still it is not as quiet as the Rome of past years. I visited the walls where the firing took place. They are not much injured. Porta Pia, a fine gate, lately completed, is disfigured; and the beautiful marble statues which adorned its sides are destroyed. It is the belief of many, that they could not have succeeded without resorting to shelling the city. We had scarcely any killed, and but few wounded. The loss of the invaders is not positively known, as they buried all before allowing any to go out; but it is quite a common story that they lost nine thousand between killed and wounded; certainly they lost many more than we did. The Pope's army has been disbanded, and the foreigners sent home. The Pope is, as yet, at the Vatican, with his body-guard, but it is not certain if he will remain in Rome. Let no Catholic be discouraged at this momentary triumph of Italian Unionists. Soon the Pope will be fully reinstated in his former possessions as he was before. Bigots may sing joyous pœans, but soon they will have to change them to wails of woe. Persecutions and afflictions may be permitted to try and purify us; but the day of our triumph is certain to arrive.

Want of time prevents me giving further particulars, but I will soon supply the deficiency.

To the Editor of the Herald.

Sir;—I wish to say a few words to the farmers in the vicinity of Charlottetown. Don't sell your oats to a few unprincipled, petty traders and farmers, who have clubbed together for the purpose of depriving you of the full market price, in order to make a large commission out of you. The manner in which this mean business is carried on is as follows:—Middle-men speculators go to the persons wanting oats, and say, "Don't you buy any oats except from us. We will get you all you want at a certain price;" and then they buy at, perhaps, one penny per bushel lower than they sell for, and make a large commission out of the farmers. Some of these cheaters have boasted of havin made from twenty to thirty pounds in one day last fall in this unprincipled way. My advice to you is to show the fellows you can sell your oats without their assistance, and get the highest price. It is to your interest to put a stop to this trickery, and you can do so by not selling to them.

Yours, &c.,

Nov. 2, 1870. A FARMER.

FitzGerald were admitted Barristers.

Standard Life Assurance Company.—The Report for the year ending 15th Nov., 1869, with the Balance Sheet of this Company, was laid on our table some time ago, but want of time prevented our examining it ere this. We have now, however, had an opportunity of so doing, and are happy to find the Company's affairs in a most flourishing condition. We observe that a great advantage is to be gained by assuring in this Company, before the 15th of November, inst., (the close of the Company's financial year,) inasmuch as "all persons who may assure before that date will participate in the Division of Profits to be made in 1871, which will include the whole divisible profits which have arisen since the 15th November, 1865." The funds invested principally on the security of Real Estate now amount to upwards of £4,000,000, sterling, and its annual income exceeds £700.000, sterling. From the very high standing of this Company, we have no hesitation in stating that a careful examination of its Report would well repay any person who may contemplate entering into a Life Assurance Company. Lord Lisgar in a Printing Office.—On the 7th inst., His Excellency the Governor General, accompanied by Col. McNeill, V. C., and the Hon. John Ryan, paid a visit to the Printing Establishment of Mr. John Lovell, Montreal. The particulars of the plan of operations for bringing out the Dominion Directory were explained by Mr. Lovell, and the results called forth expressions of praise and satisfaction from His Excellency. The Directory will be published early in December. Already 4,721 places in the 6 provinces have been heard from, and the number is expected to reach 5,000 His Excellency was also shown over the whole establishment to see the art of printing in its various branches, and expressed himself well pleased with his visit and astonished at the enterprise displayed by the publisher in the various departments.

We visited the New Barrel Factory of J. S. Carvell, Esq., at the foot of Pownal Street, on Thursday evening. It is only as yet partially in operation. The machinery is all driven by steam, and works very well. The staves are cut out by a cylinder saw to the required curve, and the edges are dressed to the proper bevel, &c., by a circular saw set somewhat on the cart-wheel principle, the workman standing on the outside. By this means the stave is wider in the middle than it is at both ends. Two hands can dress staves enough for between 75 and 100 barrels a day. The Barrel Factory is a useful institution, and we hope it will prove to its proprietor a remunerative speculation. Between the mackerel and pork trade we require a large number of barrels annually, and we believe they can be manufactured more cheaply here than in any part of North America.—Pat.

The London Daily News has undertaken the collection and distribution of a fund for the distressed peasantry in those districts of France which have been overrun by the German armies. It is said there are 200,000 persons on the brink of starvation, in the Department of the Ardennes alone. At present, about £4,000 have been raised. The National Society, in giving aid to the sick and wounded, has received £230,000, and there are sixteen other societies in existence having similar objects.

Robbed.—A young Nova Scotian, named John Murray, went into a house on Sheffield street, kept by a woman named Ann Ward, on Wednesday night, and commenced drinking. Before long, he became drowsy, and awoke yesterday morning in the back yard, cold and moneyless, having been robbed of $80, which he had placed in his boots for safe-keeping during his heavy slumber. He believes the liquor he drank was drugged.—St. John News, Oct. 27.

Theft.—On Monday night, some scoundrels entered the cabin of the schr. Maria, and carried off the Captain's watch and other articles, to the value of ten pounds. The property was discovered next day, hid among the ballast of Messrs. Ramsay's new brigantine. Suspicions attached to three seamen to whom Capt. Tait had generously given a free passage from Chatham; but no proof being obtainable, they were allowed to take themselves off in the Steamer, on Tuesday night.—S. Journal.

