ELLEN'S DIARY

Seasonal Warmth Of Day Turns To Cool Of Evening

"M-m-m!" Granddaughter smiled, inhaling deeply of the fragrant air, as the dusk came on this evening. "The new hay scent! It smells good, doesn't it?" she queried.

Now the work of day was over. In the yard, tractors and hay-wagons rested. Jerry, Gage's friend-of-horse, who is an integral part of the aviary, was stripped of his harness and stabled. The sun had set in a glory of colors, clear, and with promise of continued haying-weather tomorrow. The afternoon which brought the dewfall, and a pleasant coolness after the seasonal warmth of the afternoon, was here in reflection of lingering pools of brightness, here and there along the fields, but in Kensington on Saturday attending the funeral of their brother, the late William M. St. Mark's WA Holds Meeting

KENSINGTON — Mrs. Harold Mill entertained the members of St. Mark's Senior WA, Kensington, at the August 1st meeting on Wednesday evening. The president, Mrs. E. M. E. Moore, presided and led the devotions. Roll call was answered with a text containing the word "power." "Honor" was chosen for the next text word.

A letter from Valja Sovers, the WA's adoptive in Germany, stated that the parcel containing clothing and food, received by her in June, was very acceptable. She thanked the members for the summer clothes which she was very pleased to receive and also sent her thanks to the group supplying the lovely assortment of food.

Mrs. Harold Mill presented a very interesting Bible quiz. The offering amount was $61.00, flower fund $1.00.

Mrs. James Shen invited the members to her home for the next meeting. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Elmer Moore.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES E. FLEMING
 Young Couple Pledge Vows In Ceremony At Mt. Stewart

St. Andrew's Church at Mt. Stewart was the scene of a pretty wedding recently, when Helen Ventia, youngest daughter of Mrs. Marian MacIntyre and the late John J. MacIntyre of Mt. Stewart, became the bride of James Edward, son of Mrs. J. E. Fleming, Charlotteville, and the late Dr. J. E. Fleming, formerly of Stanley Bridge.

Mr. Frank MacCormack performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. The altar was adorned with multi-colored mums and a yellow daffodil.

Mr. Frank MacIntyre accompanied by Mr. Alfred Power rendered appropriate hymns during the ceremony and the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Cyril, looked lovely in a floor length gown of silk organza with rounded neckline and long sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and lily.

Miss Joan MacIntyre, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Gerald Curran, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. They were identical gowns of yellow and blue organza over tulle with matching accessories and their bouquets were of yellow and white and blue and white mums.

Karen MacIntyre, niece of the bride, looked winsome in her gown of mauve organza over tulle with matching accessories. She carried a chantly lace basket of multi-colored flowers.

Albert MacIntyre, brother of the bride, was the best man.
