LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

King's County Election, 1887.

Sir,—The Patriot in a late issue tries to make political capital against Hon. W. W. Sullivan on account of his statement respecting the meeting in King's County, made at the Subway meeting in Charlottetown a few days before the election.

I think it can be clearly shown that Mr. Sullivan's statement, judging from the meetings he had attended, was quite correct. At that time Mr. Sullivan had attended meetings at Georgetown, Morell and St. Peter's, and the votes polled in those localities show a great gain for the Conservative candidates over what they did in 1882.

The following are the votes polled in 1882 and 1887 in the several Electoral Districts of King's County:—

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 402   | 518   |
| Muttart   | 457   | 578   |
| McIntyre  | 790   | 767   |
| Robertson | 633   | 687   |

First District.

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 361   | 528   |
| Muttart   | 347   | 546   |
| McIntyre  | 586   | 584   |
| Robertson | 561   | 564   |

Second District.

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 488   | 607   |
| Muttart   | 432   | 565   |
| McIntyre  | 353   | 471   |
| Robertson | 323   | 472   |

Third District.

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 130   | 144   |
| Muttart   | 118   | 121   |
| McIntyre  | 63    | 59    |
| Robertson | 58    | 60    |

Georgetown.

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 560   | 600   |
| Muttart   | 560   | 549   |
| McIntyre  | 332   | 515   |
| Robertson | 397   | 613   |

Fourth District.

From these figures we learn that in the First District, McIntyre's majority over Muttart has been reduced from 333 to 189, and Robertson's majority over Macdonald from 261 to 168. In the Second District, where Mr. Sullivan has great influence, still better work was done. In it McIntyre's majority over Muttart was reduced from 239, as it was in 1882, to 35, and Robertson's majority over Macdonald from 200 to 36. In the Third District, Macdonald's majority in 1882 of 165 over Robertson was reduced to 135, but Muttart's majority over McIntyre was increased from 79 to 94. Georgetown gave slightly increased majorities to both Macdonald and Muttart, and before we come to the Fourth District we find that Muttart has gained 377 and Macdonald 239 over what they had in 1882.

In Murray Harbor North and South, High Bank and Sturgeon, the Conservative party held their own very well; but Montague, Whim Road and Mahar's show a great loss. In fact the Conservative candidates lost their election on account of the loss in these three polls. Here are the figures:—

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 79    | 49    |
| Muttart   | 62    | 42    |
| McIntyre  | 69    | 102   |
| Robertson | 90    | 133   |

Montague.

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 61    | 36    |
| Muttart   | 50    | 29    |
| McIntyre  | 37    | 65    |
| Robertson | 54    | 83    |

Whim Road.

|           | 1882. | 1887. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| Macdonald | 111   | 96    |
| Muttart   | 107   | 97    |
| McIntyre  | 46    | 88    |
| Robertson | 57    | 130   |

Mahar's.

I am, yours respectfully,
OBSERVER.

Hope River Matters.

Sir,—Now that the elections are over, it might not be amiss to have a talk over local matters. Of course, people around here are all glad to hear that pork is going up, though there are some Tories so wicked they won't give the credit to Davies & Welsh.

Trotting horses are doing splendidly this winter, the ice being constantly covered with snow; they are not driven. Consequently we see owners of fancy horses can enjoy a drive to a neighboring entertainment—which is better for horse and owner. This puts one in mind of a subject that's being agitated here; it is whether Hope River should have a hall or not? All agree that such a building is needed; old time amusements are good, and though they did well in their time, those that they have pleased are displeased if they see a son or daughter for whom they have worked to educate to a better taste, fall back to tasting the old pleasures. Then when we look around and see the many talented men who have left and are leaving every year, and think that we never have a lecture from or a debate with them after, why, it is no wonder they forget where they were born. This will not be so any longer. The well-to-do farmers of Hope River and vicinity are going to build a hall where they can have lectures, entertainments, debating and farmers clubs and political meetings, and thus give the boys something to talk about besides the usual cross-road blackguard conversation.

Yours, etc.,
A WORKING BEE.
Hope River, March 1.

A citizen of Hawkinsville, Ga., bought a turtle, cut off its head, and had turtle soup for dinner. The next day an unsuspecting chicken pecking at the head was grabbed, and was not released until the mouth of the cooked turtle was opened with a knife. Next!

Presentation and Address.

To Archibald Shaw, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—We, the undersigned neighbors and friends, hearing that you are about to leave this Island, herewith beg to convey to you our sorrow, fully appreciating the many acts of kindness performed by you during your long residence in Crapaud, many of us having had intimate business relations with you which we always found satisfactory. We take this opportunity of expressing the high esteem in which we hold you, believing that in whatever country it may be your lot to make your home, you will, as heretofore, give a good account of yourself, while we will always be remembering you as one of us.

To Mrs. Shaw we also beg to convey our esteem. Coming among us as a comparative stranger, she leaves behind a host of friends who all vie, one with the other, in wishing you and your esteemed partner many long years of usefulness and happiness.

Hoping that your many friends on the Island may be remembered with kindness, we remain as ever your well wishers,

GENTLEMEN,—I assure you that when I heard of the intention to carry out the programme of to-night, I began more fully to regret having to leave such a kind and large-hearted body of friends as I now realize I have in this community, and this mark of your kindness and esteem gives me more pleasure than I can express. I believe I have the honor to be the first business man who has ever left Crapaud with the well wishes of the representative business men and farmers of this community thus publicly expressed.

In looking back over my business relations with you all, I feel proud to think that very little, if any, differences have ever arisen between us, and I am happy to believe that I leave Crapaud this week with the well wishes of every person in the place, and I assure you that kindly feeling is fully reciprocated on my part.

I hope, however, that my connection with the people of Crapaud and vicinity will not end with my leaving on this occasion, as I shall always induce whatever firm I may be connected with to buy, as largely as possible, from this port.

For some time to come I will be connected with a prominent commission and jobbing house in Moncton, N. B., who buy largely of your products, and at some not very distant time I may again have the pleasure of purchasing from many of you who have heretofore promptly assisted me with your large quantities of produce in carrying out my contracts in supplying.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I may say that with the knowledge and assurance that I carry with me your well wishes I value more than money.

Your kind reference to Mrs. Shaw I appreciate, and will be conveyed to her, and I think I may say that she regrets leaving almost as much as I do. Hoping that you and yours may prosper, socially as well as financially.

I remain,
Yours truly,
ARCHIBALD SHAW.

On the evening of the presentation of the above address, Mr. Shaw's many friends met at the Eureka House, Victoria, where a grand lunch was prepared in Mrs. Johnston's best style. The spread was magnificent and thoroughly enjoyed, after which toasts and speeches by Messrs. G. Lowther, O. B. Wadman, J. J. McLeod, P. H. Palmer, Solomon J. B. Leard, Anthony Collett, Equines, mine host and others, the party, after vowing to meet again, separated, well pleased with their evening's enjoyment.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 50,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Samples bottles, to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, in the United States and Canada.

The first country to issue stamps for cheap postage was Great Britain in 1840. An unused stamp of that date is worth about $300.

Variety may be the spice of life, but advertising is the pepper and salt of a newspaper, and the bread and butter of the advertiser. The customer comes in for the cream.

Gossipers in Catlin, Ill., have been given food for talk by the approaching marriage of a young lady resident, to a school teacher who whipped her so severely a few years ago that he was arrested and fined.
