Bank of P. E. Island.

THE DEPOSITORS MEETING.

A MEETING of the Depositors in the Bank of P. E. Island, was held in Masonic Hall, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Hon. John Longworth, President of the Bank, occupied the chair, and nearly one hundred depositors were present. After a short deliberation nearly all the depositors present signed an agreement to leave the deposits in the bank for three years at 4 per cent interest, with the privilege of drawing an instalment of one third every year, the first draft to be made six months after the bank resumes.

A Committee—composed of Dr. Taylor, C. C. Gardiner, J. H. Fletcher, Maurice Blake, and Robert Crabb, Esq.—was appointed to secure the signatures of the balance of the depositors to the agreement. The meeting adjourned at five o'clock, p. m.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On the afternoon of Friday last, an aged man named Martin O'Brien living near the head of Kildare River, in the settlement known as Alma, started from a neighbor's house to go home a distance of about a mile. A snowstorm coming up quite thick, he lost his way and got bewildered and perished a few hundred yards from a neighbor's house. The remains were not found till the Sunday following, when of course they were frozen stiff. The snow was beaten for a short distance round the spot, and it is supposed that on giving up hopes of reaching some house, he kept moving about to prevent being frozen. He was 82 years of age. Dr. Bearisto, the coroner, attended and a verdict was rendered according to the above facts.—Pioneer.

Of Oxford men who attained high political distinction in after life, Sir Robert Peel took a double first—in classics and mathematics—in 1808; Sir Charles Wood, now Lord Halifax, in 1821; Mr. Gladstone in 1831, and Mr. Cardwell in 1835; Lord Sherbrooke ("Bob Lowe") took, in 1833, a first in classics and a second in mathematics; Lord Selbourn, the Lord Chancellor, took a first in classics in 1834; and Lord Kimberly and Mr. Dodson, two members of the present Cabinet, the same in 1847. In 1839 Sir Stafford Northcote, leader of the Conservative party in the House of Commons, got a first in classics and a third in mathematics.

In Japan the spiders are so numerous that their webs form the chief drawback to telegraphy by grounding the electric current. The trees literally swarm with spiders, and they spin their webs everywhere between the earth, wires, posts and insulators. When these lines are covered with heavy dews, they become good conductors, and run the messages "into the ground." The telegraph company are obliged to employ men to sweep the wires with bamboo brushes, but the spiders are so numerous, and such indefatigable workers, that the men with their brushes cannot always keep the wires in good condition for the transmission of messages.

SMOKING seems to be on the increase in France, as well as in the United States. During the year 1881 the Government of that country realized 320,000,000 francs from the sales of tobacco and cigars, being a much larger revenue than was ever before realized from that source. In 1812 the revenue from it amounted to only 30,000,000 francs. This would tend to show an increase in the consumption of tobacco during the period of sixty-six years of over one thousand per cent., while the increase of population during the same period has been only about thirty per cent.

The extraordinary growth of tramways in Great Britain is worthy of note. According to a return published the other day, it appears there are now 488 miles open for public traffic. The stock of the companies comprises 15,220 horses, forty locomotive engines, and 2,045 cars. There have been 205,623,510 passengers, carried down to 30th June, in 1881; the gross receipts were £1,576,301, and the net receipts, after paying working expenses, £336,405.

The real estate boom in Winnipeg has again set in with more vigor than ever. Capitalists are pouring in from all directions, some forty or fifty arriving on Saturday last, with an estimated $300,000 of capital to invest. The hotels are crowded and private houses are appealed to for accommodation.

One of the most remarkable incidents in the American trip of Charles Dickens of 1842-'43 was his unconquerable resolution to change his American money into gold as soon as he received it, regardless of the rate of exchange, which happened to be so much against him during the early part of the readings that this whim cost him quite £10,000.

AN AFFLICTED FAMILY.—Much sympathy is felt for the family of Hon. John B. Dickie, of this town, who are sorely afflicted with that dreadful scourge, diphtheria. A few days ago two of his daughters were buried, and to-day as we go to press, 4 p. m., another has died. Mr. Dickie himself is also dangerously ill with the disease, and still another daughter is not expected to recover.—Tyrone Sun.

The inhabitants of the western end of Dock Road, Lot 4, held a meeting some time ago and resolved that the settlement henceforth be called Brockton. This is communicated to us by Mr. John McArthur, who was secretary at the meeting in question.—Pioneer.

