THE DAILY EXAMINER

APRIL 27, 1900

MR. WISE AND THE PATRIOT.

A GOOD THING sometimes finds its way into The Patriot. Last evening we noticed in it selections from two of THE EXAMINER's articles. One refers to the sending of Mr. Wise to England a year and a half ago; the other to the deceit practiced upon Mr. Wise touching his resignation, and Mr. Wise's manly action thereupon. The Patriot's reason for publishing these articles in juxtaposition have not been explained. The first brings to mind a scandalous attempt on the part of the Government to purchase a continuance of the support of Mr. Wise,—which failed. Mr. Wise went to England. But to his own great credit, and to the chagrin of Mr. Farquharson and his friends, he maintained his independence of thought and action with reference to the Government's gross mismanagement of public affairs. In view of Mr. Wise's report, published last year, we are bound to admit that he performed his mission much more efficiently than we supposed that he would. The mission was, however, premature. It has not been followed by the establishment of steam communication directly between this Province and Great Britain, and consequently the public money expended upon it has been practically thrown away. Why The Patriot should recall an episode which reflects so much disgrace upon the Government is hard to see.

As for the facts set forth in Mr. Wise's last letter, and commented upon by THE EXAMINER in the second article quoted by The Patriot, they remain uncontroverted and uncontradicted. The Patriot, indeed, has made additionally clear the truth that Premier Farquharson accepted from Mr. Wise a trust the essential condition of which he did not fulfil, and that Mr. Wise and the electors of the second district of Queen's County have been made the victims of a political sharpers' trick.

Referring to the last letter of Mr. Joseph Wise, we are requested by Mr. Horace Hazard to state that his letter to the Guardian was purely non-partisan, and that it was written solely with the object of bringing about better political conditions in this Province.

Unwilling Witnesses.

OTTAWA, April 26.—The public accounts committee met yesterday morning to hear a statement of Mr. Bourassa, M. P., as to his bill of $2,000 for expenses as secretary of the International Commission. Bourassa did not appear. He had written to chairman Fraser, who did not bring the letter, but it is known that he denies the authority of the committee to summon him as he is a member of Parliament. McGrigg, Yukon Commissioner, also failed to appear and John Connor was not examined, but the Solicitor General could not attend.

Winston Wanted.

LONDON, April 26th.—A movement is afoot among the Manchester Conservatives to nominate Winston Spencer Churchill, the war correspondent, former lieutenant of Hussars, and eldest son of Lady Randolph Churchill, (formerly Miss Jennie Jerome, of New York) for parliament, to succeed the Duke of Argyll who, as the Marquis of Lorne, represented South Manchester in the House of Commons, until the recent death of his father.

Spion Kop Despatches.

LONDON, April 26.—Speaking in London last evening the president of the Board of Trade, Mr. Chas. Thompson Ritchie, said it was a delusion to suppose that the Spion Kop despatches were published without the consent of Roberts. He declared also that their publication did not necessitate a recall of Sir Redvers Buller.

KILTS USED FOR IRISH GUARDS

A Strong Plea for a Return to the Old Time Garb of the Celtic Soldier.—A Vigorous Campaign.

Hon. William Gibson, eldest son of Irish Lord Chancellor Ashbourne, has opened a vigorous campaign to induce the war office to adopt kilts as the uniform for the new Irish Guards. Kilts formed the garb worn by the Irish until the end of the sixteenth century. The Irish kilts, curiously enough, were of a ferron color, closely approaching the khaki hue, now deemed essential in tropical warfare.

"It was the barbaric races surrounding the Roman and Greek peoples who wore trousers-like garments," says Mr. Gibson, "while those dominant races wore kilts. For barbarism and decadence combined, commend me to the tubular system of dress now prevailing—two tubes for the legs, two for the arms, one for the body and the last one for the head."

"Kilts were suppressed by the law of Ireland, but little encouragement is needed to make them once more the national dress. Irish soldiers, instead of being incased in ludicrous wrappings of modern civilization, would thus have, like the Scottish, a costume comfortable, economic, rational and picturesque, which would recall to Irishmen that theirs is one of the eldest civilizations in Europe." Gibson's suggestion has scarcely been taken seriously so far. The present intention of the war office is that the Irish Guards' uniform in all general respects will be the same as that of the present guards, but the Royal Irish Guards will be readily recognizable. Just as the Grenadiers wear a red band, the Coldstreams a white band, and the Scots Guards a plaid band round their caps, the Irish will have a light green band. They also will have a gilt Irish harp with a shamrock on the collars of their tunics, just as the Grenadiers have a gilt band grenade in flames. They will also wear green plumes on their helmets.

ACIDITY OF STOMACH

An Invariable Sign of Indigestion for which Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are Invaluable.

Caused by Decomposition of Food—Avoid articles such as Sugar, Butter, Starch—Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal.

One of the most frequent signs of insidious approach of Chronic Dyspepsia is acidity of the stomach. It is a certain sign of indigestion and it left to itself invariably brings about the chronic disease mentioned.

It is caused by undigested food remaining in the stomach and decomposing. The acid thus formed rises to the throat in the effort of the stomach to throw it off.

Acidity often arises from over-eating or from eating food of poor quality. It generally means, however, that the stomach is weak and impoverished, failing to supply the digestive juices.

It is a fatal mistake to let this state of things continue. If a total breakdown of the stomach is to be avoided acidity must be cured. It is easy enough to cure.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have for years enjoyed the reputation of being the most scientific remedy for Chronic Dyspepsia and all stomach diseases ever devised. In fact they positively cure every disease of the stomach except cancer. They are therefore even more powerful in the treatment of the early results of indigestion.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure acidity of the stomach promptly and permanently. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure all forms of Dyspepsia—Heartburn, Indigestion, Bilio-ness, Flatulence, Acidity, Headaches, Waterbrash, Nervousness, and all the rest of them.

Erroneous Report.

PEKIN, April 26.—The report from Tien Tsin dated April 23, that a number of native Christians had been massacred by members of the Chinese Secret Society, known as the Boxers, is quite erroneous. Some Boxers attacked a village occupied by a number of Catholics, but were driven off. One villager was wounded. The Chinese report that 70 Boxers were killed or wounded, which is doubtless an exaggeration.
