

The Tarte-McGreedy Case.

"THE Grits have lost all summer trying to fasten upon the Government the charge of corruption and jobbery, and they have failed." This is the terse summing up of one of the citizens of Charlottetown; and this, we believe, is the opinion which is growing and strengthening all over Canada from day to day.

The case is now well-nigh concluded. All the evidence material to it has been obtained and published. We may now come to a reasonable and right conclusion in respect to it.

Certainly the Opposition have been unfortunate in their prosecutors. Mr. Tarte is, himself, admittedly a "boodler." Murphy is, on his own testimony, a first-class scoundrel, of the American school. Robert McGreedy has had the hardihood to stand before the Committee and confess the crime of perjury. Can the people of Canada convict the Government on the testimony of these men? They cannot.

Captain Larkin, the senior member of the firm, a strong Grit, a shareholder of the Toronto Globe, President of one of the numerous "Liberal Associations," has been compelled—having regard for the truth—to give testimony highly favorable to Sir Hector Langevin and the Government. Thomas McGreedy is, apparently, guilty of acts which cannot be defended; but it has not been proved that Sir Hector Langevin and the Government were cognizant of these acts, or in any way responsible for them. Sir Hector Langevin's own testimony—as published in full by the Montreal Gazette and other large newspapers, and outlined by THE EXAMINER'S correspondent—is singularly clear and satisfactory.

That frauds have been committed by the fraudulent firm of Quebec contractors, is true. That the perpetrators of these frauds should be punished is the sentiment of every honest man. But let us not punish the victims of the frauds, even though the taxpayers of the country are the losers on account of them. There is no evidence that Sir Hector acted otherwise, in respect to the Quebec contracts, than it was his duty to act. He acted upon the advice of his engineers—capable men, men placed beyond the influences of politics, men whom he believed to be honorable and true. He would have been culpable if he, knowing nothing about engineering, had interfered to change in any way the work of the Government engineers. He did not know that Mr. Perley had accepted jewelry from Murphy. He did not know that the inspectors of the work at Quebec were in receipt of bribes. He declares, positively, on his oath, as follows:

"In all departmental works mentioned before the committee, I have fulfilled my duty most conscientiously, to the best of my knowledge of matters and of my ability, without ever having allowed anyone to influence me by promises or gifts of any kind whatever, and that my acts have always had public interest as their object; that I never received gifts, loans or values whatever, directly or indirectly, from the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., or from any of its members; that, in truth, Mr. Thomas McGreedy and I have been for a long time on friendly terms and that he has been my guest at Ottawa in the period from 1878 to 1890, while I resided here as a minister, and during which I did not receive from him, and he never offered me, any sum of money, gift or loan; that Mr. Thomas McGreedy has never tried directly, or, to my knowledge, indirectly, to influence me unduly in the execution of my duty, nor to obtain directly or, to my knowledge, indirectly, verbal information or documents that my duty would have required me to hold as private; that I never authorized anyone to communicate to me any such information, and he has received none to my knowledge; that I did not know before Mr. Tarte adduced evidence on the subject that Mr. Robert H. McGreedy was a partner with Messrs. Larkin, Connolly & Co., or interested in their contract, and that Mr. Thomas McGreedy never gave me reason for suspecting that he was personally interested, directly or indirectly, in their works; that I always had full confidence in the integrity and capacity of the chief engineer of Public Works (Mr. Perley) and of the other officers of my department who had anything to do with the works which have been required into; that up to the time Mr. Perley admitted it, I did not know that he had received any gift from the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., or from any of its members; that, therefore, not being myself an engineer, I considered that I was justified in accepting and treating as correct the statements of the chief engineer and to adopt his advice about works of which, on account of their special nature, I was not competent personally to form an accurate idea."

If this statement be true—and we are bound to accept it as such, until it has been proved to be false—we must acquit Sir Hector Langevin and the Government of the charges which have been made concerning them in respect to this case.

It has simply been proved that, by means of dishonest practices on the part of Murphy, Robert McGreedy and others, the Government and people of Canada have been defrauded out of hundreds of thousands of dollars, notwithstanding all the checks applied to the Public Works Department, which experience and ingenuity have suggested. This being so, it seems to us that proceedings ought to be taken against these men for conspiracy to defraud the Government. Hon. Mr. Abbott, Premier, said recently, in the Senate:—

"I would ask the hon. gentlemen opposite to join with us in trying to find out what the facts are about this alleged rascality. We ask them to give us the benefit of their experience in this enquiry, to assist us in ascertaining the facts and placing them before the public, in order that they may be dealt with properly, and if found guilty that summary vengeance may be exercised upon those who are found guilty of appropriating public money—stealing—by the high or low. That is the determination of this Government and this side of the House, and I appeal to my hon. friends opposite to assist us in an enquiry of a precisely similar kind to that which is proceeding in another place on a subject which is legitimately before us, and help us to probe that enquiry to the bottom and then join us in punishing the guilty afterwards."

