After an illness of almost two years, then entered into rest at the P. E. Island Hospital on Sat. Feb. 7, 1959 Rendall Allen Houston of 238 Euston St. in his 73rd year. Mr. Houston was born at Rustico, the youngest son of Benj. and Harriet (Lang) Houston. In the year 1909 he married Edith M. Houston of North Rustico. He resided in New Glasgow where he farmed till 1946, when he moved to Ch'town.

Mr. Houston was a member of New Glasgow Christian Church for over fifty years, also a member of Prince of Wales Lodge A.F. and A.M. Hunter River.

The dominant trait of Mr. Houston's nature was his friendliness, he always had a happy greeting and a joke for every one, old and young, he was especially fond of children.

True greatness does not consist in material possessions nor always in titles, nor honors conferred, but upon the kindly words and pleasant smiles as we journey along this earthly life.

There are left to mourn besides the sorrowing widow, three sons Earl B. at New Glasgow, Floyd W. Winslow, Arthur W. Hazel Grove also three granddaughters, Mrs. Robt. Drake, St. Thomas, Ont. Mrs. Stewart Crabbe, Milton, P.E.I. Gloria Jean Houston, New Glasgow one grandson, Harvey Rendall Houston and one great-grandson, Brian Wade Crabbe a sister Mrs. Lottie Ballingall the last surviving member of the family.

A short service was held at his late home followed by service at New Glasgow Christian Church on Monday Feb. 9th. Mr. Bryer Jones of New Glasgow Christian Church conducted the service, assisted by Merle Zimmelman of Fredericton Christian Church. A solo, "Each Step I Take", was effectively sung by Eric McGregor of Ch'town. A favorite hymn of the deceased, "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung by the choir.

Pall-bearers were: Reg Brittain, Cyril McGregor, Victor Ling Reuel LePage, Penna Moore, Elmer Bulman.

Interment was in New Glasgow Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. R.A. Houston, and family wish to thank their many friends and relatives for kindness and messages of love and sympathy extended to them in their sad bereavement. A special thank you to the men who in bitter cold weather and trying conditions, made the grave.
