

Lobster Fishermen Hold Second Meeting Of Series

The second and concluding meeting of West Prince fishermen was held in the Alberton Legion hall last evening with Dr. D. G. Wilder, assistant director of the Atlantic Biological Station at St. Andrews, N. B. as main speaker.

The life history of the lobster, rapidity of growth, moulting, principal areas where spawning are found in North America and various experiments and regulations designed to aid in conservation were discussed by the speaker.

There are over seventeen thousand fishermen in the Maritimes and Quebec and on Prince Edward Island three quarters of the fisherman's income comes from lobster fishing.

He said tests showed that the waters between Richibucto, N. B. and Miramichi to be the richest lobster area in the world. Dealing with size limits Dr. Wilder stated that the value of these restrictions is recognized in all areas where lobsters are fished and that the present size limit for the Island is smaller than any other area. Although he doubted that closed seasons had any conservation value he maintained that if the smaller lobsters were returned to the water and left for the next year the fishermen would greatly benefit by the increase in weight and value. Lobsters do not migrate and remain pretty much in the area where they were released.

Referring to the present two and a half inch carapace measure, he would like to see this minimum size limit given a chance for a five-year period.

Assistant Director Wilder was Mr. Wyn Rhydyen, information officer with the Department of Fisheries at Halifax. Mr. Jack Matthews of Alberton was chairman of the meeting.

In Hospital After Accident

—Mr. Gordon Rogers of Upper Granville Street, Summerside, was taken to Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, after the 1934 Mercury car he was driving was in collision with a 1931 Nash, owned and driven by Mr. Gordon Jay of Borden.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Summer and Fitzroy Streets. The Rogers car was proceeding south on Summer, while the Jay vehicle was going west on Fitzroy when the two collided. Although Summer is a through street there is no stop sign posted at the Fitzroy intersection. The Mercury car suffered considerable damage to the left front fender and side, while the Nash was badly damaged in front.

It was reported late last evening that Mr. Rogers is suffering from slight shock but is expected to be released today.

Surprise Party At Monday's Corner

—On Monday evening, March 20th a number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Small, Summerside East in the form of a surprise party. After an enjoyable evening was spent in playing progressive auction, the guests of honor were led to their chairs and Mr. Robert P. Hogg, acting chairman, called upon Mrs. Helen Clark who read a very fitting address and made a presentation of a beautiful silver tray. A box of chocolates was presented by Mrs. Major McDonald, after which Mr. and Mrs. Small expressed their sincere thanks. This was followed by dainty refreshments served by some of those present.

The high prizes for the card playing went to Mr. Bradford Cairns and Mrs. Lester Baglole and the consolations to Mr. and Mrs. George Small. A pleasant evening was brought to a close by a few piano selections by Mrs. Baglole, followed by the Queen.

The following is the address read to them:

Dear Folks: We, your party-crowd, have come here this evening, as we so often have done in the past, to have a good time and a friendly game in your beautiful spacious home. You are always so willing to open your doors for whatever the demand may be, whether Institute, quiltings, feasts or parties, we can always depend on the Small's.

Your tables and chairs, so freely loaned when or wherever needed, have been a life-saver for us all. We very much appreciate in you both, good sportsmanship, especially shown by George in the incident of the "Little Man." Now on behalf of your friends here tonight, please accept this gift, not for its value alone, but as a token of our appreciation. Sincerely,
Reads Corner Party-Lovers

District Gov. Visits S'side Y's Men's Club

—District Governor George MacDougal of the Charlottetown Club was the guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Summerside Y's Men's Club, held last night in the Green Street Y Centre. The speaker was introduced by Jim Murphy, retiring president of the Summerside Club.

In his address, the district governor reviewed the history of the Charlottetown Centennial Club, telling of its development and growth from a former H-Y group formed in Charlottetown before the last war. He congratulated the Summerside Club president and members on the many successful projects and activities carried out by them in the past year. He brought to the club suggestions from international regarding the sale of used stamps for the benefit of the Y's Men's Club.

At the conclusion of his address he was thanked on behalf of the club by Willard Hogg, who acted as chairman for the meeting.

Harry Holman reported to the club on the results of last month's stamp drive, with an appeal to the members to keep up the good work.

