THE Montreal papers boast that the meanest man on this side of the Atlantic lives in Montreal. He had made a wager with a man named Soper that he (Soper) could not swallow two dozen raw eggs in 20 consecutive minutes. Soper took the wager, but when the time arrived, Soper found twenty eggs of huge dimensions staring him in the face. These were the eggs of a goose. Poor Soper turned his head in sickening disgust, and paid the wager to William Fahy, the meanest man in Montreal. But the Island can boast of a few mean specimens of humanity. A day or two ago a letter, containing the announcement of a marriage, accompanied with the proper rate, reached this office. The marriage announced was that of Miss Lucy A. Campbell to Mr. A. C. Stewart. The account was a bogus one. The joke was a senseless, stupid one, and the sender has unwittingly enrolled himself in the list of the meanest men on this side of the Atlantic.

We had a call to-day from Mr. F. G. Bratton, manager of Shaffer's Swiss Bell Ringers. The Halifax Herald of Aug. 25 in speaking of them says: "Shaffer's Musical Party and Swiss Bell Ringers opened at the Academy of Music last evening. A large audience was in attendance and every one present thoroughly enjoyed the varied programme which was presented. The bell ringing was excellent, and the different numbers were so well rendered as to call for frequent encores. Miss Louise Shaffer's cornet playing was a great feature. The lady shows a wonderful proficiency, and is indeed one of the finest lady performers on the instrument that has ever visited Halifax. Mr. Oerster was amusing and entertaining in his songs and imitations. Miss Mattie Maxim played in excellent style two solos on the guitar, and Miss Mary Duryea, sang several selections with much acceptance. Taking altogether, the entertainment is one that should draw largely than those who attend may rely on being well pleased."

IN the Dominion of Canada Competition at Rideau Range, Ottawa, on the 7th inst., Sapper McLean Davison scored 77 points, and won a prize. A despatch to the Patriot says: "The Island team have won twelve individual prizes, and fourth prize in Affiliated Match, and fourth in Provincial Match, beating New Brunswick. Have several matches to fire yet. Sergt. Allan is twenty-first in grand aggregate."

THE Toronto Globe grows jubilant over its success during the past few years. It boasts of better circulation, increased advertisements, and a better business in every way. These, the Globe says, are "largely owing to better times." It is just as well to have the Globe confess that it has been benefited by the better times which are coincident with the National Policy. Many other Grits have been fattening under the same regime. The truth will out. Who is the next to confess boldly?

MR. HARRIS, one of the chief promoters of those various flourishing industries which are building up the town of Moncton, is visiting this city. He is now, we believe, engaged in writing up the stock list of the Moncton Cotton Factory Company, and is meeting with success. The business men of Summerside alone have, we learn, subscribed between $40,000 and $50,000; and as the investment is regarded as a perfectly safe one, there can be no doubt that quite a large sum will be subscribed in this City. If Mr. Harris, while here, could induce our capitalists to promote manufacturers in this Island, he would perform a most laudable service.
