MOFFAT'S

VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS

THESE superlative Family Medicines have long since acquired an established reputation for direct and invariable efficacy in all the prevalent and ordinary diseases, as well as in many others of a peculiar and aggravated character. Their virtues are proved by the voluntary testimonials of the persons they have cured, and who accompany their certificates with their names and places of residence These certifieates now amount to thousands, being hundreds to each particular kind of disease. They embrace the most frightful and inveterate cases of Scrofula, Piles, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Bilious and Liver affections. acute and chronic Rheumatism, Asthma, Bronchitis, Scrofulus as well as Mucous Consumption, habitual Costiveness, Worms, Stomach and Bowel complaints of all kinds, headache, giddiness and nervous debility, eruptive diseases, and the clouded, sallow, unhealthy appearance of the skin, arising from various causes of ill health, Fever and Ague of every variety, settled pains in the side, back, organs and limbs, humors, ulcers, foul breath and inward fever, night sweats, and general weakness and loss of appetite, the mumps, swollen face and gums, affections of the bladder, kidney, spleen and pleura, and the sickness incidental to females, together with very many other maladies which cannot be here enumerated. The certificates of cure in all these diseases are immense in number, and clear, direct and explicit in description, and coming as they do, in every case, from the persons cured, they are indisputable and conclusive in authority. These inestimable medicine sshould therefore be kept by every family and grown person in the Union, as they will be found to be not only the best remedies for disease, but also its most certain preventatives, and the surest renovators of sound, cheerful and elastic health. They are singularly mild and agreeable in their operation, and though perfectly effectual, never occasion even the temporary prostration and nausea which always follow the use of coarse drastic purges and the use of calomel. Prepared wholesale and retail by Dr. Wm. B. Moffat, 375 Broadway, New York. For sale also by the agents.—NEW YORK, May 30.

PROSPECTUS

OF A WEEKLY PERIODICAL, TO BE CALLED

THE OLIVE BRANCH,

Devoted to Temperance, Morality, Education, Literature, &c.

THE Committee of the Halifax Temperance Society, being fully persuaded that a Weekly Paper, published under the auspices of the Temperance Societies throughout the Province, and edited by a person of talent, judgment and good taste, would greatly promote the interests of the Benevolent, Patriotic and Christian cause of Temperance, and by a judicious intermixture of suitable subjects, would tend to create a taste for moral and polite Literature, where it does not yet exist, and to foster it where it is already formed;—respectfully solicit the aid and co-operation of those Societies to carry into effect so useful an undertaking, sensible that with such patronage and assistance, success is certain, while without these it is doubtful, if not hopeless.

The principal object of the intended Journal being to advocate the interests of Temperance, it will contain reports of the state, the progress, and the prospects of the cause, not only in this Province, but throughout the world; correspondence of the Missionaries and of the country Societies, and original and selected Articles bearing directly upon the subject. It will also embrace a Weekly Summary of the Current News, divested of political bias; occasional articles connected with Education, Science, and General Literature; Moral Tales, Poetry, &c.

In a word, it is the anxious desire and the dearest wish of the Committee, to publish a Paper that shall be worthy of the cause and principles which they advocate, useful to the rising generation, acceptable to the community at large, and a credit to Nova Scotia; and with these intentions and these hopes, they venture to solicit for the proposed periodical a liberal share of public patronage, especially as the extremely low price at which it will be published will place it within the reach of every family; while the field which they propose to cultivate being now unoccupied—being a waste—its improvement will not interfere with the useful labors of those who are directing upon other subjects the energies of the Press.

Should sufficient encouragement offer, the first number of "THE OLIVE BRANCH" will be issued the First Saturday in January next. It will be printed on paper of the same size and quality as that of "The Morning Herald," previous to its enlargement, and its mechanical execution will be neat and accurate.

TERMS:—Four Shillings and Four Pence per annum, delivered in the city;—Six Shillings and Three Pence, when sent by the Mail, payable invariably in advance.

AGENTS:—The Secretaries of Temperance Societies are requested to act as Agents, and any person who shall procure 10 Subscribers and remit the advance, shall receive a copy gratis.

All Communications (if by mail, post paid) to be addressed to

EDWARD YOUNG,

Corresponding Secretary, Halifax Temperance Society.

☞ Subscriptions to the above Paper will be received by Messrs. Cooper & Bremner, Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

Halifax, November 22, 1842.

CHARLES WILLMER'S AMERICAN NEWS LETTER is published at Liverpool on the departure of every steam-ship for America, whether from Liverpool or any other port, and always contains a complete resumé of all the European and British news occurring in the interval between the sailing of each vessel, and brought down to the latest moment prior to departure. In addition to which, there will always be found in its columns the fullest and most accurate information relating to every branch of Commerce, including the arrival and sailing of American shipping at and from all the British ports,—together with a report of all the Liverpool, London, and Continental Markets,—the quotations of British, Foreign, and American Funds, and a variety of other information peculiarly adapted to the mercantile interest. In short, any person possessing himself of a copy of this publication on the arrival of a steamer, will at once be in possession of the particulars of every important event that has occurred since the date of the previous arrival, whether in politics or commerce.

BRITISH AMERICAN EMIGRATION ASSOCIATION.

At the Mansion-house, on Saturday, the Lord Mayor made public the following communication from Lord Elibank, whose name was in the list of Vice-Presidents of the British American Association for Emigration and Colonization:—

"Ryde, Isle of Wight, 3d Nov., 1842.