Stolen.—The schooner Garland, belonging to P. E. Island, lately seized by James Purcell, Revenue Officer, for an infraction of the Custom laws, and placed in the hands of the Collector at Hawkesbury, was stolen last night. The sails of a vessel belonging to Hart & Ingraham, were also stolen at the same time, no doubt for the purpose of getting the Garland away, as she had been stripped.—Hx. Reporter.

We hear that a respectable young woman at Crapaud, named Smith, 22 years of age, committed suicide by hanging herself in her room with two skeins of thread. She had been suffering from mental derangement for some time, but it was thought she was getting better.—Pat.

Commercial.

Boston Market, Oct. 28.

The following are the wholesale prices obtained by commission houses for produce in good condition:—

Butter.—There is no improvement in the market, and prices for anything below choice grades are weak. We quote fine at 38 to 40c. per lb.

Eggs.—The market is firm at 31c. per doz. for prime Eastern.

Vegetables.—The market is dull and potatoes are selling at 75 to 77c. per bush.

Hay.—There is a fair supply, which finds a ready sale at quoted rates. We quote prime Eastern cargo hay at $29 to 30 per ton; choice Northern and Eastern car loads at $29 to 30 per ton; inferior $19 to 21. Straw, $27 per ton.

Oats.—The market remains dull, with sales restricted to small lots at 54 to 57c. per bush

Provisions.—There is a moderate demand for small lots of provisions, but trade is dull, and prices exhibit no improvement. We quote jobbing prices of the wholesale trade as follows:—Clear pork, $29.50 to 30, and city packed $31 to 32; mess do. $27.50 to 28, and extra prime $23 to 24 per bbl. Lard, city tubs, 17c. per lb. Hams, 19 to 20c. per lb.

Halifax, Oct. 28.

There is no visible improvement in the Halifax markets, to date. Calico Potatoes sell as low as 20 cents per bush., but Jackson Whites bring from 25 to 30 cents per bush. Oats are, if anything, declining in price, several lots selling as low as 40 to 42 cents per bush., with an odd sale at 45 cents. Butter and oysters are at small demand, with very low prices.

Charlottetown Markets are rating low. Although yesterday was stormy and every article of consumption scarce, prices were only medium. Oats on Monday ruled as low as 2s. 2½d. per bush., but gradually progressing until yesterday noon, on account of the scarcity they reached as high as 2s. 4d. Potatoes are still commanding last week's quotations. Pork, if anything, is looking up, a heavy carcass yesterday bringing 6½d.

The weather for the past few days has been quite winterish—frost and snow being by no means scarce.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Ready to Hand.—Every good and generosu person feels a natural sympathy in the presence of suffering; but how much more graceful would that compassion be if it could supply the means of relief. Professor Holloway offers to everyone the never-failing power of thus rendering the most essential service to afflicted humanity. His noble remedies reach the seat of every malady, whether it be on the surface or hidden in the darker recesses of the interior of the system, and thus extirpate it, if that be possible. Plainly printed instructions for the guidance of invalids envelope every package of these restoratives, the reputation of which is not only European, but extends throughout the globe.

A Proclamation.

I, D. H. MACKINNON, do, by virtue of authority vested in me, as Proprietor of the "New York Clothing Emporium," issue this my Proclamation, the 29th day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy, which, like the laws of the Medes and Persians, is binding to all intent and purposes, that, whereas, this fashionable Street has been neglectfully miscalled Great George Street, which is not in keeping with the intelligence of the residents thereon, nor appropriate to the business thoroughfare of so magnificent a location for business purposes. Considering that all the Great Georges have passed from the scene of action, Little Georges being exempt from such horrors, on account of inability, shall henceforth pass into obscurity, like all their ancestors, and substitute in its place a name which will give new life and vigor to the artistic skill and mechanism displayed on so successful a street each day; therefore, I proclaim its name shall henceforth and forever be called

"BROADWAY!"

Where I sell the Handsomest and Stylishest fitting Garments ever manufactured in Charlottetown or any other place. You can call, gentlemen, and examine my Stock of Cloths, my Fashionable made up Garments to order, my ready-made Garments, which alone excels any custom work in Charlottetown. Come and we will suit you to anything you want in our line, to suit your own notions of comfort and style, as well as our stylish and comfortable ideas, cut and mechanism. You can have all these Cheap, at

Valuable Business Stand
FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, his valuable Business Stand, at the Head of St. Peter's Bay, consisting of a House 40 feet long and 20 feet wide, with back kitchen 16 x 18 feet attached thereto. The house contains 6 finished rooms, besides a splendid Shop got up in good style. Also, a cellar underneath the whole house, warranted frost proof. There is a good granary 24 x 26 feet, and a barn 24 x 20 feet, all in good repair. The land contains an area of ½ acre, a little more or less, with a valuable spring of water at the door. The above named property is within 100 yards of the Old Wharf, on the South side of said Bay, and only a little more distance from the new one, on the North side of the Bay, and in the midst of a flourishing settlement, which renders it a most desirable situation for a person wishing to commence business at that place. There is, also, any amount of water now at the bar of the harbor, owing to the Breakwater, which makes shipping to and from the place free and easy. Good terms will be given for the purchase money of the place. Any further information required, can be had by addressing the subscriber, either by letter or otherwise, and will be promptly attended to.
