

HEADQUARTERS OF OWEN & FITZGERALD, The Liberal Conservative Candidates...

A VERY SAD DEATH.

John Flood Found Dead Near Victoria Park.

HE HAS BEEN MISSING A WEEK.

Said to Have Been Drinking on the Night of His Disappearance.

This morning the lifeless body of a lad named John Flood was found on that portion of Government House property near Victoria Park...

The body was found about eight o'clock, and the find was reported to the police, who informed Dr. McLeod, coroner.

Mrs. Flood is very much grieved over the untimely end of her child. She says that a day or two before he disappeared he sold a pair of skates for twenty-five cents...

David Ingles, young Flood's uncle, says that on Friday night last he saw a number of boys in a gangway a short distance from Flood's house...

Thomas Kiggins, a lad about seventeen years of age, informs us that he met Flood on Friday evening near Curley's. Flood had some aprons with him for his brother...

The unfortunate lad was only thirteen years of age last June. His father has been away from home for several years past.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

VOICE FROM THE Y. M. C. A.

Sir,—As another of the Y. M. C. A. boys I was very grieved to see the letters that have recently appeared in the Patriot...

To the Patriot's correspondent it is very unpleasant to see Mr. Fitzgerald allied with those who are determined to carry him to victory.

It will become the followers of the "rank corrupter" of voters, by "human devices," etc., to be casting reflections upon the moral character of those who form the Conservative party of this city.

Our friend, who has never yet polled a Liberal vote—probably has never polled a vote for any party as yet—shrinks from the awful responsibility of encouraging "such hypocrisy" by voting for Mr. Fitzgerald.

Preparation for Grand Xmas Show.

THE BAZAAR COMPANY BOUND TO LEAD.

We are making a big "MARK DOWN" on all our Toys, Dolls, Magic Lanterns, Violins and Accordions.

We have $2,000 worth of Malleable Iron Ties that are a little too expensive for the trade. These we are going to sell at Half Price.

Our ALBUMS and PLUSH GOODS this season will be exceptionally fine, no pains having been spared to secure a 1 stock.

We are making preparations for one of the Grandest Shows of XMAS and HOLIDAY GOODS ever made in Charlottetown.

Our Boys' and Girls' Own Annals, Leisure and Sunday Hours, Toy Books, Christmas Magazines, etc., are daily arriving.

Besides our enormous stock of NEW GOODS in every line—bought expressly for the Holiday Trade—we have secured an immense BANKRUPT STOCK, which we will sell at prices that will surprise the sharpest bargain hunter.

PICTURE FRAMING is receiving our careful attention, and a big stock of MOUNTINGS is just being opened.

In Purses, Satchels, Dressing Cases, Manicure Sets, Cuff and Collar Boxes, Glove and Handkerchief Boxes, an immense show will be given.

For VIOLINS and ACCORDEONS we defy competition.

In our Bankrupt Stock will be found an endless variety of CUPS and SAUCERS. These are "Import Goods," bought entirely from foreign markets.

Wholesale Customers should call early, and thus save the confusion of buying when there is a rush.

If good goods, low prices and careful attention will secure it for us, we are going to do the XMAS TRADE in our line this year.

But every pair of them are fits.

Some for wear and some for show,

At prices that are very low.

Just step in and get your size.

And you will find we tell no lies.

D. A. BRUCE.

TO-DAY the National Convention of Colored Men meets in Cincinnati to protest against lynching. It is the largest colored convention ever held in America, and it has been held in response to a movement inaugurated by Bishop Turner of Georgia and three hundred other colored men of the South.

It is necessary to act even more promptly than Judge Lynch to secure our bargains; for while we have an immense quantity of such, yet the rapidity with which they are going would remind a native of a Western cyclone. We give no guarantee to-morrow. To-day, if you come in, we are pledged to the fulfillment of what we advertise; but if business or pleasure forbids you coming to-day, to-morrow will be as to-day—a place of more interest to anyone who wants a Suit or an Overcoat than any other place in the city.

A Letter From His Dad.

DEAR SON,—

Yours to hand yesterday. It gives me great pleasure in sending you a cheque for $100. Thanks to Prowse Bros. & Co. They have done the people of this country more good and saved them more money than any firm that ever started business in Charlottetown. I am glad you are buying your Furnishings and Carpets from men you can depend on. They won't misrepresent an article to make a sale. You spoke about me recommending anyone who might want a Carpet to trade there. It would be impossible for me to tell anyone who has not already heard of Messrs. Prowse Bros. & Co. Why, your sisters, your cousins and your aunts all trade there. They say their store is like a fair on market days. Crowds of thankful buyers are found pressing their way up to the counters to have a share in the bargains which they daily offer. Good bye.

From your loving

FATHER.

To the Independent Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

GENTLEMEN,—Having been nominated a representative and influential member of the supporters of the Government to be a candidate, along with Budge Rogers, Esq., in the Liberal interest, for this constituency at the approaching Election, I beg publicly to intimate that I have accepted the nomination as candidate for Assemblyman, and most respectfully solicit your suffrages on the 12th prox. Should you do me the high honor to elect me as your representative, I will to the best of my ability advocate your varied interests, and among others the conducting of the affairs of this Province on business principles.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant,

L. E. PROWSE
