DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is LONG FELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Plusville And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Gallant, daughter Pearl and son Alyre, were business visitors to Summerside recently.

Mr. Vernon Ramsay, Rosebank, was a recent visitor to Plusville.

Mr. Anthony Gallant's saw mill is the scene of considerable activity these days. The logs are coming in by truck, tractor and team. The seed-cleaning plant is being prepared for operation.

On April 1, Mrs. John J. Corcoran entertained the members of the Plusville Women's Institute. Nine members were in attendance. Roll call was answered by house cleaning hints. The different committees gave satisfactory reports and new ones were appointed. Two new members were welcomed. Mrs. Norbert Corcoran invited the members to her home for the May meeting where roll call will be answered by exchange of garden seeds. Bingo was enjoyed by all. Freeze-out prize was won by Mrs. Warbuton Murray and lucky door prize by John J. Corcoran. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Norbert Corcoran and Miss Arlene Corcoran.

W. I. staff members Miss Marie Taylor and Miss Marie Brown are spending some time in Rosebank and vicinity teaching handicrafts.

Friends of Mr. Joseph McLellan are sorry to learn he is confined to his bed with an attack of virus flu. All hope to see him out soon.

Mr. Frederick Mallett, Dock Road, was a recent business visitor to the district.

Messrs. Melvin Blanchard and Aubin M. Gallant were business visitors to Summerside on April 2.

Miss Rose Marie Brown spent the week-end of the 4th at her home in Plusville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Gallant and children spent Sunday afternoon visiting Mrs. Gallant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gallant, Plusville.
