

BASEBALL ROUNDUP

HRs: Pgh-Mazeroski (8), American League

Baltimore	000 000 000—0 4 0
New York	000 010 20x—3 9 1
Johnson, Lehman (8) and Ginsberg; Larsen and Berra. L—Johnson. HR: NY—Larsen (2).
Boston	400 010 202—9 12 1
Wash	000 400 002—6 6 2
Smith, Delock (9) and Berberet; Ramos, Byerly (8) and Courtney. W—Smith. L—Ramos. HRs: Bos—Jensen (6). Wash—Christley (4).
Cleveland	100 000 000—1 7 0
Detroit	001 421 12x—11 16 0
Grant, McLish (4), Garcia (5) Tomanek (7), and Nixon; Lary and Hegon. L—Grant. HRs: Cle—Maris (4). Det—Maxwell (4), Skizas (1).
International League
Toronto	000 000 101—2 7 1
Montreal	012 000 00x—3 7 0
Minarinc and Hannah, Lasorda and Teed.
Richmond	006 000 001—7 8 4
Miami	002 22 13x—10 14 2
Bethel, Briggs (5), Browning (5), Parsons (6) and Command, Oldis (8); Cardweh, Stewart (3), Lawrence, Schmidt (3), Wright (4), Jaffeast (6), Nushall (7) and Bucha. W—Mason. L—Parsons. Rochester
000 000 000—0 3 0
Buffalo	00 200 00x—2 7 1

National League

San Fr.	520 421 110—16 26 2
Los Angeles	331 010 010—9 11 2
M C C o r m i c k, Monzant (1), Worthington (3) Grison (9) and Schmidt; Newcombe, Kipp (3) Roebuck (4) Koutak (6) McDevitt (8) and Pignatano. W—Worthington. L—Kipp. HRs: SF—Mays (2), Spencer (2), Cepeda (9) L. A. Furrillo (4), Hodges (4), Neal (2).
St. Louis	001 004 000—5 9 0
Chicago	101 010 000—3 7 2
Jones, Muffett (6) and H. Smith; Drabowsky, Phillips (8) and S. Taylor. W—Jones. L—Drabowsky. HR: Chi—Walls (10).
Milwaukee	000 100 010—2 6 1
Phila	022 000 10x—5 9 0
Buhl, McMahon (8) and Rice, Crandall (8); Roberts and Loppala. L—Buhl. HRs: Mil—Aaron (5); Pha—Jones (1).
Cincinnati	012 000 000—3 11 0
Pittsburgh	005 000 10x—6 11 0
Lawrence, Schmidt (3), Wright (4), Jaffeast (6), Nushall (7) and Bailey; Kline, Gross (7) and Foiles. W—Kline. L—Lawrence.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Bob Hazle, Milwaukee Braves outfielder is one of the disappointments of this young baseball season. There are many who are not surprised, however, at Hazle's inability to keep pace with last season's performances. His failure to hit in this still young race has kept him from a permanent spot in the Milwaukee lineup. He's far from the Hazle that tormented National League pitchers in the last half of last season's schedule.

Those were the days when Bob performed at a .403 clip yet the experts were predicting that he would have trouble making the Milwaukee club in 1958. Those wise ones are smiling all over now and are muttering, "I told you so." Hurricane Hazle is just a gentle breeze now with a batting average below the .200 mark. He might well have fears for the May 15 deadline when Braves must cut their roster.

If he's really worried he has a great knack of concealing it. He insists he isn't concerned and he does so in such a way as to be convincing.

May be the guy is right. Perhaps it's a slump that is due to break at any time.

But will Hazle still be a Brave when he does find his batting eye? Time alone will tell.

Have the St. Louis Cardinals finally started to roll? That's a question that the seven other National League teams are asking themselves these days.

The Cardinals were crawling along with only three victories in their first seventeen games. Then came the high-flying Cubs to town and there seemed little chance of help from such a source as Bob Schefling's gang. But the Cubs were the most obliging outfit the Cards had met all season. In the four game series the Cubs managed to drop the entire lot, giving the Red Birds more wins in three days than they had been able to muster since the season began.

Could that series be the turning point in the fortunes of St. Louis Cardinals for 1958? This is the team that was to challenge Milwaukee Braves for supremacy in the senior loop. Did the Cubs finally start them on the right road? Or was it nothing more than a little flurry? Keep watching!

And on the subject of the St. Louis Cardinals we hear that Manager Fred Hutchinson would like to land Duke Snider from the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Duke is unhappy at the Coliseum and is making no bones about it. Recently he was quoted as follows: "I hit 23 home runs in Ebbets Field last season. But with this monstrosity (Los Angeles Coliseum) I'll be cut down to about 13 or 14 for the year and if my home runs are cut, my salary gets cut, too. I don't like it."

