MONTREAL, Sept. 25.

At half past ten this morning the body of Daniel Wilson, a well known coal merchant, was found in the new Government Canal Basin, he having evidently driven over the side, as his horse and buggy were found near by. The wall of the basin is about twenty-five feet from the surface of the water, and he fell that distance. Wilson has been fifteen years in the coal business and was widely known and much respected.

Antoine Laporte, conductor of a Grand Trunk freight train, was run over last night and lost a leg, while trying to couple a train.

TORONTO, Sept. 25.

At a private meeting of prominent and representative Reformers yesterday afternoon, it was decided to tender a banquet and present an address to Hon. Mr. Latellier, who is at present in Toronto.

BELLEVILLE, Sept. 25.

During the season now closed Messrs. Job Lingham & Son, of this city, have shipped from Boston to the English markets 10,038 head of cattle, 1,253 sheep and 40 horses, of a total value of upward of $1,000,000.

ACTON, Ont., Sept. 25.

Tramps enticed a young boy about 14 years of age, named Willie Thompson, from his home on Monday. Nothing has since been heard of them.

CORNWALL, Sept. 25.

The plea of insanity is being set up in favor of Clark Brown, Dundas County, charged with the murder of his father and sister. The trial will probably begin to-morrow.

UNITED STATES.

JONESVILLE, Wis., Sept. 25.

While Alex. White, a farmer of Porter Rock, was absent yesterday, his five-year old son was taken to a barn, where he was found with his throat cut and disemboweled. George Barrington, a farm hand, has disappeared and probably committed the crime; no cause known.

LEADVILLE, Col., Sept. 25.

After lively skirmish at Buckeye Bull Mine, two weeks ago, each party erected forts named "Hell" and "Damnation." Yesterday "Hell" opened fire on "Damnation" and one Connors was killed. The flag was raised and the body removed. Great excitement prevailed.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 25.

Seven new cases are reported to-day: one a Chinaman; four deaths.

THE WALKERS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.

Merritt turned his 360th mile at 11.16, putting him within a mile and a half of Hazel. The latter headed Merritt off as if determined to keep his own name on the second place, and a spirited fight goes on between the two. Many floral offerings were presented during the evening.

Rowell ran most of his 397th mile, and when he turned his 400th at 11.34 p. m., much enthusiasm prevailed. The score at 1 o'clock was:—

Rowell, 402

Merritt, 365

Hazel, 368

Weston, 322

Federyner, 283

Gayon, 345

Hart, 339

Ennis, 310

Krohne, 307

Panchot, 205

Taylor, 180

A half drunken ruffian threw a brick at

Hazel near the south east end of the track.

The brick missed Hazel and the man was arrested.

At the end of the ninety third hour,

Rowell's score was 293 miles, 1 lap. This put him 8 miles, 6 laps ahead of Weston's record for the same time in London; also

33 miles, 1 lap, ahead of his own record,

when he won the belt here in March,

1879.

The Times says that a victory for Rowell is now almost a foregone conclusion. The receipts to yesterday are about $27,000; estimated receipts of the week, $87,000; of which the winner's share will be $20,000,

and the share of the leasees of the garden,

$14,000.

AFGHANISTAN.

SIMLA, Sept. 25.

The lines of communication in Khurum

Valley are being strengthened by reinforcements, and various posts are being fortified

in view of possibility of local troubles.

The force under General Baker reached

Kushi on Wednesday afternoon. Yakoub

Khan's envoy had an interview with

Roberts and assured him of the Ameer's friendliness and willingness to be guided by British advice.

St. PETERSBURG, Sept. 25.

The semi-official Agence Russe denies that Russia has been intriguing with the Afghan.

That journal says "had Russia wished to create a difficulty for England, she would have liberated Abdu Rhamar, the pretender

to the Afghan throne, whom, on the contrary, she is keeping imprisoned and preventing his flight to Afghanistan. Events at Cabul and Turcoman territory tend to prove the truth of the good understanding between England and Russia."

Cruelty to Animals.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir: I was very much pleased on perusing your sensible remarks on this subject in your issue of the 23d inst. It has pained

me exceedingly to witness the brutality,

which, I regret to say, is so often seen in the streets of this beautiful city.

The inhumanity of man

Makes countless myriads mourn.

A short time ago I saw a man driving a heavily laden cart on Pownall street, and

because the willing but weak and over-

burdened beast could not draw its load out of a rut or uneven part of the street, the driver belabored the animal in the most horrible and inhuman manner, so much so that the blows could be heard at a considerable distance. The last occurrence of the kind which came under my observation was on Queen street. Three drunken rowdies were recently driving out of town

in a buggy, when the ringleader struck the poor dumb creature in a heartless and brutal manner repeatedly, and this on the principal street of the city. I asked a gentleman who was passing at the time if there was any society that could take hold of such lawless characters. He replied in the negative, and remarked that the town was fifty years behind the times in matters of that kind. Occurrences of this kind are frequently witnessed, and yet no one interferes—no minister of the Gospel—no judge or justice of the peace—no member of the Y. M. C. A.—no police officer. Surely there must be something radically wrong in this state of things. Is there no one sufficiently humane who will take the part of our speechless friends? Never was there a more favorable opportunity to do good than the one now presented, which should have been embraced years ago, to
