MONDAY

On Sunday, July 23rd, 1939, after a lingering illness, suffered with patience and resignation, death came at the age of 58 to Annie Kenny, beloved wife of John A. Mooney, Peake's Station.

—HIGH SCHOOL OPENS— The Summerside High School will re-open for the fall term on September 6th. The School Board will make any changes that may be necessary to replace teachers who may be called up for service in the Militia.

—SYMPATHY EXPRESSED — Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert MacQuaid of Summerside in the death of their infant daughter, Mary Ilene three days old. The little one was laid to rest on Sunday afternoon in St. Paul's Cemetery. S.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS —Mrs. Winnifred Murphy of Notre Dame Convent here is receiving hearty congratulations of her host of friends today as she celebrated her 88th birthday. The Guardian joins in extending greetings.

James Edward Tyner, 80-year-old retired Baptist minister, died instantly in an auto driven by James W. Edwards, 2206 Fulton Avenue, Burnaby, B.C. when the car collided slightly with another machine at Nelson and Marine Drive, Whytecliff, near midnight Tuesday.

Rumors are flying fast at present but "by the old route" it is understood recruiting in all units of Prince Edward Island's militia is progressing most satisfactorily and at least one unit has already recruited in excess of its authorized strength. It is understood, also that two senior officers have already left the Province.

WORK CONTINUES—There was no truth in rumors the Provincial Government had cancelled its hard surfacing road program because of difficulty in obtaining necessary petroleum products. Mr. L B McMillan, deputy Minister of Highways said last night when questioned. The Government had not met since the declaration of war, he said. He did not know what action might be taken but yesterday at any rate work was said to be continuing.

—DEATH OF MRS. GILBERT METHERALL—There passed away quite suddenly on Friday night in the Prince County Hospital Mrs. Gilbert Metherall of Alberton. Mrs. Metherall had entered the hospital for treatment and was stricken quite suddenly during the night. Mrs. Metherall was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs William Harding of Montrose and was a most estimable woman and her rather sudden passing will be learned with deep regret by her many friends. Besides her husband and parents, there are left to mourn several brothers and sisters. The funeral took place on Sunday from her late residence to the United Church at Elmsdale and was largely attended.—S.

ON MOTOR HOLIDAY—Mr. Wm. N. MacKay, Murray Harbour North, motored to Charlottetown Friday morning with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Prescott E. French, West Medford, Mass., who were on the way to the boat. They were much pleased with the improvement of the roads, this being their seventh trip to Mrs. French's home. Mrs. French is a graduate of Charlottetown Business College, Class of 1910. Miss Mildred French is a Junior at Dean's Academy, Franklin, Mass., and is a talented pianist. Mr. French is an ex-service man of the U. S. Signal Corps and has been employed with the New England Telephone Co., Boston, Mass. for twenty-eight years.

—DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPH MacINTYRE— There passed away on Saturday morning in the Prince County Hospital Mrs. Joseph MacIntyre of Grand River at 77 years of age. Mrs. MacIntyre had not been in good health for some time and had entered the hospital for treatment. She was to all appearances feeling much better, when she took a relapse and passed away quite suddenly. Mrs. MacIntyre was before her marriage Miss Mary Ann MacDonald of Grand River, and was most highly esteemed. She was a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church. She leaves to mourn her husband, one step son, Harold, in Grand River and two step-daughters Helen and Wanda in the United States. Her brother William MacDonald who is visiting his old home in Grand River is remaining for the funeral. Mrs. MacIntyre has two sisters and one brother living in the United States. The funeral is taking place this morning from her late residence to Grand River Church. —S.

Miss Laura K. Scott, 79-year-old retired school teacher passed away at her home here Sunday afternoon. She had been unwell for three years

Born in Charlottetown, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, the deceased was one of the veteran school teachers in the city and is remembered with warm feelings by many men and women whom she so capably and kindly instructed in her more than 40 years service with the teaching profession.

Miss Scott was educated in the public schools of Charlottetown and at Prince of Wales College. Following graduation she was for three years on the staff of West Kent School. She then joined the staff of Prince Street School where she remained until her retirement more than ten years ago. A conscientious painstaking teacher Miss Scott rose high in her profession. At the time of her retirement she was vice-principal of Prince Street. During her long career she was always deeply interested in her pupils and gave freely of her time in tutoring pupils planning to take matriculation examinations.

In 1925 Miss Scott in company with several other teachers took a trip overseas, visiting Scotland, England and the battle fields of France.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. A. W. Sterns and Miss Alexandra Scott, the latter a retired member of the teaching staff of Prince of Wales College. Both reside in Charlottetown.