It is pleasing to have this clear definition of the policy of the Government in this regard. All good men should unite to uphold the Government in its demand for the punishment of the rascals.

We are not of those who denounce Mr. Tarte for bringing on the enquiry. It is well that the enquiry has been held to the end that the broad and heavy hand of justice may be laid upon the nest of the Quebec boodlers.

Sons of the Heather.

ANNUAL GATHERING OF THE CLANS—A FINE DAY AND A LARGE ATTENDANCE.

A special train of seven coaches, laden with Sons of the Heather and their friends, with the Artillery Band of this city, left Charlottetown yesterday morning under Conductor Macgowan. Crowds of passengers, East and West, came by the regular trains; and the yeomanry of Prince County poured into Summerside by means of horses and carriages. The Scottish Games went "bravely on" in the presence of thousands of interested spectators. Despite thronging crowds the programme was begun, continued and completed without a hitch. The greatest interest was shown in the "Ghillie Callum" and the pipe music. While Mr. Angus McLean, of this city, was competing for the Piper's Prize, one of the women became inspired to such a degree that she had to dance, and this being observed by one of the gentlemen present, she was invited to take the platform when she "tripped the light fantastic" to the mutual delight of herself and the audience. One of the events of the day was the speed exhibition by Mr. Brennan's colt Parkside, Mr. Craswell's colt Almont Wilkes, and W. W. McLeod's mare Guinea.

Following is the Oddfellows' Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lodge opened at Yarmouth, N. S., at eleven o'clock on Tuesday forenoon. There were seventy-five representatives present. After the appointing of general committees, the introduction of forty-five new members who received the Grand Lodge degree, and several interesting addresses from Massachusetts brethren. G. M. Chappelle, submitted the annual report of the thirty-sixth session. This report showed that three new lodges and one Rebekah degree lodge had been formed during the year. The Grand Master expressed his pleasure that many lodges had adopted the beautiful work. Colville lodge, of Souris, having been dormant for several years past, and there not being any prospect of an active resuscitation, he had recalled its charter, books and effects and held the same subject to the order of the grand lodge.

Grand Secretary Frazee's report showed that the membership had increased from 2845 to 3270; the number initiated, from 447 to 611; the receipts from $17,012.70 to $20,754.23; the assets, from $73,523.14 to $77,183.44, and the number of degrees conferred, from 1,237 to 1,678. The following tables exhibit the statistics of the order in the usual form:

Table with columns for Lodges, Membership, and Relief. Includes rows for Number of lodges, Members per last report, Total increase, and Average membership for the year.

Amount paid for relief of members. $2531 83 Grand Treasurer Taylor's report showed the accounts to balance at $2,868.07 with cash on hand of over $1,300.

The corner-stone of the new hall was laid at noon. The procession of six hundred with three bands, marched through the principal streets. Afterwards the procession reformed and marched to the rink, where a magnificent collation was enjoyed. An address of welcome by Brother Bingsy, of Yarmouth, was responded to by Grand Master Chappelle.

The Grand Lodge reopened at 17 o'clock. A resolution to have the Grand Lodge meet in Halifax, St. John and Charlottetown successively was not concurred in. A motion to meet in Summerside, P. E. I., next year was adopted.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: J. P. Edwards, of Annapolis, Grand Master; J. H. Sutherland, Halifax, Deputy Grand Master; B. A. Stammers, St. John, Grand Warden; J. C. P. Frazee, Halifax, Grand Secretary; H. A. Taylor, Halifax, Grand Treasurer; J. Fred Richards, Fredericton, Grand Marshal; C. B. Allen; St. John, Grand Conductor; Rev. Thos Rogers, Berwick, Grand Chaplain; T. B. Grady, Summerside, Herald; John Guest, Yarmouth, Guardian.

A Complaint.

SIR,—It strikes me, as a citizen, and one alive to the advantages of bringing people to our city, that the affairs of the Charlottetown Trotting Association is run in a very old fashioned manner. Yesterday the Caledonian Club had to go to Summerside to hold their celebration, on account of the exorbitant price charged for the grounds here, and the iron rules of the directorate. The Caledonian Club has, I believe, as many shares as the Association would permit them to take. Encouragement surely for money invested! If the shareholders don't take a different view of the matter at next meeting, and instruct the directorate to act differently, grass will be growing in at least the trotting track before next fall. Mr. A. Kennedy and Mr. Winan, both gentlemen whose character as horsemen is good, had to make arrangements to trot a match race at Summerside, on account of the gilt-edge management not seeing fit to let the track here.
