THE NEW CANADIAN BEVERAGE!

KAOKA,

The Only Satisfactory Substitute for Tea and Coffee.—Highly Recommended for Regular Use at Ordinary Meals.

THE VERY BEST ARTICLE FOR DIETARY USE EVER DISCOVERED.

THE injurious effects which the continuous use of tea and coffee have on the human system are well known. The most eminent physicians advise the patients to abstain from using either. Owing to the taste for these beverages which has been universally acquired, it has been found necessary to find a substitute. Various substitutes have been tried, but KAOKA is the only one ever discovered which has been found to perfectly answer the purpose. Unlike Tea and Coffee, it contains neither Theine nor Caffeine, nor any other poisonous principle whatever which can even by long use, prove hurtful to the weakest constitutions. It is especially recommended for sick persons and children. Families using white bread habitually should adopt KAOKA as their regular drink at meals. They will then have supplied to them the elements which, when taken into the system, go to form bones, nails, teeth, sinews and brains, and which have been separated from the fine flour of which the white bread is made. Thousands of persons who have been afflicted with Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Indigestion, Sleeplessness, Sick Headache, &c., have been restored to perfect health by eschewing tea and coffee altogether, and drinking with their meals nothing but KAOKA. It contains no "chemicals." The elements from which it is made are wheat and sugar, nothing more.

For sale in pound and half-pound packets at the "Crown Grocery," South Side Queen Square.

The Situation in Ireland.

COERCION POSTPONED.

The London Observer in its leading editorial, says:—"As Parliament has not been summoned to meet on December 2 for the despatch of business, we may assume that the Cabinet are decided regarding the question of an early session. The policy of postponing coercion, if possible, until the modification of the present system of Irish land tenure can be tried as a remedy for the prevailing agitation and discontent has outweighed, in the judgment of the Ministry, the arguments which presented themselves in behalf of immediate action. The country will not be disposed to complain of this decision. The present conjuncture is exceedingly favorable for dealing with the land question, and a conciliatory policy ought not to be marred by precedent suspension of civil liberties; but while accepting the government's decision as wise and statesmanlike, we cannot share the hope that any land reforms, however comprehensive, can possibly obviate the necessity for coercive legislation. The desires and aspirations of the Irish national party extend far beyond any alteration of the land tenure. They involve demands inconsistent with the integrity of the British Empire. The fact that these demands are such as Great Britain would never consent to, except under compulsion, constitutes to reason why we should not remove any real grievance of which Ireland has to complain. But when we have done all that legislation can effect, we must assert the authority of the law and the supremacy of the Union. That such an assertion can be made without more or less prolonged curtailment of the liberties of the Irish people is more than past experience allows us to expect." Mr. Forster, the Chief Secretary, has gone to Ireland, but will return to attend the Cabinet council on Thursday, and the reports he may bring will go far to decide the course of the government.

The Poor of New York.

The New York Herald says: "It was recently declared in a convention of charitable agents that sufficient money was annually subscribed in America to meet the requirements of the deserving poor, yet the fact is palpable to every traveller in the streets of New York that there is one place in America at least where the deserving poor do not get all they require. Starvation even is by no means an unheard of event in our midst, and it ought to be remembered that every death from hunger amongst us is an indictment against the rest of the city for murder in the first degree. If hundreds of past cases never came to trial; if the indictments are pigeon-holed by the district attorney of heaven, it will be because the city does all it can to prevent a repetition of the crime. Already the army of the poor is perceptibly on the increase, before even the first snowflake has touched the pavement. Those who for months past have slept in the open air now need some sort of shelter for their ill-clothed limbs, and those who lie sick and shivering on their beds, want wood and coal to warm their wretched rooms.

Lord Beaconsfield's new book in three volumes, "Endymion," treats of political events about the time of the death of Canning, A. D. 1842. The Standard, reviewing the work, says: "It is a political narrative which it will probably be thought has less plot and dramatic interest than almost any of even Lord Beaconsfield's novels. Among the characters supposed to figure in the novel under various pseudonyms, are John Bright, Lord Palmerston, Lord Elcho, Lord Melbourne, Baron de Rothschild, and Louis Napoleon. It is doubtful whether a deliberate perusal of the novel will enable to identify the hero, "Endymion" with any political personage, but the manner in which Lady Montford places herself and her fortunes at the disposal of "Endymion" will suggest to many an incident in Lord Beaconsfield's early public career."

The Board of Foreign Missions of the eastern section of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, met in Rev. Ephraim Scott's Church, New Glasgow, N. S., on the 24th inst. The principal item of business was the appointment of a fourth Missionary to Trinidad. After a lengthy discussion, Rev. J. W. Macleod was finally chosen. Mr. Macleod is a native of North River, near Truro, is about 26 years of age, and was licensed by the Presbytery of Truro, only ten days since. He will be ordained by the Presbytery of Halifax, and leave immediately afterwards for his field of labor.

The Secretary of the Anti-Slavery Society writes: "It is to be feared that there is little hope that war between Egypt and Abyssinia will be long averted. News has reached me from undoubted authority that orders have been issued from Cairo to drive back Abyssinians by force. Two thousand troops are at Kener and a battalion has been sent to Swant. It is stated that 16,000 soldiers have left Cairo. The King is convinced that Egypt intends to attack him and has issued orders that all Mussulmans must leave the country or be baptised."

The government of Italy proposes to do honor to the late King Victor Emmanuel by the erection of a monument in Rome, which is to cost $1,800,000. The monument is to be commemorative of the career and achievements of the King as the founder and first sovereign of a united Italy.

The American People.

No people in the world suffer so much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Water-brash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, etc., yet since the introduction of Green's August Flower we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved, 50,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggist and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents.
