

LAURA BAIN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Mrs. W. G. Ellis entertained the members of the Laura Bain Missionary Society of the Summer-aside Baptist Church on Monday evening at her home. The president, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, occupied the chair and Mrs. V. H. Leuty, a guest, was pianist. Opening with the singing of "Come Let Us Sing", the Scripture lessons, portions of the 13th and 14th chapters of St. John, and a poem entitled "Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet" was read by Mrs. J. H. Leuty. This was followed by a circle of prayer. The meditation on Christian Love was given by the president, after which the hymn "More Love to Thee" was sung. Dr. Zella Clark, the guest speaker, during the missionary studies, gave most informative studies of the mission fields in India. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the conclusion when a social hour was enjoyed.

STANHOPE W. M. S.

The regular meeting of Stanhope W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Shaw on Feb. 16. Sixteen members answered the roll call by repeating a verse of Scripture, containing the word "Faith". The worship period opened by singing Hymn "My Faith looks up to Thee," followed by prayer and the Lord's Prayer in unison. Mrs. H. Lawson read the Scripture lesson, followed by Hymn "Saviour like a Shepherd lead Us." Mrs. William Youland read the paper on Christian Stewardship and Mrs. Warren Marshall read Friendship. IN MEMORIAM

KEITH A. WAGNER

The funeral of the late Mr. Keith A. Wagner, largely attended, was held from his home on Feb. 28 to the Baptist Cemetery, West Devon, with service in the Church of God, conducted by Rev. C. O. Howlett.

A short service was held at the home and the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung. At the church, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Abide With Me" were sung.

The late Mr. Wagner was a victim of a car accident near Delhi, Ont. The deceased passed away in the Norfolk General Hospital, Simcoe, Ont., on Feb. 24, at the early age of 25 years. He leaves to mourn, besides his sorrowing parents, four brothers: John of Brantford, Ont.; James, Kenneth and Leaman of Conway; (Olive) Mrs. Lawson Oatway; (Pearl) Mrs. Walter Smith of Conway; (Lucy) Mrs. Gerald MacArthur of Wellington.

The many beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony of the esteem in which he was held.

Full bearers were Messrs. Raymond Milligan, Wyman Wagner, Wesley Adams, Ivan Austin and Wilfred Campbell, all cousins of the deceased.

Marshall invited members to their home for next meeting. Roll call will be answered by repeating a verse of Scripture containing the word "Love."

Mrs. Rhodes Warren and Mrs. Lloyd Bell will have charge of the stories.

Singing of Hymn, "Jesus Saves" brought the meeting to a close.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. OCTAVE PINEAU

The Community of Duvar and vicinity was shocked and saddened to hear of the sudden death on Jan. 30 of Mrs. Octave Pineau in her 54th year.

The deceased had been receiving medical attention for some time but her condition was not considered serious and it was while visiting her aged mother that she became suddenly ill. Medical help was immediately summoned but to no avail, and, surrounded by her family who had rushed to her side, she peacefully passed away, after having received at the hands of her pastor, Rev. M. J. Rooney, the last consoling rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was always a devout and constant member.

Lena, as she was familiarly known by everyone, was the daughter of the late Alex Gallant and Mrs. Gallant of Duvar. Thirty-four years ago she was married to Octave Pineau, also of Duvar, and here together they established their home and brought up a large family of twelve children all of whom are living and who will ever cherish the memory of the wonderful mother, who was ever zealous for their welfare, bringing them up to the best of her ability in a truly Christian home.

In the community she will be sadly missed for, while her health permitted, she was ever ready to take part in anything that was for its advancement, but it is in the home where she will be so deeply missed. There will be found the vacant chair and there will be remembered the sound of the voice that is now still.

While on earth she served her God well and now she has gone to her eternal reward.

She leaves to mourn, beside her sorrowing husband, the following sons and daughters, all of whom were home for their mother's funeral:

Alex (London, Ont.); Ernest, with the Canadian Army, Montreal, Que.; Cornelius, with the Canadian Army, London, Ont. Albert and Junior at home. (Bertha) Mrs. Peter Gallant of Woodstock; (Edna) Mrs. Tom Coughlin of Inverness; (Bernice) Mrs. Eusebe Arsenault of Howland; (Roseline) Mrs. Felix DesRoches of Egmont Bay, at present in the Provincial Sanatorium Helen, Sylvia and Aldona at home. Also her aged mother, Mrs. Alex Gallant, and one sister, Mrs. Oliver Peters, both of Duvar. Another sister, Mrs. Paul Martin and one young brother predeceased her by many years.

Also left to cherish the memory of a loving grandmother are 21 grandchildren.

Her funeral, which was largely attended, was held at St. Anthony's Church where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Pastor, Rev. M. J. Rooney, who also officiated at the grave.

