Premiers and Ex-Premiers in Harness.

(From the Toronto Mail.)

The men of note in all the Provinces—those who have had the fullest measure of popular support and filled the highest offices of State—are labouring in the Opposition cause. Mr. Tilley was Premier of his Province, New Brunswick, for many years. Dr. Tupper was Premier of Nova Scotia for a long period. Mr. J. C. Pope successfully held the Premiership of Prince Edward Island for years. The Premier of British Columbia, Mr. Walkem, is a Conservative and personally a warm friend of Sir John Macdonald. Though they have not been Premiers, the leading men of Quebec and Manitoba are also on the side of the Opposition. Such facts fairly indicate the current of the present political contest. The ablest men of the Dominion will be in the new Government shortly to be formed under the leadership of the oldest and greatest Premier of them all, Sir John Macdonald. The reign of incompetency is about to give place to the reign of masterly talents.

Miscellaneous News.

Sir Beaumont Dixie won $150,000 at the Ascot races and a relative lost $95,000.

It is said that the news of Miss Bennett's betrothal will be followed before long by the nuptials of Mr. James Gordon Bennett and Miss Carrie May.

The Governor-General, who has left for New York on private business, is expected to return to Quebec in the course of a few days. Lady Dufferin remains at the Citadel.

The Shah of Persia has conferred the Order of the Lion and the Sun on Baron Alfred de Rothschild, of London, and the Baron can't decently refuse to loan him a million or so.

The death is announced of Lady Wentworth (nee Miss Heriot), who, nine years ago, was married to Byron's grandson. She leaves one daughter, the Hon. Ada Mary, born in 1871.

A Boston special says that Dennis Kearney, the Californian agitator, will remain in the Bay State until November and work for Butler, who will probably be nominated by the Green-back party.

A Boston paper says that Mr. Douglass E. Jerrold, jr., son of the famous English writer, is ill at Greenville, Miss., and his wife and three children are in such destitute circumstances that he has appealed to the public for help.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 19 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent.

The New Governor-General.

The Ottawa Citizen says:—"As one of the royal family by marriage, the future Governor will be cordially received in Canada."

The Ottawa Free Press says:—"The appointment will, no doubt, be received with satisfaction by the people of Canada, who will regard it as a distinguished honor to have among them presiding over the hospitalities of the Government House, a daughter of our beloved Queen. The new Governor-General will find a warm welcome among Her Majesty's Canadian subjects, and will have the satisfaction of having handed over to him an office which has been lent unusual popularity and respect by the polished gentleman and wise and sagacious statesman who is now leaving us, and from what we can gather of the past services of the Marquis, we may look forward to a continuation of that popularity and of the affectionate regard of our people for the representative of the Crown in Canada."

The Hamilton (Ont.) Times commenting on the appointment of the Marquis of Lorne as successor to Lord Dufferin, says the appointment, if made, will be a good one, and will give the broadest satisfaction to the people of this country. The appointment will be a great compliment, not only to Canada but to Earl Dufferin, whom no ordinary nobleman in England would be likely to succeed satisfactorily. The article concludes with a statement that the country at large will be glad of the appointment, which will serve as an additional link, if it were needful, to bind Canada more closely to the English throne.

The London, Ont., Free Press expresses unqualified approval of the appointment, remarking that the qualifications acquired as Indian Secretary and as a member of the House of Commons, as well as his being the son-in-law of our Queen, should commend him to the general good-will.

The London, Ont., Evening Herald expresses a contrary view, and thinks he is not a man of sufficient mark to be entitled to the position.

The London Times, commenting on the Marquis of Lorne's appointment as Governor-General of Canada, says: "The Governor-Generalship opens a career for Lord Lorne which may be some compensation for the political activity from which his marriage cut him off at home. He is well known to be intelligent and cultivated, with an interest in the Colonial Empire, of which he gave proof in his early travels and writings. The most significant consequence of his appointment will be, if we are not mistaken, the effect of public opinion in Canada, and will be hailed, we have no doubt, as the most popular act of policy that the Imperial Government ever carried out since the Dominion of Canada was founded."

The Montreal Witness says:—"The Marquis of Lorne and his royal wife will be welcomed by Canadians with an outburst of that loyalty which is only waiting for opportunities to show itself. No occasion for such an expression could be more auspicious than the compliment paid to the Canadian people of having a princess sent out to live among them, and that almost at their own invitation, for among the first spoken of by the Canadian press as a possible and welcome successor to the Earl of Dufferin was the Marquis of Lorne. Later the Duke of Connaught was discussed, but against him there was a significant protest from the leading Government organ, which did not presumably spring from the spontaneous feelings of the people. The selection of the heir of the house of Argyll may then be presumed to be based largely on a desire to please the Canadians, and this it will certainly do. The question of the fitness of the noble Marquis for the very serious duties imposed upon him is not one which naturally causes solicitude among ordinary people, and it is one of which the people of this country have very limited means of judging. They only know him to be a young man of the greatest promise, descended from a long line of statesmen, who have taken a first place in the councils of the nation, the son of a powerful, learned and liberal duke—an aspirant to literary as well as political position, whose training for public life has been the best which the nineteenth century could give him, and whose excellence has been such as to win him the highest social honor within the reach of a British subject—marriage into the Royal family. The great danger to the country from such an appointment is that of developing a sham vice-regal court at Ottawa, with all the extravagance and none of the refinement which mark the court in England. With no hereditary aristocracy, our seat of government is surrounded with politicians for whom we can only say that on the average they fairly represent the people; of lobbyists, who are contractors seeking jobs, and local electioneers seeking offices; and, lastly, the gentlemen of the Civil Service, whose necessary expenses as courtiers could only be increased at the country's expense in more ways than one. If such a consequence should follow, it will not be the fault, however, of the tastes of the new occupants at Rideau Hall, but the result of their exalted rank. We know that the Princess who is coming among us is endowed with all the virtues of her much-loved mother, and will, therefore, not lend encouragement to vulgar extravagance, and we believe the Marquis of Lorne to be one whose likings would entirely accord with his duty in discouraging shoddiness and surrounding himself with everything that is noble and dignified, and for the people's good. We can wish him no higher success than that the regret at his departure may
