Davitt's Testimony.

LANDLORDS TO BE TREATED AS AN ENGLISH GARRISON.

Mr. Davitt continued his testimony before the Parnell Commission on the 3rd. He stated that he would not object to joining any movement to secure the independence of Ireland, if such a movement was backed by force strong enough to justify the hope of its success. He said that he did not approve of the Clerkenwell explosion. He regretted the attack upon the prison van, in which a brave policeman was killed, but applauded the men who made the attack for trying to save their friends. While in prison he concluded that movements by secret societies would do no good, and when released he held a conference with the leaders of the Irish Republican Brotherhood in Paris regarding the advisability of an open movement. Matt Harris, one of those with whom he conferred, had given permission for his name to be divulged, but at present the witness could not divulge the names of the other Irish Republican Brotherhood leaders without their permission. Chief Justice Hannen said that Attorney-General Webster was entitled to press the question as to what others were present, but could wait until the end of the examination to do so. Witness further said that he failed to win the Irish Republican Brotherhood leaders to approve of the adoption of an open movement, with the exception of Harris. He intended to make the land question a stepping stone to the independence of Ireland, treating the landlords as an English garrison. The league's land programme, witness said, had now become the programme of the Tory Government. (Laughter.) Mr. Davitt refused to say whether or not Mr. James O'Kelly, member of the House of Commons for the north division of Roscommon, had been engaged to distribute firearms, and declared that he did not know whether the trustees of the skirmishing fund, Dr. Carroll and Messrs. Breslin, Luby, Devoy, Burke and Rossa, belonged to the Clan-na-Gael. There is a hue and cry against the Clan-na-Gael in America for political purposes. Witness declared that he must be careful of what he said, but he would say that they are all extreme Nationalists. Mr. Davitt said that many persons opposed his scheme on the ground that if the people became tenant farmers they might become lukewarm in the cause of independence. A majority of the people then opposed Fenianism and secret societies. Irish-Americans objected to the scheme, holding that it would give the politicians too much power. Witness had converted many nationalists to his views. Attorney General Webster read resolutions demanding the overthrow of British domination and the establishment of an Irish republic. Mr. Davitt admitted that he was present at the meeting in America when the resolutions were adopted. He stated that he did not dissent. He said, "I am a republican by principle." The resolutions were cabled to Mr. Parnell, but never reached him. Witness had never discussed them with Mr. Parnell. Mr. Davitt said: "Mr. Parnell and I differ because Mr. Parnell is opposed to complete separation, but if he got his measure through I would loyally support it. If he was successful, the demand for separation would eventually die." Continuing, the witness said he had made fifty speeches in America, in which he asked the extremists to fairly try Mr. Parnell's movement.

A Romantic Wedding.

LOVERS WHO WERE SEPARATED IN YOUTH REUNITED IN THEIR OLD AGE.

A Port Jarvis, N. Y., despatch says: A marriage has just occurred here under romantic circumstances of parties long past the scripturally allotted 70-year limit of human life. Joseph Conkling, the groom, is in his 84th year, while the bride, Mrs. Maria Edwards, is in her 74th year. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. W. Galloway of the Methodist Church. The groom, a fine looking and active senior, with a profusion of iron gray hair, has long resided in Binghampton, and is possessed of an ample fortune. The bride, who is also well preserved and sprightly for her years, has for some time resided here. Over half a century ago Joseph Conkling and Maria Tuttle were neighbors and lovers, living with their parents near Batavia, N. Y. The course of true love did not run smooth with them. It was the old story of the penniless suitor cruelly frowned upon and turned away by the maiden's well-to-do and inexorable parents. The disappointed lovers went their respective ways, and found other consorts, from whom in the course of time they were parted by death. Thus bereaved, and after many years of separation, the old-time lovers met again by chance, and the happy sequel is told in the announcement of their nuptials and departure on a wedding journey.

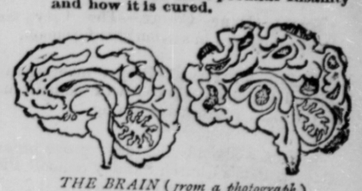
THAT TERRIBLE PARESIS.

Are the Canadian People Becoming a Nation of Lunatics?—The frightful increase of this most peculiar Insanity and how it is cured.



THE BRAIN (from a photograph.)
In Healthy Condition. With Paresis Lesions.

There are many well known men confined in our Asylums who but a short time ago were prominent among our business and social circles.

Why are they there?

Paresis!

Did it come on at once?

Not at all. It was a gradual but positive growth. They overtaxed nature. The drain on their vitality, their nerve powers, their brain tissue, was too great, and they gradually but surely sank under it. The things they did to bring this sad end about are precisely the same things that are being done by thousands of men and women to-day. It is not necessary to name them. They all end disastrously unless checked or regulated.

Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth College, knew this fully when he began his experiments which resulted in the discovery of the wonderful Paine's Celery Compound. He realized that paresis (consumption of the brain) was our great National weakness. He knew that the brain and nervous system must be fortified to meet the great strains which modern life bring upon it. He saw that men were becoming debilitated and women weakened by the pressure and demands of life, and he sought and discovered the remedy Paine's Celery Compound, if rightly taken, will renew the brain and build up nerve tissues as fast as they become exhausted. It is not a narcotic. It contains no drugs, no nostrums. It is perfectly pure. It is absolutely harmless. The high character of its discoverer guarantees this, and the indorsement of the medical and chemical professions prove it.

FOR MEN ONLY!

A POSITIVE CURE For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind; Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. $500 REWARD is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constant Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2202 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."
