

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 26, 1882.

THE WAR.

The War despatches in to-day's EXAMINER show that Sir Garnet Wolseley has taken the field, and that he is now probably carrying on one of the decisive battles of the campaign.

Cattle Ranching in the North-West

THESE Ranches seem to be prospering and will afford a lucrative return to the investors. The demand for Canadian beavers in the market is at present unlimited, and the great increase of population in the North-West will need a good supply of stock.

Spain on the Situation.

ONE of the most remarkable signs of the times is the sudden and prominent activity of Spain in foreign politics. Hitherto, Spain has been peculiarly quiet. Now she suddenly awakes to the fact that she has an interest in Egypt.

Strong Suspicion of Murder.

The drowning of the girl, Sparrow, at Souris, on Sunday night last, is the topic of conversation in that village. Various rumors are afloat, and the conclusions generally arrived at are that she came to her death by foul means.

In order to afford those friends of Foreign Missions, who may not have an opportunity of saying "Farewell" to the Rev. C. D. McLaren and lady, at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, to-morrow afternoon, it has been arranged to hold a short service in Zion Church in the evening at the close of the regular services in the Churches, to commend the Missionaries to the care of the master, whom they serve, and to bid them an affectionate "Farewell."

Latest from the Seat of War.

LONDON, Aug. 24.

The Times Port Said correspondent says a Government schoolmaster arrived from Cairo on the 11th instant. He states there are torchlight processions parading nightly of men and boys, calling on Allah to send death to the English and all Christian dogs.

The Telegraph has the following from Ismailia:—The enemy are reported in force ten miles off. Occasionally they attack our pickets, but retire directly as we advance.

A correspondent of the Times at Constantinople says that among the uneducated Mussulmans the sympathy for Arabi Pasha is undiminished, but among those who are capable of distinguishing between the political and sentimental aspects of the question, there is a decided revulsion of feeling.

The Constantinople correspondent of the News telegraphs that general confidence is expressed in diplomatic circles and by the press that the moderate party has triumphed and that the military convention will be concluded.

A despatch from Vienna to the News says: It is reported from Constantinople that the Sultan has consulted Germany in regard to the Military Convention and that Germany has advised him to come to an understanding with England, as co-operation with that nation was the only means of defeating Russia's plans.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 24. A pillaging party visited Ramleh to-day; it consisted of 50 Bedouins and five men of the Mustapha Regiment.

On the approach of a body of Highlanders the Bedouins fled and the Mustapha took refuge in a house where one was killed and the four others were made prisoners.

The rebels are constructing new batteries and one line of railway to Cairo. The guns on Water Works Hill exchanged some shots with them to-day.

Intelligence received at the Palace states that Boulak El Dak Railway has been cut a short distance south of El Kitah, it is supposed by Bedouins with the object of cutting off Arabi Pasha's retreat to Upper Egypt.

While Arabi Pasha's generals know exactly our movements, we are ignorant of theirs. The absence of balloons is much felt here.

The troops at Fort Ghemileh, near Port Said, are reported to be wavering in their allegiance to Arabi. Many of them are deserting.

Several more of Arabi Pasha's officers have arrived at Kantard from the Egyptian camp at Salahiak to make submission to the British. A letter from the commandant at St. Ghenuleh has been received by Sheikhs in the Arab quarters of Port Said, charging them to warn the inhabitants to flee in consequence of a rumor that the black regiment was advancing on Port Said from Dannitta.

A British force, with some artillery, has been sent beyond the native quarter. Lord Charles Buresford arrived at Ismailia yesterday.

Two Arabs have been shot here for not answering the challenge of the sentry. The exodus of natives is consequently renewed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 24. The Porte has addressed a protest to Lord Dufferin, British Ambassador, in regard to the interruption of telegraphic communication with Egypt, the Porte being unable to communicate with its officers at the Khedive's Palace.