Harold Rodd told the club that their attendance average for the last year was 94.6. Hillard Clark called the attention of the club to a meeting being held next Monday evening on the subject of fluoridation, with Dr. O'Meara as speaker. John Ellis told the club that the last hymn-sing of the season would be held next Sunday and asked for a good representation from the club. Jim Murphy, the retiring president, then presented Harold Milligan, incoming president. Roy Boates reported on the radio auction told the club that there were some half-dozen articles which had never been picked up and called upon Bob Hogg to auction these off to the members. Song-leader for the evening was Allison MacLean, with George Metzger acting as fines-master. Present as guests were the newly elected executive of the Y's Men sponsored H-Y group, Peter Arnold, David MacDonald, Jim Norton and Barry Kelsey.

Y's Menettes Monthly Meeting

—The Summerside Y's Menettes held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening at the Y Center with the president Y's Menette Dorothy Clark in the chair.

The meeting opened by repeating the Y's Menettes' prayer, followed by the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved. A letter from the Y's Menettes was read by the secretary to the effect that a cookbook be compiled by the Y's Menettes to be sold to other Y's Menettes clubs. Considerable discussion followed on this subject and it was finally decided that the club go ahead with this project with Y's Menettes Bobbie Willet and Margaret Hopkirk as conveners. It was suggested also that tourist literature be included in the cookbook packets being sent out of the Maritimes. A group discussion was conducted by the program committee on the club's main project of serving meals to the Y's Men. This was followed by "personal glimpses" given by three club members, Y's Menettes Marge Ballem, Nita Ellis and Eleanor Key.

Lunch hostesses for the evening were Y's Menettes Betty Mercer, Eleanor Lapp and Marilyn Linkletter.

St. Mark's A.Y.P.A.

—The regular meeting of the St. Mark's A.Y.P.A. was held on March 28 in the church hall, Kensington. The meeting opened with a hymn followed by prayers by Rev. Mr. Ingraham and the lesson was then read by Beth Cameron. A hearty welcome was expressed by the chaplain to the St. Mary's A.Y.P.A. from Summerside, who had been invited to the meeting to hear the third in a series of talks by F/L Hugh Christmas, Protestant parde at R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside.

Due to the absence of the regular secretary, Mrs. Ingham Cole, the minutes of the last meeting were read by acting secretary Marjorie Hall. A letter was read from the A.Y.P.A. president of the Diocese of Nova Scotia. It was agreed that ten cents be collected at the next meeting of the branch to pay the Diocesan Council fee. A collection was taken up by the treasurer and the roll call was answered by 17 members. The business meeting ended by a welcome to parde Christmas and his talk on the signs of the faith.

F/L Christmas urged the members to look for the various symbols used in their churches and meditate on their meaning and significance. He spoke of the many outward signs of friendship used in daily life and of those used in the church, ending with the significance of the Cross and how to use the Lord's Prayer while meditating on the shape of the Cross.

Services were enjoyed and lunch was served by those of the committee. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing badminton and ping pong.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

We paid our first visit to Bedeque rink on Wednesday night and really enjoyed the final game between the Albany St. Pats and Freetown Royals, which ended 5-2 for the Albany team. Ice conditions were naturally far from ideal. The puck slipped over the ice fairly well, but was sometimes held up by water which piled up in front of the puck carrier like a miniature tidal bore. The boys all never "skated" for effort, however. We've never seen a team hit a faster clip and keep it up for three periods than the Royals and St. Pats did Wednesday evening. Maybe the smaller ice surface made the skaters seem to be going faster, but we got the impression that it was, if not the speediest, at least the peppiest game we'd seen all winter. There is assuredly a lot of giddy-up in these boys from the South Shore.

Bonny Howatt, whose stick-handling wizardry is well-known in Prince County, couldn't get his slight-of-hand working at all Wednesday night. Indoubtedly the ice laid a restraining hand on Bonny, but the close checking hurt him too. When a player found the puck on his stick in that rip-snorting contest, he was as much the centre of attention as a fruit-cake on an ant hill. We thought Wally Richards, the old war-horse of many, many hockey battles, and Ernie Johnson, whom we hadn't seen before, did some fine stopping, especially on screened shots.

Gord Cutcliffe was a big stumbling block to the Freetown invaders. He played most of the game, but was forced to retire with a broken skate five minutes before the end of the third period. Walter (The Rock) Campbell hit him one body belt that knocked the coffee pot off the stove in the canteen, but it didn't slow Cutcliffe up a long time. Besides joining with his defence mates, Thompson and Walsh, in throwing up a stiff barrier, Gord was in on three of the five St. Pat scoring plays.

Edgar Taylor was the only Royal to get through the Albany defence for scores. Edgar sniped two, and looked dangerous on a few other occasions. Taylor shifts into high gear very fast, and flips his shot without giving the extra paddle that hogties so many attackers around an enemy net.