Hutchinson knows that Duke is not satisfied but Fred figures the Duke would rattle the fence in St. Louis' Busch Stadium. However Hutchinson is wary of Snider's damaged knee. Even if trade talk would start, the Cards' manager is not willing to give up what the Dodgers would expect for their home run king. It's nice to dream anyway.

And still the slaughter of the Los Angeles Dodgers continues with the biggest culprit being the San Francisco Giants. Monday night Willie Mays was up to his old tricks blasting two home runs and driving across five tallies as the Giants crushed the Dodgers 12-3.

Unless the Giants get runs in the double figures it just doesn't seem like a Dodgers-Giants game any more. What the bats of Rigney's men have been doing against the former Brooks is really fantastic and is something that certainly wasn't expected from even the most ardent San Francisco fan.

Drysdale tried another starting assignment and as is usual this season he was charged with the loss. As a result of this latest setback the Dodgers grabbed sole possession of the National League basement. They finally have overtaken the Cardinals who changed directions with five straight victories over the once-haughty Chicago Cubs.

Perhaps a Cub-Dodgers series would get the Los Angeles outfit on the right road. If anyone knows what would start the Dodgers rolling they should contact Walter Alston at once. He's crying for aid.

A great many baseball men will tell you that a pitcher is at his best when he is about 30 years of age. They figure that by that time the hurler has been around five or six years and has acquired a knowledge of the hitters as well as poise necessary to make him a useful chattel to any ball club.

But the records don't back up such a belief. Don Newcombe and a very few other moundmen had their best years at 30. Some achieved greatness at a much younger age while others had their best days later than 30.

Bob Feller was a lad who didn't wait till old age to achieve greatness. In 1939 when Feller was only 20 he had a most impressive 24-9 record. When he was 32 he had another fine 22-8 mark.

Joe Wood was only 22 when he had his best season. That was in 1912 when he won 34 and lost only 5. That season he won sixteen straight games, a record never broken, and he continued on into the World Series winning three games against the Giants.

Walter Johnson was 25 when he achieved his greatest triumph. He came through in 1913 with a 36-7 showing.

Jerome "Dizzy" Dean was 23 when "me and Paul" won the pennant and then the World Series for the old Gas House Gang at St. Louis. That was the World Series when the Deans took care of everything. That season Dizzy had a 30-7 mark with the Cardinals.

Warren Spahn, ace left-hander with the World Champion Milwaukee Braves waited till he was 32 to show his best efforts. That was in 1953 when Warren won 23 and lost only 7.

Carl Hubbell, Paul Derringer, Boba Newsom, Ed Lopat and Bob Lemon were all 33 when they gave their best performances. King Carl was 26-6 in 1936, Derringer 25-7 in 1939, Newsom 21-5 in 1940, Lopat 21-9 in 1951 and Lemon 23-7 in 1954.

Bucky Walters was one of the "30" club along with Don Newcombe. Bucky was 30 in 1939 when the Cincinnati Reds won the pennant and lost four straight in the World Series to the New York Yankees. That season Bucky won 27 and lost 11. Big Newk at the same age in 1956 got 27 wins and was tagged for 7 losses.

In the more tender age groups you find fellows like Lefty Gomez, Dave Ferriss, Lon Warneke, Ted Lyons, Johnny Beazley and Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe. Gomez was 24 in 1934 when he won 26 and lost 5 for the Yankees. Ferriss ran up 25 wins and lost only 6 for Red Sox in 1946 when he was the same age.