THE DAWSON REPORT A FORGERY AND A CONGLOMERATION OF FALSEHOOD.—LETTER FROM HON. MR. GAVIN.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—My attention has been called to a letter published in the last New Era, over the signature of Richard Dawson, purporting to be a report of a public meeting, held at Tignish on the 10th inst. The letter in question is very unfair and one-sided. It contains several statements which are notoriously false; and, moreover, it was neither written nor inspired by the gentleman whose name is signed to it. I have Mr. Dawson's own authority for stating that he wrote no report of the meeting; that he never signed any such report, or gave any person authority to sign for him; and he freely expressed his opinion that those who took upon themselves the liberty of appending his name to an untruthful report, did, to say the least of it, a very shabby trick. The New Era's report bears upon the face of it, unmistakable evidence of its pater-nity. Such a production of falsehoods and bad English could only emanate from my Hon. (i) and versatile colleague, Mr. S. F. Perry. Those who know Mr. Perry best, are well aware that falsehood and misrepresentation are the weapons which he has prized most through a long and mis-spent political life, and now that old age is coming upon him he uses them so clumsily that he is altogether at the mercy of his opponents. The statement made in the report that I gave it as my opinion that we would never get a dollar of the Fishery Award, is entirely without foundation, and I venture to assert that Mr. Perry cannot get five respectable gentlemen who were at the meeting to indorse that part of his report. It is extremely comical to see the way he praises his own speech, and were it not that the whole report is so maliciously false, we could well afford to laugh at the grotesque antics of this political buffoon. He informs the public that he read from speeches made by Mr. Cameron, when in opposition in 1878, where that gentleman said there was no necessity for the Assessment Act, etc. When we consider the fact that Mr. Cameron was not a member of the House at that time, and could not possibly have made speeches there, the truth and sense of this part of the report will become very apparent. The last paragraph of the report does not contain a single word of truth. Mr. Hackett and myself got an excellent hearing; but when Mr. Rogers followed to reply to Mr. Hackett, the meeting was a scene of uproar and confusion, and no speaker could be heard.

Mr. Perry got some of his friends to call this meeting in order to give him an opportunity to abuse members of the Government, and to ride for a while his hobby about the Public Lands. He could not have been very well satisfied with the complexion of the meeting, or he would have moved the resolutions prepared beforehand. In this he showed some sense; for had he moved them he would have suffered an ignominious defeat. A writer in the Patriot of yesterday, whose style bears a striking resemblance to that of the author of the New Era's report, drags in the name of the late Supervisor and thinks that I made a humiliating confession in stating the cause of his dismissal. This, after all, may be a matter of opinion as to what is humiliating. I am one of those who think that every man in the community should be at perfect liberty to support whatever political party he may think best, but at the same time when a man applies for, and receives an office from a Government, and enjoys the emoluments of that office, common decency should dictate to him the propriety of giving that Government a fair support or resigning the office.

I should think it a "humiliating confession," were I forced to confess, that I had forged the name of a respectable man to an untruthful report of a public meeting. Yours very truly, PETER GAVIN.

Bank of P. E. Island.

To the Editor of the Patriot. It may contribute something to a settlement of the question whether the Bank of P. E. Island shall be placed in a position to resume business or not by stating the consequences of each plan. The condition of the Bank when it suspended payment was, in round numbers, as follows:

Table with financial data: Nominal Assets $1,200,000, Bad Assets 300,000, Valuable Assets $ 900,000, Debts due by the Bank to the public, including the notes in circulation 1,000,000, Amount of debts over the assets $ 100,000, Capital gone 120,000.

In order that the Bank may resume business, it is necessary to raise the amount of indebtedness of $100,000, and to renew the capital of $120,000. Now, it is considered that at least $30,000 worth of circulation notes will be lost. This, with the $70,000 offered by the directors, will pay off the indebtedness. In order to renew the capital the shareholders are expected to pay in the amount of the original capital, viz: $120,000.

If the Bank should resume business on this basis, viz: with sufficient funds to pay off its debts, and its capital renewed, it will at the end of the first year, be able to declare a dividend, and then the shares will be at or above par. Those of the Shareholders who wish, will be able to get their money back by selling their shares. In case the Bank be allowed to go into liquidation the following will result. The assets which have been computed at $900,000, in case the bank resumes business, will at once shrink to about $600,000. This circulating notes will all be paid in full, as they will all be collected by the debtors of the Bank, and paid in, in order to cancel these debts. These, which amount to about $300,000, will leave only $300,000 to pay off the indebtedness of the Bank to other Banks and to depositors, which will cost at least $500,000. This will necessitate a double call on each shareholder, that is any shareholder who has shares which amount to $1,000, will not only lose his shares, but will be compelled to pay $2,000, and this money will never be received back, as it goes to pay the debts of the Bank.