The following were the pall bearers: Messrs. Joseph F. Arsenault, Prosper Gallant, Frank B. Pineau, Arthur Perry, Bert Peters, Theodore Gallant.

The large number of Mass offerings and messages of sympathy and also the large number of people who called to pay their last respects bears silent testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

In Memoriam

MRS. ETHEL M. SPRAGUE

The death occurred at her home, 8 Walker St., Concord, N. H. February 13, of Mrs. Ethel M. Sprague, wife of Mrs. Herbert E. Sprague and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Milligan, MacNells Mills, P. E. I. at the age of 55 years.

Mrs. Sprague was born at MacNells Mills and had resided in Concord for the past 30 years, seldom missing a year visiting her home, the late years making two and three trips to visit her aged parents and help take care of her invalid mother, her last visit being the month of May. Although Mrs. Sprague had been in ailing health for sometime, it was not known till July 21, when she entered the hospital for an operation that there was no hope of her recovery. The first of the year she took a turn for the worse and gradually grew weaker till she passed to the great beyond on the above mentioned date.

Mrs. Sprague was always ready to help all members of her family. She was a lover of children, although not having any of her own. She took great pleasure in her nieces and nephews, all who are going to miss a loving daughter, sister, and aunt.

Surviving are her sorrowing husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Milligan, MacNells Mills, P. E. I.; two sisters and six brothers (Olive) Mrs. Irey Gilbert Suncook, N. H.; Miss Romayne Milligan, MacNells Mills, P. E. I.; Mr. William J. Milligan, Mechanic Falls, Me.; David R. Rumford, Me.; Roy H. Malden, Mass.; Edgar L. MacNells Mills, P. E. I.; Claude, Halifax, N. S.; Clarence C. St. John, N. B. Her sister (Alice) Mrs. Stanley Buchanan, predeceased her October 21, 1932.

Mrs. Sprague was a member of Baker Memorial Methodist Church, Concord. She also held membership in Fidelity Rebekah Lodge, Capital and Pomona Granges.

Funeral service were held Tuesday afternoon at Baker Memorial Methodist Church, Rev. M. Harold Le Grow, pastor, officiated, assisted by Rev. Edward H. Brewster former pastor, who travelled 45 miles every week to visit Mrs. Sprague. Mrs. Martha F. Gale was organist, and Ralph Flanders ushered.

Pallbearers were nephews of the deceased Messrs. J. Donald and Murdock A. Buchanan, Roy and Steadman Milligan, Max Butterfield and James Shaw.

Both clerical assistants in the committal rites at Blossom Hill Cemetery, Capital Grange and Fidelity Rebekah Lodge conducted their ritual services Monday night at Boutwell Mortuary. The Grange rites were in charge of Irving Buttrick acting Master, and John F. MacEachran, Chaplain.

In charge of the Rebekah service were Miss Ruth C. Morgan, acting as Noble Grand, Mrs. Elizabeth Pitman vice grand and Miss Gladys E. Ray, Chaplain.

The floral tributes bearing their messages of sympathy were many and beautiful.

In Memoriam

MRS. EVERETT S. JENKINS

Many friends and relatives were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Everett S. Jenkins, Millview, which occurred on February 23, in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. She was in her 60th year.

Although in failing health for some time her passing came as a shock to her family and friends. During her illness, her pastor, Rev. J. Harvey Bishop, visited her frequently.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn one son, John, at home; her mother, Mrs. John A. Drake of Calgary; two sisters, Dolly, (Mrs. Clarence E. Bond) of Iricana, Alta., and Alva (Mrs. Harry F. Bond) Charlton, Mass.; and one brother, William, also of Calgary.

The many flowers that covered and surrounded her coffin showed the high esteem in which she was held by all whom knew her.

The funeral service, which was very largely attended, was held at the MacLean Funeral Home on February 25, at 2:00 p. m. The service was conducted by Rev. J. Harvey Bishop, assisted by Rev. T. R. Goudge of Pownal. Mr. Bishop spoke comforting words to the bereaved. The hymns sung were, "The Lord in my Shepherd" and "Peace Perfect Peace," also a duet, "Beyond the Sunset" was sung by Mrs. Gault Murray and Mrs. John MacRae.

The funeral procession proceeded to Birch Hill Cemetery in the Birch Hill Cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside her infant daughter, Audrey, who predeceased her 35 years ago.

Pallbearers were as follows: Messrs. Walter Crane, Harold Robertson, Alphonis MacIntyre, J. J. Morrissey, W. J. Storey and Ambrose Weatherbie.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. Everett S. Jenkins wish to express their sincere thanks to the Doctors and Nurses of the P. E. I. Hospital, also for all the floral tributes and messages of sympathy, and to the many kind friends and neighbours who helped in any way during their recent bereavement.