—RETURNED HOME — Mrs. Wallace MacNevin has returned to her home in O'Leary with her wee baby daughter from the Prince County Hospital.—S

—RETURNED HOME —Rev. and Mrs. Davies have returned to their home in Summerside from their summer vacation spent in Whitby, Ontario. Rev. Mr. Davies exchanged parishes with Rev. Mr. Parks of Whitby during August. During their stay in Summerside, Rev. and Mrs. Parks made many friends.

ISLAND FAMILY BEREAVED—A telegram received by Miss Beatrice Van Iderstine of this city from her brother Davis VanIderstine, Winnipeg, Man., stating his son Clayton had passed away. Clayton had been ill for several months and the news was not unexpected. Mr. Davis VanIderstine is a former native of the province born at Hunter River and his wife (nee Mildred Huestis) was born in this city.

NOT TO DISBAND— Lt. Col. L. T. Lowther, commanding the P. E. I. Lighthorse, writes The Guardian contradicting the report that the regiment had been disbanded. He claims that the report was a reflection on some 500 citizens of this Province who have worked hard for years building up this regiment which now has a high record at National Defence Headquarters, Ottawa. The Guardian is exceedingly pleased to learn the Light Horse is still carrying on and that the report that it was to be disbanded is without foundation.

BIRTHDAY PARTY — . Family and friends, gathered at the home of Mr. Benj. Jenkins, Mount Albion on Sept. 2nd, to celebrate his ninety-first birthday. Born in 1848 Mr. Jenkins is the oldest resident in the community. He enjoys good health and takes a keen interest in public affairs. Many congratulatory messages and gifts were received by Mr. Jenkins from friends in different parts of Canada and the United States. A happy evening was spent in games and music, and after a delicious supper the party broke up with "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again".

Mr. Fred Allen, a prominent citizen of Union Corner, passed away at his home on Tuesday afternoon after a long illness. Mr. Allen was 77 years of age and was born in Cape Traverse, N. B. He came to this province 49 years ago and for many years did a large lobster packing business. Later he took up farming. He was most mourn his widow formerly Miss Allen, Union Corner, one son, Ernest at home and four daughters, Mrs. Eldred England, Kerslie Mrs. George Chandler, Virginia, U. S. A., Mrs. Claude Jelly, O'Leary and Mrs. H. H. Darby, Summerside, one brother, Montague, Cape Tormentine and one sister, Mrs. Roy Smith, New York, to whom sympathy is extended. Among the survivors of the ill fated liner Athenia torpedoed off the coast of Scotland, on Sunday, September 3, were Rev. Frances Elwood McPherson and Mrs. MacPherson, who were returning to Canada, after having spent the last year in Scotland. Rev. Mr. McPherson had been granted a Travelling Scholarship from Toronto University, and was attending Edinburgh University. He is a graduate of Prince of Wales College, Mt. Allison University, and United Theological College, Montreal, having won high honors in each of these institutions. He is a son of Mr. John A. McPherson, Glenwood, Lot 8, Prince County, and Mrs. McPherson a native of Canterbury, New Brunswick. They are among the survivors picked up by the Knut Nelson and landed at Galway, Eire. Their many friends here are delighted to hear of their rescue, and wish for them a less harrowing trip when they next venture to return to their homeland.

Friends and relatives came from far and near to pay their respects to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Anderson of Mcrell, who celebrated the Golden Anniversary of their wedding on Tuesday evening. Five sons, daughters-in-law, and grandchildren were present, some of them having travelled from as far as Europe for the occasion.

Messages of felicitation were received from His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, the Honourable Prime Minister Mackenzie King, the Honourable Premier Thane A Campbell, as well as from friends and acquaintances in various parts of Canada and the United States.

The celebration took the form of a large semi-formal dinner in the spacious Anderson home. Professor Fulton Anderson of Toronto University, a son acted as master of ceremonies. After the drinking of the The King's Health, a toast to Friends and Neighbors was proposed by A. B. Anderson of Liverpool, another son, and responded to by Mr. K. A. Webster and Mr. Bennett Macdonald. Then followed the toast to the Honoured guests, which was proposed by Mr. H. H. Cox M. P. P.

A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized in St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday morning when Mary Catherine, daughter of Mrs. Peter McCarron, and the late exconducter Peter McCarron was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Lieut. Roy Arnold McCabe of the P. E. Island Highlanders, and son of Lieut. Allan and Mrs. McCabe, all of this city.

The ceremony was performed, and Nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. P. McMahon D. D., rector of the Basilica.

Miss Gertrude McCarron the bride's sister acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Lieut. A. F. Gormley.

