

Yawn.

Yawning, dear son, indeed, is quite involuntary. Yet to unlearn the trick, for thee is necessary, I never yet observed that, when thou hadst before thee Any good thing to eat, a yawning fit came o'er thee;

Washington Society Teas.

A rather innocent amusement in which society is just now indulging itself is "teas." There are several grades of these "teas"—an ordinary "tea," a high "tea," and occasionally a "blue tea," though the last mentioned is not much of a fort hero.

The third division or blue "teas," as it is called, has features besides tea-drinking, such as readings, recitations, songs and music. In Washington society, "tea" is the favorite. No set rules are observed as to what shall be furnished the guests.

A Brave Little Woman.

Another tidbit of wisdom I've picked up—these little women, who often fume and fret over little things, stand as a tower of strength when real trials and privations visit their household.

Said a strong man to his creditors when the disagreeable truth came to light that his thousands were gone: "Gentlemen, I have given up every dollar; for myself I do not care, but my wife, faintly reared, always petted, she will feel this misfortune sadly."

"This impossible for the best, and bravest, the most unfortunate not to worry," we think "if we had known," "had done this or that," or "it would have been better so," and consequently discourage ourselves, forgetting what short-sighted mortals we are.

No use to tell us wrong drives nails in our coffins, silvers blonde locks, and imprints wrinkles upon our faces; we don't desire these effects, yet we can not go through life without a mite of worry.

Contriving a Cosy Corner.

In arranging a room, try to contrive cozy corners. Instead of having the sofa set primly against the wall, place it across the corner, and in the open space back sit a tiny table holding some articles of vertu, hang over this a bracket with a vase, or as we saw the other day set in a corner an immense decorated jar holding dried wheat, oats, grasses and cat-tails.

When down-stairs closets are not abundant, one both useful and novel may be improvised in sitting or dining-room. Two and one-half feet each way, measuring from the corner of the room have a frame put in, in which a door can be hung.

You are now ready for the ornamental part of the work. The closet can be painted the same color as the rest of the room, or ebonized, or stained to represent black walnut. On the panel at the top, paint a spray of some flower that will look well on the ground work. If the work is ebonized the railing should be gilded and also the edges of the panels.—Brattleboro Householder.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE FOR THE WHISKERS Will change the beard to a natural brown, or black, as desired. It produces a permanent color that will not wash away. Consisting of a single preparation, it is applied without trouble.