It appears to me that no one should hesitate between these two plans. Shall the Shareholders renew their shares, allow the Bank to go on, and be able, if they wish, to get their money back in a year or two; or shall they refuse to renew their shares, allow the Bank to go into bankruptcy, with the certainty of being compelled to pay twice the amount of those shares without any prospect of getting their money returned. Yours truly, F. P. TAYLOR.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17. Commander Cheyne has arrived, and is the guest of Sir John McDonald. Members of the city police, under Chief Sherwood, were present in a body.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. Mr. Scoville continued his address to the jury to-day. He relinquished the floor with Judge Cox's assent to allow Guiteau to read the statement he had prepared in reference to his case. The prisoner said he was generally satisfied with the rulings of the judge. He would like him however to add one more. It was: "If the Jury believes I believed it right for me to remove the President because I had a special divine authority so to do it by the Deity, it will acquit me on the grounds of transitory mania. I am here as my own Counsel. No one represents me before that Jury. I know my feelings and my inspiration in removing the President. In the name of Justice, in the name of the judiciary of America, in the name of the American people—I ask that I may be allowed to address that jury when my life may be at stake."

Mr. Scoville then proceeded with his remarks. He claimed that the prisoner had not been treated fairly. Having incarcerated him in jail, no attempt was made to ascertain his mental condition, until four months after the commission of the act.

SHIP NEWS.

Bar Harbor, Me., Jan. 13—British brig Shamrock, of Prince Edward Island, Capt. Dall, went ashore on the west side of Baker's Island, on Monday forenoon, and will prove a total loss. She was in Bole Is., from Boston to Calais to load for Buenos Ayres. Crew safe. Brig and cargo insured.

Baltimore, Jan. 12—Mr. Sebastian Brown, counsel for Messrs. John E. Bell & Co., of this city, and John Hughes, of Prince Edward Island, yesterday filed a libel in the United States District Court, against the British brig Kitty Clyde for a claim of $4500 damages. It is set forth that in the month of December last the brig took in a cargo of potatoes at Prince Edward Island for the libellant in good merchantable condition, the master signing regular bills of lading, by which it was agreed to deliver them in like good order and condition, the cargo of the vessel was in an unseaworthy condition; that the cargo was not properly dunnaged, and the potatoes not sufficiently ventilated nor rightly attended to during the voyage. And further, that on account of the unseaworthiness of the brig she was obliged to put into port for repairs, causing a considerable detention, the consequence of which was that the cargo became utterly worthless, and when it arrived here the Health Commissioner ordered it to be thrown overboard, so that it proved a total loss.

LADY MILTON—Report of Thomas McRae, master of the brig Lady Milton, of Charlotte-town, P. E. I., 330 tons, from Troon, Dec 13, at six a. m., for Demerara, with coals and one passenger.—Proceeded with heavy weather and gales from W S W to N W, till we got to about sixty miles to the N W of Tory on the 17th. Finding the weather dangerously severe, and having lost some sails, we judged it right to put about for Lamnah, which we reached on the 18th, and where we came to anchor. On the 21st, at 10 30 a. m., tide being nearly full, weather clear, wind W N W, strong, the vessel was riding at two anchors in Lamnah Bay. The Annie Braginton, lying N E by N from us a short distance, was preparing to lift anchors and proceed to sea. She had only foretopmast staysail set, which was insufficient to catch her with the wind on her beam. She drifted down upon us, continuing to heave her anchors, notwithstanding the danger of collision, till she came broadside on us, her fore rigging taking our jibboom, and carrying it completely away, with the head gear attached to it. We had paid out chain as fast as possible to avoid collision, but found it impossible. She swung to our starboard bow, cleared us, and proceeded to sea. We returned on the following morning to Troon for repairs. No services were rendered.—Troon, Dec. 23.

TO THE PUBLIC.

AT the Chicago Convention, held in December last, a Resolution was adopted guaranteeing a special Levy of $250,000, to be forwarded to Ireland immediately. A circular has been received from the Irish National Land League of the United States recommending each Branch to adopt measures to raise a special contribution to this sum. Accordingly at the last meeting of the Charlottetown Land League action was taken on the matter, and a Committee of ten—two for each Ward—was appointed to canvass the City to receive subscriptions from all sympathizing with the oppressed of Ireland. In accordance with the wish of this meeting, I would ask a generous response to the call of the gentlemen who will, in the course of a few days, wait on you. The object of this appeal to your generosity is one which I hope will recommend itself to your sympathy. It is to dry the tears of a nation, to aid and comfort the homeless and homeless, and, if possible, to finally obtain for the people of Ireland what the tillers of the soil on this Island now happily enjoy—namely, free lands and happy homes. M. P. HOGAN, President Charlottetown Land League, January 18, 1882—2f
