

Prayer Services Concluded At Summerside Last Night

The guest speaker for the Week of Prayer services, Mr. M. D. Dunbar of the Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, concluded his series of messages last evening at the Presbyterian Church, Summerside. For his final discourse Mr. Dunbar took as his topic "The right and the wrong way of praying". He explained that effective prayer is not dependent upon its scholarly design or its fine polish but upon the intensity of passion and feeling. Said he, "We should examine ever so carefully the prayers and the prayer life of the Master."

The speaker then went on to differentiate between the prayer of petition and the prayer of reiteration, explaining that the efficiency of prayer is not increased by the volume of words or the turning of a phrase.

Mr. Dunbar showed that it is possible to pray a selfish prayer but that effectual and powerful prayers are those that are prayed in the spirit of selflessness such as the Gethsemane prayer of the Saviour. He then went on to say that prayer is not an escape from the trials and temptations of life but a means of facing and overcoming them with God's help and power.

The speaker concluded his address by quoting the familiar verse concerning prayer "The effective fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." He then added, "such prayer is confidence. God's treasury has an inexhaustible supply of power and blessing for all those who will call on him, believing."

Warm words of appreciation were expressed to Mr. Dunbar by Rev. Mr. MacKay, minister of Presbyterian Church, for his inspiring and challenging messages of the week.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of Prince Edward Island Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held at the Summerside Auditorium on Tuesday, the twenty-eighth day of January, 1958, at the hour of 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon.

Dated at Summerside this seventh day of January, 1958.

DRILLING rigs operate about $1500 a day to operate, hours a day seven days a week, and cost on the average five men are employed on each eight-hour shift. Here members of the crew of a typical drilling rig add a length of pipe after changing the drill bit.

Heavy Oil Drilling Gear On Its Way To Province

Oil drilling at Wellington, Prince Edward Island will begin approximately March 1, according to Imperial Oil who yesterday stated that a large oil drilling rig now in operation at Red Deer Alta. to Summerside during the month of February.

The complete equipment weighing more than 450 tons will require 25 flat cars to transport it on the 3,000-mile journey. A 15-man drilling crew will accompany the rig and will work in shifts of five men each around the clock.

ARE HOPEFUL Mr. G.L. Colpitts, production manager of Imperial Oil and Mr. W.A. Roliff, manager for exploration in Eastern Canada yesterday told newsmen that exploration to date have indicated the presence of oil in the cuttings made it is possible that oil may be found about eight to nine thousands feet in the general area of Wellington. They said the exact spot where drilling will take place has not been pin pointed but this will be made known within the next two weeks.

The Old company officials said the presence of a drilling rig in the Province does not mean that they are sure oil will be found. They pointed out that the average throughout Canada is one producing well out of 23 bored and the average for production in commercial quantities that is 1,000,000 bbls - is one in 75. Some of their higher producing oil fields in Western Canada, they stated have a potential of 175,000,000 barrels.

EXPLAINS STEPS Mr. Roliff explained the various steps that have been taken in the exploration work. He said that all the features necessary in the rock formation for the presence of oil have been encountered. Even will all of these however there is only one sure method of finding oil and that is to drill for it.

Mr. Colpitts in answer to a query said the Company would definitely develop its program should oil be found in commercial quantities. He noted that the Island with its proximity to marine transportation would offer an economical outlet for the products of an oil well. In contrast to this he noted the laying of long pipe lines to transport the oil as is the case in some other areas.

All oil and mineral rights belong to the Province and under present legislation the Government is entitled to a 12 1/2 per cent royalty. This percentage may be varied by future legislation but in no case may it exceed one sixth of the total production.

The person on whose property a well is drilled is paid on a straight rental basis by the company.
