JUNE 23, 1897.

JUBILEE HONOURS.

We heartily join in the congratulations showered upon Sir Louis Davies and Lady Davies and their relatives here. In the number we include particularly, Sir Louis' aged and highly esteemed father. The distinguished honour conferred by the Queen upon our representative in the Cabinet must add to his personal influence in the Government and throughout the country. We hope that his public services for his native Province will, in the future, bear much fruit. Confidence has been reposed upon him by his country and his Queen, and his political opponents as well as hosts of personal and political friends will confidently look forward to substantial public improvements as a result of his exertions. Some disappointment will, no doubt, be felt by those who hoped that Lieutenant-Governor Howland, Chief Justice Sullivan and Mr. Mayor Dawson would not have been overlooked at the distribution of the Queen's Jubilee honours. But such an honour as Knighthood is necessarily limited, even at such a time as this, to a very few persons; and we must all feel that in bestowing it upon Sir Louis Davies, the Crown has selected one who will fittingly bear it.

The list of the Canadians who have obtained jubilee honours includes:—

- Sir Donald Smith, G. C. M. G.—a peerage with the title of Lord Glencairn.
  - Hon. Wilfred Laurier,—membership of her Majesty's Privy Council and the grand cross of the order of St. Michael and St. George.
  - Hon. Sir Oliver Mowatt, K. C. M. G.—the grand cross of the order of St. Michael and St. George.
  - Hon. Sir Richard Cartwright, K. C. M. G.—the grand cross of the order of St. Michael and St. George.
  - The Lieutenant Governor of Ontario—the order of K. C. M. G.
  - Hon. L. H. Davies, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, the order of K. C. M. G.
  - Sandford Fleming, C. M. G.—the order of K. C. M. G.
  - Hon. Chief Justice Taylor, of Manitoba,—a knighthood.
  - Hon. Chief Justice Tait, of Quebec,—a knighthood.
  - Hon. John H. Haggarty, ex-chief justice of Ontario,—a knighthood.
- The following gentlemen the companionship of the order of St. Michael and St. George; J. M. Courtney, Deputy Minister of Finance; J. Lorne McDougall, Auditor General; Lt. Col. William White, Deputy Postmaster General; Louis Frechette, the poet.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—"Queen's weather"—yesterday!
—Everyone says that the celebration of yesterday was highly creditable to Charlottetown and Province.
—The London Daily Telegraph's Athens correspondent says: "It is reported here that the peace conference and the Porte have accepted a settlement giving Turkey either the town of Ligaria, southeast of Miloua, or Nezeros, north of Marisa." The Athens correspondent of the Daily Chronicle reports that the Porte has abandoned the policy of delay and decided to accept the advice of the powers.

PLACE DE LA CONCORDE.

The Most Famous and Beautiful Square in Gay and Vivacious Paris.
The most important public square in Paris and one of the handsomest in the whole world is the Place de la Concorde. In the center rises the obelisk of Luxor, presented by the pasha of Egypt to Louis Philippe. It is flanked on either side by a large fountain. The Place de la Concorde seems somewhat wrongly called, in view of the history of the spot. One hundred and fifty years ago it was an open field, but in 1748 the city accepted the gracious permission of Louis XV to erect a statue to him here. The place then took his name and retained it till the new regime, in 1789, melted down the statue and converted it into 3 cent pieces.

On the 30th of May, 1770, during an exhibition of fireworks here, a panic took place and 1,200 people were trampled to death and 2,000 more were severely injured. The occasion was the attempt of the people to express by a grand celebration their unbounded joy at the recent marriage of the young dauphin with the Austrian princess Marie Antoinette. On the 21st of January, 1793, they gathered here again in immense numbers to see the head of the same dauphin, then Louis XVI, chopped off by the sharp guillotine. During the next two years the spot well earned its title "Place of the Revolution," for the guillotine had not ceased its work until Marie Antoinette, Charlotte Corday, Mme. Elizabeth (the king's sister), Robespierre and more than 2,800 persons had here been perished by its deadly stroke.—Chautauquan.

Edhem Pasha.

Edhem Pasha, though a Turk, is far from being an unspeakable one, if the reports about him that come from the war correspondents are to be believed. They describe the invader of Thessaly as a handsome, courteous and well educated man, who looks more than his 45 years because his thick beard, once glossy black, is now thickly flecked with gray. He is above middle height, his nose is straight and rather long, his gray eyes are large and intelligent, and his manner is that attractive mingling of amiability with dignity which is a not uncommon attribute of the Turk as seen on ordinary occasions. Edhem does not strike the superficial observer as a strong man, but he is a hard worker and does not spare himself. His talk is as a rule quiet, and marked by much refinement, but it grows animated when a subject kindles his interest, and his eyes then glow with enthusiasm. It is difficult to judge of a man's sense of humor through the barriers of a strange language. His style of life is simple and he has none of the oriental love of display. In character he seems to be straightforward and sincere, frank and truth loving. Trickery, intrigue, diplomacy and politics alike he appears to detest. His subordinates and those who see him most intimately are most fond of him.—New York Times.

Believed In Either Mode.

"Why didn't they have that baptizing out at the creek the other day?"
"It rained furiously while they were on their way out, and before they got half way there the man who was going to be baptized said he was not prejudiced in favor of either mode, and he believed it wouldn't be necessary to go any further with the ceremony."—Chicago Tribune.
