We are happy to learn that our talented young friend, Master Lawrence W. Watson, son of W. R. Watson, Esq., Sheriff of Queen's County, still continues to gain brilliant academic distinctions in one of our leading Provincial Colleges. He has been at King's College, Windsor, for the last two years, and in his recent examination acquitted himself well. He took first rank in Greek and French, in competition with an under-graduate four years his senior, who had been one term longer in the class than he was. In English they were equal, and in all the other branches young Watson was close upon the heels of his rival. We congratulate him on his success, and hope he may long live to enjoy and wear his "blushing honors thick upon him."

The Comics.—The Toronto Lance is as bright as ever. It deals its thrusts right and left among the ranks of McKenzie's followers, unhorsing them one after another. Its cartoon is entitled: "The Chiels in glee over the news from Quebec," and here is the peroration of the Premier's address:—

Now, like good bairns, gae hame, and every man
Come back next Session, that is if he can.
We've work before us. We must purge the land
From this compact increasing Tory band,
(As to their policy, I've no objection,
Perhaps next Session I may speak Protection.)
But meantime go, my Grits—my merry menzie,
And cry "Retrenchment! Purity! McKenzie!"
Which means "use every art,—man every gun,
And fight for Plunder and for Number One!"

A house of ill-fame, situated at the west end of this City, has, for years past, caused great trouble to the police and disturbance to the residents of that vicinity. The police have several times raided the premises and arrested the proprietoress, together with several prostitutes. They have been sent to jail for months with hard labor, but imprisonment seems to have little effect. During the last few days residents of that vicinity have been complaining that they cannot rest on account of the disorderly gang that frequent this hideous den. Last night, at 11 o'clock, officers Cameron and Shea made a raid on the premises, and arrested two common prostitutes named Elizabeth Matheson and Mary Young, and the proprietoress of the house—an old woman named Ann Callaghan. There were two young men in the house when the officers entered, but they only secured one. All were under the influence of liquor. Misses Matheson and Young were taken to the police station; but as the proprietoress had two small children to care for, the officers left her, with the intention of securing her this morning. She left the house during the night and escaped to the woods at Brighton, where the police are now seeking for her. Those arrested were examined before the Stipendiary Magistrate this morning. Misses Young and Matheson were tried together on the same charge. They underwent three months imprisonment for a like offense some time ago. On hearing the evidence of officer Cameron and the City Marshal, they were sentenced to six months imprisonment with hard labor. The young man was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, for being drunk and disorderly.

The movement of the Indian troops to Malta will be discussed in the House of Lords also on Monday, when Load Beaconsfield will call attention to the question whether such a movement, previous to notifying Parliament, is constitutional.

The Opposition, however, will not move any resolution on the subject in the House of Lords, and Lord Hartington's resolution in the Commons is declared by him not to be intended to raise a question of policy of using the Indian forces; but is merely a legal issue.
