Father Cousineau conducted the retreat for the priests at S. D. U. and came here to visit the parents of one of his students in Ottawa.

Plans are underway here now for the pilgrimage to Ste. Ann De-Beaupre, Quebec, late this month. Quite a number are expected to attend, headed by Mrs. Anthony Dunn, who was a cripple attending last year and came home cured. At least three who are in very poor health here are expected to make the long trip. In the fond, prayerful hope that they will come back in better health.

A slight fire broke out in the projection room recently in the community hall in Morell while a film was being shown. The blaze flashed on the screen and some one thought it smart to roar out, "Fire! fire!" and the large crowd rushed for the doors. All the chairs were upset and some smart fellows started throwing the chairs around the hall. Several people were hurt. One lady received a bad ankle while another was clipped on the side with a chair. During the next showing, Mr. J. B. Jay, P. M., reprimanded the people and warned that a fire drill call might come any night during a show, and everyone should walk to the nearest exit, not make a mad dash like a flock of wild sheep.
