

Now I Lay Me.

Bed time for the twittering birdies,
Mother Wren has hushed to rest;

With what trusting grace, and tender,
Rosy lips petition make;

Once again 'tis birdie's bed-time;
Little neighbors in the tree
Hush their baby birds to slumber,

Smooth and white the little pillow;
Undisturbed the pretty bed;

Down to sleep! Ah! yearning mother,
Murmuring and sick at heart,
Full of joy shall be the waiting,

Be Honorable.

Boys and young men sometimes start out in life with the idea that one's success depends on sharpness and chicanery.

Economy.

The habit that obtains in many families of 'heaping' food and giving a little and considerable more than is asked for,

Economy does not signify a lack of plentifulness nor stinginess. It means enough for each and all, and nothing is wasted,

little ones sit facing their nurses and are

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested

CATARRH.
Constitutional Catarrh Remedy
CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:

"DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particular.
The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed.
My health and spirits were seriously affected.
When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876,
I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head. A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsoftened, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper.
Yours truly,
W. FINDALL, Methodist Minister,
Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.

"THE ENAMORADO"
A DRAMA IN V. ACTS,
—BY—
HUNTER DUVAR

THE above interesting book is for sale at all the Bookstores on the Island.
Col. Duvar is happy in having selected for the theme of his drama, one of the most romantic incidents of a romantic and soldierly time. The scene is laid in Spain, amid all the accessories of grave and gay, love and chivalry, poetry and song, with room for the display of many types of character,—knights and ladies, priests and soldiers, courtiers and peasants, cooks and clowns. Many lyrics in the author's best style are interspersed in the dialogue, which is, in general, quaint and sparkling.
Price: Paper cover, 50 cents; in cloth, 75 cents.