The Bedeque rink management has had another successful season. With some rinks doing little better than breaking even, Bedeque has made the best of an extremely short season, and raked in a lot of blue chips. We'd like to express here our appreciation for the fine reception press representatives get in the Bedeque rink. The directors go out of their way to help you out, and make you feel that they really appreciate your being present. That is probably part of the secret of their success. Their courteous and cordial treatment of players and patrons makes their little hockey arena an especially popular resort.

Tonight's the night to get in your car, or somebody else's car, and head for the boxing and wrestling card at the R.C.A.F. recreation hall. The show Joe Hunter put on last fall had all the fans who were fortunate enough to be there tickled pink. Tonight's show shapes up to be another thriller-diller. Home n'est, folks, we wouldn't fool you on an important matter like this, no matter what day it is.

CBC Criticized For Makeup Of Capital Report

OTTAWA (CP)—The CBC was accused Thursday of improper balance in the choice of its commentators on its Sunday program "Capital Report."

Donald Fleming (PC — Toronto Eglinton) made the comment in the Commons broadcasting committee during study of the CBC's 1953-54 annual report.

He said that out of 11 Ottawa speakers who appeared on 106 broadcasts in 1953 and 1954, there appeared a total of 63 times.

They were identified from a list supplied to the committee by the CBC as Arthur Blakely, Ottawa correspondent of the Montreal Gazette, Anne Francis, free lance Ottawa correspondent, and Charles Woodworth, former editor of the Ottawa Citizen.

CHAIRMAN DEFENDS CBC

A. D. Dunton, chairman of the CBC board of governors said the CBC's experience is that there has been a balance of opinion expressed on the Sunday afternoon program.

Mr. Fleming also criticized the frequent appearances of Matthew Halton, in London, and Douglas LaChance, in Paris, on the "Capital Report" broadcasts.

The CBC's table showed that Halton spoke a total of 47 times in 1953 and 1954 and LaChance 12 times each year.

Mr. Fleming said neither Halton or LaChance, who accounted for 71 per cent of the European contributions on the broadcasts, should be taken off the air. But balance could not be maintained if two commentators had a "71-per cent monopoly" of European reporting on the "Capital Report" broadcasts.

Crapaud History

Members of the Crapaud W.I. have been engaged during the past winter in compiling a history of Crapaud, participating in the Tweedsmuir competition.

This is a Federated W. I. project, sponsored by Lady Tweedsmuir to perpetuate the history and folklore of our country districts, and a cup is donated by her, biennially, for the best effort.

Much work has been done on the Crapaud history, but it was thought unwise to enter it this year, as much of the data is incomplete. The committee in charge of the work here is Mrs. B. C. Wood, Mrs. Eric Lowther and Mrs. Frank MacDonald. Much interest has been evinced, not only locally, but also in adjoining districts.

We have no facts of English settlers here before the arrival of "The Valiant" in 1817, but from that time on a very clear picture is shown of the development of the Crapaud area. Mr. John H. Myers has covered the historical setting. Saint John's Anglican Church has been written by Rev. Geo. Ebsary, and the United Church by Mr. John L. Nicholson. Crapaud, Mrs. Thomas Best has done an extensive article on education and the school, showing much research. A complete list of teachers is included.

It is interesting to find that Crapaud has had three exhibitions, in 1820, 1867, 1954; also three public halls, and three rinks. The report of a carnival held in 1884 is included.

The history of the more recent organizations is recorded, when possible, by the men concerned with them; otherwise, by members of the families. The history is now being compiled, and will be kept at the library. The cover of the book is a fine piece of leather tooling designed and worked by Mrs. Ralph Myers. The extensive typing job has been done by Mrs. Norman Lowther.

It is planned that the history, when complete, will be made up in pamphlet form.

Egypt Objects To Britain in Pact

CAIRO. (Reuters) — Egyptian newspapers raged Thursday against Britain's decision to join the Turkey-Iraq defence pact.

The semi-official newspaper Al Gomhuria says the agreement, announced in London Wednesday, fits Israel's desire to force Arab nations into a full-fledged peace with her.

Al Gomhuria says the new treaty "converts Iraq into a vast military base in which Britain and her Allies own military establishments and stores, airports and camps." It predicts the people of Iraq will soon destroy the agreements and turn on Premier Nuri es Said.

The independent Newspaper Al Akhbar carries the headline: "Nuri es Said hands over Iraq to Britain."
