Football Team Objects To Imports Ruling

MONTREAL (CP)—General manager Lew Hayman of Montreal Alouettes has taken issue with a Canadian Rugby Union announcement that teams must abide by a CRU ruling on the number of imports they can play in a game.
Harry McBrien, CRU secretary, ball teams may use in any one only eight of the 10 imports allowed. This was unanimously approved at the annual meeting of the CRU, but the Big Four league at a subsequent meeting decided that playing nine imports a game would be permissible.
Hayman said each league should be allowed to conduct its own affairs. The CRU "could not legislate against the sovereignty of the leagues."
The national organization had the right to govern certain principles, especially where inter-union

Canadian Exports Continue Decline

OTTAWA (CP)—Exports vital to Canadian prosperity, dropped by $69,200,000 in July, cutting shipments for the first seven months of 1954 by $213,100,000.
Foreign trade generally slumped in July but Canada was still buying more from the world than she sold, resulting in a $15,500,000 deficit in the month's trade, more than double the $7,100,000 adverse balance a year ago, the bureau of statistics estimated Friday.
This deficit, piled on to others in previous months, pushed the seven-month adverse balance to $191,200,000, just $12,800,000 below last year's $204,000,000.

Exports to all countries dropped in July to $229,100,000 from $296,300,000, reducing the seven-month total to $2,204,900,000 from $2,418,000,000.
The preliminary estimate showed trade down in all major markets. Exports to the United States dropped in July to $194,900,000 from $212,700,000 last year, cutting the seven-month total to $1,338,700,000 from $1,422,300,000.
SOLD LESS TO BRITAIN
Sales to Britain were sliced to $55,400,000 from $81,300,000 in July, reducing the seven-month shipments to $346,600,000 from $397,100,000.
Total imports dropped in July to $344,600,000 from $405,400,000 with the cuts showing sharply in buying from the U.S. This reduced imports for the seven month to $2,395,100,000 from $2,622,000,000.
Imports from Britain were reduced to $35,700,000 from $47,100,000 in July and to $238,500,000 from $286,700,000 in the seven-month period.

Jazzed-up Type Religion Deplored

WHITBY, Ont. (CP)—A United Church minister deplores the modern, jazzed-up version of religion that enables us to refer to God as "the man upstairs."
Rev. George Connolly, Christian field secretary of the Montreal-Ottawa and Bay of Quinte conference, was theme speaker Friday at the five-day meeting of the Young Peoples Union of the United Church of Canada. More than 300 delegates from across Canada are attending.
Mr. Connolly said some moderns ask favors of God as they might ask favors of a parent caricatured by Dagwood Bunstead of Mr. Jiggs. He criticized gospel songs that are self-centred and egotistical.
"Just because they are set to music with much vigor and swing, we tend to overlook their theology and un-Christian ideas," he said.
A great many well-meaning Christians assume salvation of one

NFB Shooting Film In Memramcook N.B.

MONCTON, N. B. (CP)—The National Film Board is shooting a film based on the historic struggle of residents of the Memramcook valley against the sea.
The film will not be in the technical vein, says Leonard Forest, formerly of Moncton, assistant director of the production. It will be a "man against the sea" story in human and dramatic terms.
The picture will show the customs and ways of life of the de-

Stories Conflict Over Kingston Fire and Riot

KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Prison, police and fire authorities sifted a welter of conflicting stories yesterday, as trusted prisoners continued the job of cleaning up debris left from a fire set Sunday by rioting prisoners at Kingston penitentiary. Discovery of a 100-foot rope, with a claw attached, stirred speculation that the Sunday outbreak was part of an escape plot. A guard uncovered the rope in litter in the yard where the disturbance occurred.
There was no official comment on the find. Earlier, officials, including Maj-Gen. R. B. Gibson, Dominion commissioner of prisons, denied that a break was planned. There was still no report on damage from the Sunday outbreak pending a report by Col. R. W. Catto, chief penitentiary engineer. Unofficial estimates ran from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000.
Extra guards were on duty but prison officials were reported to feel there was no immediate danger of another riot.

OSLO (CP)—Roman Catholic youth organizations of Sweden, Denmark and Norway are holding their seventh annual summer seminar on Utoya island, Tyrifjord, in east Norway.

Football Star Weinmeister Hits Former Employees
NEW YORK (AP)—Arnie Weinmeister, all-star National Football League tackle who quit New York Giants to play for British Columbia Lions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union this season, has put the rap on the Giant management for "treating us like criminals when we lost a game."
In a byline article in the September issue of True Magazine, Weinmeister said he was tired of having Giant co-owner Wellington Mara "act like a private eye" in practice sessions. He accused the management of "pushing economy beyond the point of virtue."
Giants declined to comment on the article.
Weinmeister said Giants "hired Jim Howell to coach because they could get him cheaper than they could get a Buck Shaw or Paul Brown." He said, however, he thinks Howell will be a good coach.
Listing the reasons why he left Giants, Weinmeister claimed he was "never very happy" with the club because he "didn't feel the management has the best interests of the team and men and the game at heart." Always had cordial relations with Steve Owen, who was fired as coach.
Weinmeister said he will get $15,000 a year on a two-year contract with Lions at Vancouver. He claimed he got $11,000 in his contract and $1,000 in a special cheque from Giants last season. He emphasized he never was dissatisfied with Giants financially.
Weinmeister said an important reason why he decided to play in Canada was to be closer to home in Seattle, only 150 miles from Vancouver.
As for the National Football League, Weinmeister suggested a minimum salary, something like major league baseball's $8,000 pay for exhibition games and a system of player representation to the commissioner.

Swim Recognized
KOLKSTONE, England (AP)—It's official—26-year-old, 230-pound Murat Guler of Turkey has swum the English channel and his feat has been recognized by the International Long Distance Swimming Federation.
Guler crawled ashore between Dover and Deal Sunday night, waved a flash light and tried to report to someone that he had swum over from France.
But, in the cold, pre-dawn darkness there was no one to greet him. The next day a spokesman of the federation said it had no objection on the scene and the achievement couldn't be recognized.
But Jimmy Heath, vice president of the federation, put things right Thursday.
"There is no reason at all to doubt Guler swam the channel," said Heath. "Everything was consistent with the weather conditions prevailing. We do not question the integrity of the people in the French fishing boat accompanying Guler."
