SCHEME FOR HOME DEFENCES.

New Type of Gun to be Used.

LORD LANSDOWNE MAKES IMPORTANT SPEECH.

Says the People will be Willing to Accept the Scheme.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Nov 18.—The Marquis of Lansdowne, Secretary of State for War, speaking at Plymouth on general politics referred to his gratification over the Anglo-American friendship. In the course of his speech he sketched the proposed large scheme of improving the home defences by providing a new type of guns which would require a smaller number. He said he felt sure when the government has completed its scheme the country would be prepared for the heavy sacrifice it would entail.

Spaniards Will Yield.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Nov. 18.—All the special despatches to the London papers from Paris express the belief that the Spanish Commissioners will finally yield, though under protest, to the American demands.

Warlike Activity.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—There has been remarkable activity about the war department for several days in the way of preparing troops for service in lands beyond the United States. An order has been issued directing at least ten regiments to hold themselves in readiness for immediate transportation and service in tropical climates. Most of these regulars were sent to the northern and western ports a few weeks ago for recuperation after the Cuban campaign. While holding themselves ready for service these regulars will now be recruited to their full strength.

Epworth League.

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—The arrangement of the programme of the convention of international Epworth League to be held in Indianapolis next July was completed yesterday and it is stated there will be from 30,000 to 50,000 people present. The dates are from the 20th to the 23rd, inclusive. President McKinley is expected to be present.

THE SIMPLEST CURE FOR INDIGESTION.

As Well as the Safest and Cheapest.

The new medical discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, digest the food instead of making the worn out stomach do all the work, give it a much needed rest, and a cure of dyspepsia is the natural result.

You get nourishment and rest at the same time because these Tablets will thoroughly digest all wholesome food taken into the stomach whether the stomach works or not. A cure is certain to result because the digestive organs are given a chance to rest and recover their natural vigor and tone. The Tablets are then no longer required.

To show the manner in which the remedy acts on different people and how quickly and effectually it cures stomach troubles we present a few recent cases.

Mr. J. O. Wondly of Peoria, Ill., writes: I was unable to eat anything but the plainest food and even that often distressed me, but since using one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I can eat anything and everything I want.

Mrs. Samuel Mepple of Girty, Pa., writes: I have been entirely relieved of my stomach troubles by your Tablets. I suffered three years with sour stomach and gas at night. I am thankful for them.

Mrs. A. E. Bowen, Vt., writes: I think Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best thing for digestion I ever took. I will recommend them to anyone troubled as bad as I was.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will not disappoint because they cure Dyspepsia surely and lastingly by causing the food to be properly assimilated, and cure constipation by producing the proper quantity of bile. Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package. Send for free book on stomach diseases to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

SERIOUS MATTERS BEING DISCUSSED

By the Anglo-American Commission.

THE NORTH AMERICAN FISHERIES TAKEN UP.

The Americans Want to Have Concessions Made.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Anglo-American Commission held a lengthy session here yesterday upon the two subjects which are regarded as of most importance, namely, the North American Fisheries and Reciprocity.

The fisheries question was practically taken up for the first time, and it was quite definitely understood that the position of the Canadian Government was made clear as favorable to granting enlarged rights to American fishermen in Canadian waters of the North Atlantic, if in return Canadian fish are admitted free of duty to the American markets.

It is expected that this will open up a wide range of discussion and an immediate adjustment is not looked for.

Concerning reciprocity, it has now developed that while some progress has been made in considering certain articles which will be the basis of reciprocity, yet the American Commissioners are likely to insist, as a preliminary to any reciprocity that Canada shall wipe out that feature of her tariff law which gives Great Britain a preference of 25 per cent. on all tariff duties.

If this concession is made by Canada, then it is said, the reciprocity lists will probably be agreed upon.

Without an abolition of the preferential rates to Great Britain, the opinion is positively expressed that the reciprocity agreement cannot be reached.

COLONIAL SECRETARY ON COLONIAL MATTERS

Chamberlain Defines British Policy.

NATIONAL INTERESTS AND ASPIRATIONS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND THE STATES.

LONDON, November, 17.—Joseph Chamberlain, who was the guest of the conservative club in this city last evening, in replying to a toast to his health, spoke at length on colonial matters. He said that most all international troubles of recent years had arisen from the competition of nations for the undeveloped territory on the world's surface in the possession of barbarous tribes or decaying nations. He dwelt upon these vast tracts as "outlets for the teeming populations and trade of civilized nations." Mr. Chamberlain predicted an "immense future" for Rhodesia and Great Britain's other acquisitions in Africa, even the gold coast and Lagos when medical science shall have succeeded in overcoming malarial diseases.

GOVERNMENT'S CHINESE POLICY.

He warmly defended the Government's Chinese policy, contending that Great Britain had "good reason to be satisfied with the results obtained as compared with other powers."

Regarding the contention that Great Britain ought to have an agreement with Russia, he said: "Experience has taught us that we require a better guarantee than a paper agreement to secure the policy of an open door. The best security in my opinion is the desire of other nations, like Japan, Germany and the United States, to preserve the open door. Japan is becoming an important power with whom our relations throughout have been those of cordial friendship, while with Germany and the United States, I rejoice to say, they are now closer and more cordial than they have been for some time."

"Germany and the United States are two great commercial nations whose interests are identical with our own. In what I have said I have not meant a permanent formal treaty of alliance, nor need I say this now, but that a speech of mine some months ago gave rise to misinterpretations. Great Britain needs no help. Those persons are very premature, very much premature, who think that Great Britain is in need of an alliance for her own security, or in order that other powers may pull chestnuts out of the fire."

This was received with loud and prolonged cheers, which greeted every reference to the United States.

In an eloquent peroration Mr. Chamberlain developed this theme, declaring that if England ever needed an alliance she would give as much as she received, but that she would never need more aid in his opinion than would be cheerfully afforded by her own children. He scorned the idea that England should fear German competition, as he believed, he said, that Anglo-Saxon co-operation and influence would prove irresistible, and that there was no reason why, even without an alliance, Great Britain's friendly relations with Germany should be strained.

ANGLO-AMERICAN UNION.

"I rejoice, he said in conclusion, 'at the change that has occurred in the relations between Great Britain and the United States. To us they stand in a relation different from that occupied by any other people. I know a hundred reasons why we should be friends, none why we should be otherwise, and I believe that it has been the true feeling of this country towards the United States for many years. All misunderstandings have been happily removed, and the union of the two English-speaking nations would fear no other alliances."

"Our imagination must be fired when we contemplate the possibility of such a cordial understanding between the seventy million people of the United States and our fifty million Britons, an understanding which would guarantee peace and civilization to the world. We welcome the United States in their new career as a colonization nation, because we know they are animated by the same motives and aspirations, employ the same methods and love justice as ourselves. And such a new departure will, doubtless, as Lord Salisbury has said, serve our interests, not in any selfish or mercenary sense, but because it will give each a better understanding of the other's work, increase our sympathies, bring us closer together, and make easy and inevitable that most desired co-operation."

ENLISTING THE CHINESE.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Marquis Lansdowne, Secretary of State for War, has issued the necessary order for the enrollment of a battalion of 1,000 Chinese to serve under British Officers at Wei-Hai-Wei, the recently acquired British naval station on the north coast of the Shan Lung promontory.