"My Lord,—Having lately observed in the newspapers several reports relative to an association called 'The British American,' and also that my name has been coupled with it as one of the Vice-Presidents, and in consequence of the manner in which the said Association seems to be conducting its proceedings, in justice to myself I take the liberty of acquainting your Lordship how I became connected with it.

"About eight years ago, or perhaps more, several reports of proceedings were sent to me, having for their object the recovery of certain lands in Nova-Scotia, said to belong to the Baronets of that order. The representations were so plausibly made, and seemed to be sanctioned by so many respectable parties, that I felt no hesitation at the time in adding my approval of the measures. It soon afterwards, however, became evident to me that the attempt to recover these lands from the Government was altogether absurd; so that I ceased to feel any interest in the matter, and never took any further notice of their proceedings.

"By what species of ingenuity the object of recovering lands said to belong to the Baronets of Nova Scotia has been made to slide into the present scheme, I am at a total loss to understand. I was applied to, to become a Vice-President; but to this application I never replied, nor have I in any way sanctioned the chameleon-like appearance which has been adopted.

"I might not have considered it necessary to have objected to my name being mixed up with this British American Association, had its objects been clear and intelligible, and likely to have been of any advantage to the public; but since all its proceedings seem to be so dark and mysterious, and of very questionable advantages to those for whom they are said to be devised, I think it due to myself to send your Lordship this explanation of my connection with the British American Association.

"I have the honor to be, my Lord, your Lordship's most obedient humble servant,

"ELIBANK."

Extract of a Letter from his Grace the Duke of Argyll to Mr. Nettleship, dated Inverary, 4th November.

"I was induced, by the eloquent representations of Dr. Rolph, to take an interest in the Society, because I really believed that such a Society, if properly conducted, would afford greater facilities for enabling a large mass of almost destitute inhabitants upon my estates of Tirie and Mull to emigrate to Canada upon safe and certain grounds; and with the guarantee of a respectable company, that they would, immediately upon arrival in America, be placed upon lands where, if they were disposed to be industrious, they might speedily realize a comfortable independence; and I determined that none of the people upon my estates should emigrate at all, if they would take my advice, until a sure and certain situation should be secured for every individual proposing to remove.

"By means of the Company, I hoped more readily to obtain this desirable end; but hitherto I have been disappointed; and I feel that it is a ridiculous situation to hold the presidency of a company professing to provide lands for destitute persons to emigrate to, but who have never yet exhibited their title-deeds to any lands, or proved their possession of capital stock to my satisfaction; neither have they, since I presided at a meeting in June last, reported to me, their President, any details of their proceedings or future plans. Now, it does not suit my ideas of propriety to hold the office of President of a Society of whose proceedings I am not regularly informed, and over which I have, in fact, no controul whatever; and therefore, without presuming to doubt the good faith and good intentions of those who assume the management of the society, I beg leave to withdraw my name from the situation of President, and to take my son's name also out of the list of Vice-Presidents."

(From the Globe of Nov. 16.)

The British American Emigration Society figures again in the papers of this morning, in two very different characters. In the first page of the Times the company is represented as being about to apply to Parliament for leave to bring in a bill, while its refusal to settle one forms the subject of an action reported in another column.

Whether the notice of an intended application to Parliament will be followed up, remains to be seen; but it is certain that in many instances—though we do not say it is the case in this—a little cash is expended in such advertisements as that which the American Emigration Association has put forth, merely to give the appearance of bona fide solidity to what is nothing more than a bubble company.

We presume that if the managers of the Society in question have really the intention of going to the legislature for an act of incorporation, they are prepared to show that they are entitled to it; and if they succeed in doing this, we must allow that they have been very unfortunate in the treatment they have experienced from the public and the press, to say nothing of the slur that has been cast on them by one nobleman who refused to become a Patron, and another who consented to be announced as President. Perhaps, before the time arrives for proceedings in Parliament, the managers of the Association will have made up their minds as to what their objects really are, for at present they are involved in considerable mystery. The restoration of certain lands to the order of Scotch Baronets, and the sending out of mechanics to Prince Edward Island, at seasons when safe arrival there is almost impossible, appear to be the two grand leading ideas that have been as yet attempted to be carried out by the British American Emigration and Colonization company.

If the Association should turn out to be, after all, a very reputable concern, it is to be regretted that appearances should have been so very much the other way; and it is rather an awkward contretemps that the Company's notice of an intended application to parliament, and the report of an undefended action for the paltry sum of £13 16s. 7d., should be recorded in the same newspaper.

A CHINESE AMBASSADOR TO ENGLAND.—Only think what a sensation a real live mandarin would create among all and sundry the ladies patronesses of the last new monster that may chance to show his face—or his pigtail, as the case may be—in the world of London. Yet such an event would not seem altogether improbable, if reliance may be placed on the following extract of a letter from a naval officer in China, dated towards the end of August:—"On the 29th, all was signed by the commissioners, and a private ratification in the Emperor's hand to the same. He therein expresses that he takes it as a compliment that his own signature had been demanded, is highly satisfied with all the arrangements, and has asked, if he should send a mandarin to the British Court, would he be well received? The admiral, it is said, has replied, that should he wish to do so, a frigate should be placed at his service, and of course he would be well received."
