Sport Echoes From Prince County

Monotonous, isn't it? This never-ending repetition of Island baseball championships. Let up, fellows, and give someone else a chance to cop a little glory.

The fact of their winning this long succession of championships is no more remarkable than the manner in which they won them.

It looked very much like Holman's wasn't going to be able to "guarantee satisfaction" to their fans on that occasion.

To all the boys go a lot of credit for this never-say-die spirit they have shown. But most of all to Alan Stewart, a boy just graduated from junior ranks, who won all three of the Holman aggregation's victories.

best pitching record we've heard of in these parts. If anyone knows of a better record, we'd like to hear about it.

To the airforce boys who were on this year's champions must go a goodly share of the credit for victory. They pulled more than their weight and frankly we were surprised at the caliber of ball they dished out during the Abbie-Holman series.

Paul Schurman, the only junior used in the intermediate series, after a disastrous batting slump which carried him well through the junior finals, came to life just in time to help the Holman team to victory.
