

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

James Mahon, who recently celebrated his 102nd birthday at Perth, Ont., believes that his longevity is due to a century without liquor or tobacco. In excellent health and eyesight, town's grand old man relies only on a cane to help him carry out his pre-dawn farming chores, which he has done since he was a lad.

A recent House speech by Rep. Louis C. Rabaut (Dem. Mich.) in which he warned that if Congress does not pass the price rollback on beef the 82nd Congress will become known as the horse meat Congress prompts Washington restaurant proprietor Samuel W. Rosenberg (left) to put up this sign. Horse meat has also put in an appearance in some sections of Canada, as a protest against high cost of beef.

In October, 1950, nearly all of Kaesong turned out to cheer troops of the 1st Cavalry Division as they swept through, chasing the Reds over the 38th Parallel. But...

...a couple of months later, the tide turned. The Chinese Communist hordes poured out of Manchuria and U.N. troops were forced into disastrous retreat. Here a retreating U.S. tank, loaded with G.I.'s, passes through Kaesong, headed south.

SEEMS PLUMB CRAZY—An unbelieving worker at site of a municipal housing development in St. Paul, Minn., stares at what appears to be outdoor indoor plumbing. Passersby at first thought it was something new in lampposts. Simple fact was that plumbers got ahead of carpenters and installed pipes and fixtures before the houses were up. There was some speculation on what would have happened if the roofers had gotten there first.

Maurice Petsche, seen above, independent politician and brilliant economist has accepted task from President Auriol of trying to form France's next government—the 15th since the end of the war. Last month's elections did not see any party returned with a big enough majority to form a single party administration. So 56-year-old out-going minister of finance hopes to form a middle-of-the-road coalition of Socialists, popular Republicans, Radicals and near Radicals and moderate Conservatives. Former Premier Henri Queuille declined position on grounds of ill health.

F.B.I. SEEKS FOUR REDS—The F.B.I.'s best manhunters are seeking the trail of the four Red leaders pictured above. Members of the 11-man top layer of the U.S. Communist Party, convicted of plotting to teach violent revolution against the Government, failed to show up in New York Federal Court for commitment to prison with their seven comrades. They are Henry Winston (top, left), national organization secretary; Gus Hall (top, right), Ohio party chairman; Gilbert Green (bottom, left), Illinois party chairman; and Robert G. Thompson, bottom, right), New York State party chairman.

LESLIE SANDER WITH METAL CYLINDER

WILLIAM "RED" HILL IS SEEN WITH TIRES

William "Red" Hill, of Niagara Falls, Ont., veteran of two steel barrel rides through the lower Niagara River rapids, has announced he will shoot over the Horseshoe Falls on Aug. 5 in a cylinder made of puncture-proof inner tubes, lashed together with canvas strapping and netting. To accompany him will be Leslie Sander of New York who will go over the falls in a barrel. Sander, 34-year-old interior decorator, said he is planning the stunt to publicize his work.

SNACK B-A-A-A—Letitia, the lamb, doesn't give a b-a-a-a about her girlish figure, so she grabs greedily at sweets while sitting on the lap of her mistress, Mrs. Dulcie Lavender, at Catsfield Stream, Sussex, England. Letitia was just a three-month-old baby when the Lavenders adopted her after she was found snuggled beside her dead mother.

Police haul off a Communist demonstrator who tried to interrupt ceremonies in London honoring American Independence Day. The demonstrators failed to interfere with presentation to St. Paul's Cathedral by Gen. Eisenhower of a roll call listing the names of American servicemen who died in Britain during the last war.

Talented young singers and dancers chosen from all parts of Canada, are busy rehearsing for the Canadian National Exhibition grandstand show to be held in Toronto Aug. 24 to Sept. 8. Vikki Vanvik, above, of Vancouver, B.C., has already received her complete costume for her part as Indian dancer in the production.

A search is under way in rough brush country, 200 miles north of Sept. Isles, Que., for two Toronto prospectors and brothers, Michael, left, and James Walsh, above who left maps and directions where they were going and then disappeared. The men entered barren country last April 10 to do some prospecting with understanding they were to be picked up June 14 by a bush pilot. At designated time a pilot returned to spot, only to find their tent abandoned because of shortage of food. A note left behind stated brothers' proposed route but to date rescue crews have been unable to pick up trail.

BABY, IT'S COLD OUTSIDE—Yessir, that's 24-karat gold lingerie these glitter-gals are wearing. The six-piece set, consisting of matching slip, nightgown, pettiskirt, panties and bras are made of nylon plated with gold leaf and is valued at $2000. It was displayed as a Chicago fashion show.