Both the groom and groomsman, in uniform, are awaiting orders for transfer to some other area in Canada.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride where a wedding breakfast was served.

As the bridal party left the Basilica Pipe Major Wilfred Burke of the Highland Pipe Band, played appropriate airs.

The bride was attractively gowned in rose and burgandy with matching accessories and wearing a corsage of sweet peas.

The bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in pale blue, with accessories of burgandy and wore a corsage bouquet of roses.

Mrs. McCarron, mother of the bride, chose black with a corsage of roses, while Mrs. McCabe, mother of the groom, was gowned in Royal blue with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas.

A honeymoon trip is undecided as Lieut McCabe is awaiting orders, but if time will allow they will enjoy a short trip.

The Guardian joins with a host of friends in extending hearty congratulations.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at De Sable on August 26th at 2 p. m. when Ethel Irene, daughter of Mrs. George H. Bell and the late Mr. Bell, De Sable became the bride of Robert Judson Rackham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rackham Wheatley River.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Bishop, Charlottetown.

The bride entered the room which was tastefully decorated with a profusion of cut flowers to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by her sister Miss Viola, and was given in marriage by her brother Melville.

The bride was becomingly attired in grey printed chiffon with contrasting trimmings and wore a corsage of sweet peas.

After the ceremony a few immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties partook of a sumptuous repast. Amid showers of confetti the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces. The bride's travelling costume was of brown crepe with matching accessories. On their return they will reside in Fredericton where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

The final number was a humorous recitation, "When Teacher Comes To Tea,' by Mr Allison Profitt. The meting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Historic Prince of Wales College reopened its classes yesterday for the 80th term since it was founded. 199 girls and 88 boys enrolled for first year work in the 1939-40 class.

The enrollment so far this year is approximately 430 as compared with a total of 510 students registered last term. Last year's record number was considerably lessened owing to a number of young men having enlisted in the militia. There has been a decided increase in the number of female students registered for classes over that of the males.

Students of the 3rd and 4th years were enrolled on Tuesday while those of the 2nd year enlisted their names on Wednesday.

Dr. G. D. Steel, principal of the institution announced that there were several boys enrolled who are connected with the militia and may be called to their country's defence before the term is completed.

Nothing definite is known in regard to changes in staff but Mr. Alfred Linkletter a former member of the faculty has returned to the teaching staff.

TICKETS OF LEAVE — Lieutenant-Governor George D. PROVINCE PLEDGES SUPPORT—Prime Minister Mackenzie King was assured of the loyalty and cooperation of the people of Prince Edward Island in the national emergency, it was learned in communiciations made public yesterday. Premier Thane A. Campbell sent a message to the Prime Minister saying "the Government and people of Prince Edward Island wish to assure the Dominion Government and Parliament of the fullest cooperation in all measures taken to secure the defence of Canada or to support the cause of Great Britain and her Allies." In reply, Prime Minister King said "my colleagues and I deeply appreciate the assurances contained in your telegram."

STAFF CHANGES IN CITY SCHOOLS— Temporary staff changes in the City Schools were announced last night following a meeting of the School Board. Changes were made necessary when several male members of the teaching staffs in three schools were given leave of absence while on military service. Ralph McLean, B. A. was appointed acting principal in Prince Street School and Ernest W. Dunning added to the staff. In West Kent Austin W. Kennedy and Harold Lawton were appointed to the staff. In Queen Square School J. W F. McCallum, now a member of the staff was promoted to acting principal and Alfred Doucette, another member of the staff was made acting vice principal. J. Pius Callaghan and Miss Florence McTague were added to the staff. Schools would open on Monday, it was announced. Regular opening had been scheduled for Tuesday of this week but was delayed to make staff changes.

The School Board of the Summerside High School met this week to consider the appointing of substitutes to replace teachers called up for service in the Canadian Militia

Mr. D. O Stewart, the newly appointed chairman presided. Mr. Peter G. Clark, recently appointed to fill the vacancy made by Mr. Stewart's appointment to the chair, was present and welcomed by the Board.

Applications were considered for the vacancies on the School Staff, and leave of absence were granted to Mr. Francis MacNeill and Mr. Davis Lidstone so that they could respond to the call of service to their country. Miss Martha Linkletter and Mr. Ronald Jamieson were appointed in their place. Mr. C. B. Jelly principal was granted a year's leave of absence to complete a course at Mount Allison University to obtain his degree.

Miss Agnes Ramsay Vice Principal has been appointed acting principal and Mr. Albert Silliphant acting vice principal.

Mr. Keith Jelly has been appointed to the staff of the High School.
