REPORT V.P. OPERATIONS

Hi, I'm Karen Bishop, Vice-President down at the Student Union Barn. This is first a short note to let you know what my responsibilities are and how I have been fulfilling them.

1) Be responsible for the Social Committee, Orientation, Fall Fest and Winter Carnival.

So far this year we have held Orientation and Fall Fest. Orientation was successful and all the freshmen who participated had a great time. Thanks must be given to Steve Wynne and Michelle Cottréau and their orientation committee who worked so hard during the summer to make it a such a smash.

Fall Fest under the capable leadership of Jan Underhill also had a good turn out. It was one of the most successful Fall Fests in recent years thanks to Jan's initiative in planning and organizing.

The Social Committee under the leadership of Maureen Fleming and Paula MacKinnon have been busy maintaining events in the Panther Lounge and preparing posters.

Winter Carnival will be coming 2nd semester from January 26 - January 31.

2) Oversee the activities of the Operations Manager.

This means I set policy in conjunction with the Panther Lounge Management Committee and Holly Good is responsible for carrying out the day to day operations of the Barn.

3) Be responsible for the operational issues of all sub-organizations.

This includes having all established sub-organizations register with the Student Union and to encourage groups to form sub-organizations with the Union. It also means anyone who wants donations out of the sub-organization fund has to submit a grant application to me. I also meet with the subs to decide pub dates for each semester.

These are just a few of my duties and responsibilities as VP Operations. I also organize the New Year's Eve Bash that takes place December 31, 1986 at the Barn. Avoid the hassles of last year and buy your tickets early.
