardinal Franchi have determined on the policy of reconciling as far as possible the interests of the Church and State on questions pending with the various governments.

PARIS, March 6.

The Emperor William has signed a decree authorizing the German painters and sculptors to participate in the Paris Exhibition.

ROME, March 6.

The Pope, on receiving fifty-four parish priests, recommended them to preach Jesus Christ, His life and teachings, and to guard their flocks against infidelity and immorality so generally prevailing—the result of a corrupt press.

It has shocked most people that the Pope in his coronation speech made no allusion to Pius IX., although Cardinal DePietro in addressing the Pontiff had been eloquent in praise of the deceased Pope. The omission could not, therefore, be accidental, and has been variously commented on.
