Interesting Program To Mark Observance Of Airforce Day Saturday

Air Force Day, Saturday, June 10th, will be a big day at the Air Force Station, Summerside. The day has been declared a public holiday in town and all stores will be closed so it is expected that there will be a large crowd of people taking advantage of the fact that the station will be open from one o'clock in the afternoon till after the dance at night.

An extensive program has been planned which will depict the air force in all its activities as carried on in Summerside. Formations of planes will fly overhead and individual aircraft will perform acrobatics. A squadron of vintage jet fighters from the Chatham station will sweep across the sky at four o'clock. There will be a ground display of aircraft for the inspection of the public and this will include: Vampires, Dakotas, Lancasters and Harvard.

Color will be added to the occasion by the presentation of Wings to Number four basic course of air navigators, the largest class to graduate so far. The Wings Parade will commence at 1.30 standard time and the

Forbes-Taylor Marriage At S'side

Pink and white apple blossoms and wedding bells decorated the archway and bouquets of apple blossoms and tulips adorned the rooms in a floral setting for a quiet but pretty wedding at the home of the bride in Summerside on Saturday at 12 o'clock, noon, when Rev. J. A. MacCowan of Kensington united in marriage Mary Roberta, daughter of Mr. Charles D. Taylor and the late Mrs. Taylor, formerly of Preetown, and John Yeo Forbes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald J. Forbes of Lower Bedouque.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus played by Miss Doris Jardine, the bride entered the room on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She wore lovely in an ankle length gown of pale blue taffeta, sheer tulle trimmed with velvet bows, long waistline and full skirt. She wore a matching hat with floral and veil trim and lace mitts. She carried a nosegay of red and white roses.

The groom's mother was gowned in leaf green silk crepe with black accessories and wore a corsage of Pink Delight roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for the immediate family was held at Briarcliffe, Ferrywood. Mr. and Mrs. Forbes left on a wedding trip throughout the Maritimes, the bride travelling in a suit of siltine blue gabardine with navy and white accessories. On return they will reside in Summerside. The bride and groom are members of the staff of R. T. Holman, Ltd.—S

Pretty Wedding At Summerside

The Trinity United Church, Summerside, was the scene of an exceptionally pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Rev. K. G. Sullivan, M. A. B. D., officiated in the double ring ceremony for Olga Isabel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Allison Harris, and Leigh Bearisrope, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwin Donald.

The wedding music was played by Miss Mary Geldart, organist, and Miss Gaylene Craig of Charlottetown sang "Through the Years" while the guests were being seated and "The Lord's Prayer" during the signing of the register. The chimes were played as the bridal party was leaving the church. Baskets of spring flowers and potted plants were arranged in the church for the wedding. The guest pews were marked with lace doilies and lilies of the valley tied with white ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was a picture of elegance and simplicity in her wedding gown of glowing white satin, princess style, with a graceful train. Chantilly lace formed the back yoke and was inset in the bodice from the shirred sweetheart neckline to the hem. The plain sleeves ended in points over the wrists. The finger tip veil fell from a headpiece of Venetian lace and a pearl strand of artificial pearls over a double satin halo. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Virginia Campbell, as maid of honor, wore a floor length strapless gown with bolero of daffodil yellow brocade organza, over matching taffeta. Her bridesmaid, Miss Edythe Palmer and Beryl Todd, wore attired in strapless gowns with capes of Nile and mauve brocade organza over matching taffeta. Their head-dresses of flowers corresponded to their bouquets of Better Time roses and Peinet yellow roses, respectively. The attendants of the bride wore short white lace gloves.

Mr. Lorne Harris of Moncton, N. B., brother of the bride, was groomsmen and the ushers were Messrs. Lee Sempie, Charlottetown and Clayton Mills of Kensington. Young Garland and Garth Harris, twin brothers of the bride, who were ring bearer and train bearer, respectively, wore white trousers with navy blazers.

The bride's mother wore a dress of turquoise silk crepe with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother was dressed in blue grey silk crepe with navy accessories and wore a Wings will be presented by Air Vice Marshall F. R. Miller, C.B.E., of Air Force Headquarters. The band of the P. E. I. Recce Regiment in their dress uniforms will be on hand for the parade.

There will be other demonstrations such as a bombing run by a Lancaster and a fire fighting display. In the evening a dance will be held in the station community center with music provided by the station orchestra. At 5.30 there will be a baseball game between the Air Force Royals and a team from the U. S. Air Force base, Harman Field, Nfld. The station is going on Standard Time for the day and all times mentioned are Standard Time so there should be no confusion. It will be a big day for the Summerside airmen and they have worked hard to present their civilian friends with an interesting holiday. It will also probably be the last important event on the station before the departure of the present commanding officer, Wing Commander R. F. Gross who leaves in August to take joint services course in London.—S.

Double Bereavement Of St. Eleanors Family

Deep sympathy is extended to Mrs. C. D. MacCallum, St. Eleanors and members of her family who yesterday afternoon received a telegram announcing the death of her daughter, Mary Margaret (Peggy) Mrs. Lawrence Holmes at London, Ontario.

News of her death arrived as the family were returning from the funeral of their father and the wire did not give any further particulars. Mrs. Holmes had undergone a serious head operation about Christmas time but letters received from her in the meantime seemed to indicate that her health was improving and it was the fond hope of her parents that her health would be fully restored. It is thought that news of her father's death on Saturday may have caused a relapse. She was unable to plan on coming home for the funeral and had sent a wreath of flowers from her home in London.

Funeral arrangements were not known last evening but it is understood that the remains will not be brought home for burial.

She is survived by her husband, her mother and three sisters, Freda, Mrs. Clifford Rankin, Summerside; Katherine, Mrs. Donald Hobbs, Toronto; Marjorie, Mrs. George Gay of Westmount, Que.—S.

for the cellar berth. In spite of the airforce tie with Curran & Briggs in their last game, we think they are weaker than last year. Their pitching department, particularly seems to lack depth. Jack Murphy may prove fairly dependable, but unless he's considerably improved over last year, he won't scare the C. & B. boys or Charlie Ryan's Abegweits. McCulloch may be good enough to take his turn. If they have any other seasoned mound artists, we haven't heard of them. The team will miss Dombrocki, Mickus, Bobby Barron, Chuck Hulme and Greig. Barlow may fill part of that wide breach. Frances and Martineau may also help. Unless the R.C.A. pull some rabbits out of the hat, however, we can't see them as contenders for the championship.

Of course we realize that Brigadier Bill Reid will not present the cup on the strength of our forecasts. It's all got to be fought out on the two ball diamonds, and quite often in baseball the favorites do not come through. A Cinderella team sometimes arises and foals all the pre-season prophets. That's what makes the game so interesting. So, up and at 'em, you dark horses!