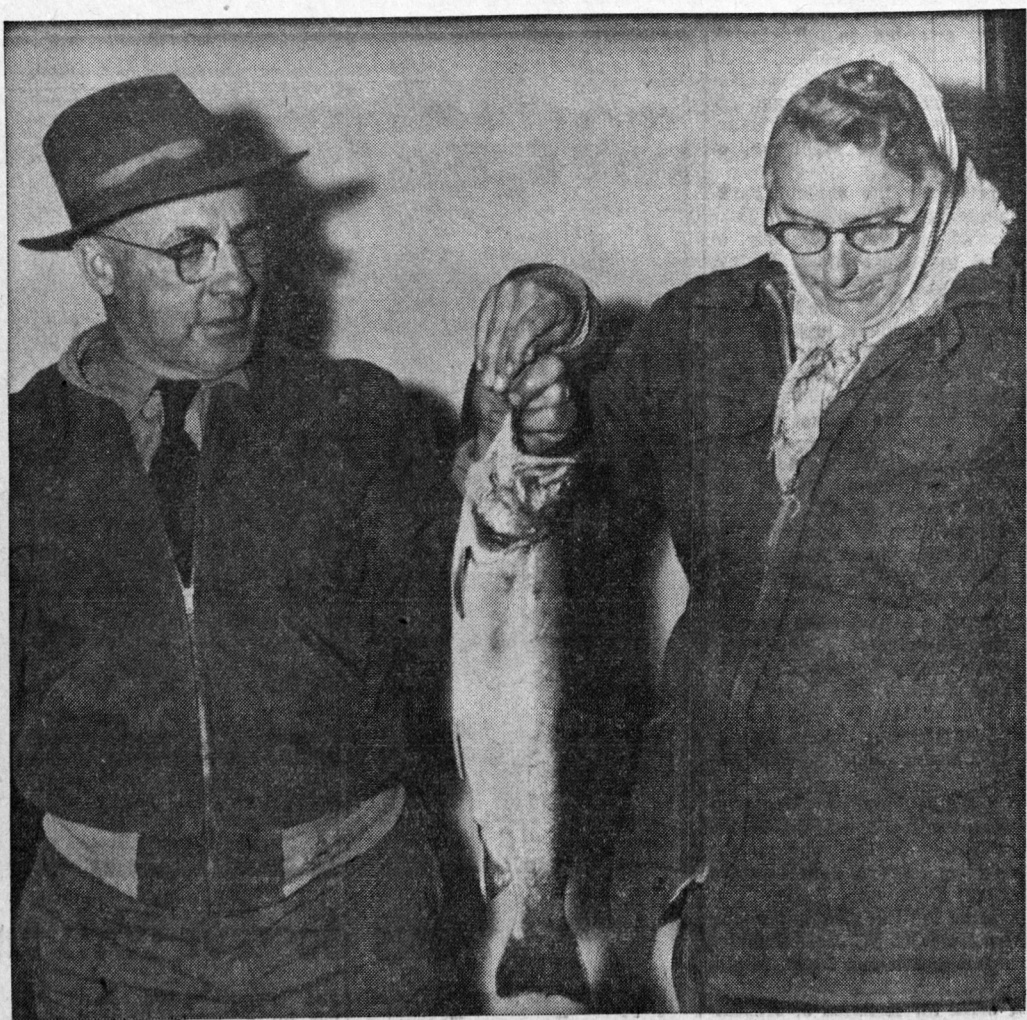

Warneke had a 22-6 record in 1932 when he was 23 years old. Lyons and Beazley also had their greatest success at the age of 23. Ted was 21-11 in 1924 and Johnny was 21-6 in 1942.

It's easily seen that some hurlers are good at all ages. Just ask the ageless Satchel Paige now toiling with the Miami Marlins in the International League.

Father Clarence Roche, playing coach of the Junior Basilica Youth Club softball team, has called a practice of his team for this evening at the Old Diamond, Victoria Park, at 5:30. All players are urged to be present for this first practice.

All interested in the operation of the City Softball League are reminded of a meeting tonight at the Labor Union Hall on Water St. Officers for the coming season will be selected and plans for the successful operation of the league for the summer will be thoroughly discussed.

All interested should make every effort to attend. Time of the meeting is 8 o'clock.

SALT WATER BEAUTY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl 'Diver' Riggs proudly displays their 4½ pound salt water trout caught yesterday in the Morell River by Mrs. Riggs. It's another of the huge ones that has been pulled from this favorite spot this season. Mrs. Riggs claims the trout was landed without a great deal of difficulty. Bait was used in this catch.

Musial Stars For Cards; Giants Cobber Dodgers

By THE CANADIAN PRESS Stan (The Man) Musial, hastily summoned as a pinch-hitter despite a well-advertised day off, joined a handful of baseball immortals Tuesday by smashing a game-winning double for his 3,000th major league hit and a 5-3 victory for his St. Louis Cardinals over Chicago Cubs.

In the other day game played in the National League, Willie Mays and Daryl Spencer hit two homers each as San Francisco Giants walloped Los Angeles Dodgers 16-9.

Two games were scheduled at night, Milwaukee at Philadelphia and Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

All four games in the American League were night contests: Baltimore at New York, Boston at Washington, Cleveland at Detroit and Chicago at Kansas City.

YANKED FROM BULLPEN At Chicago, Musial was supposed to have been benched Tuesday so he could hit No. 3,000 in St. Louis tonight. He was yanked from a sunny perch in the Card bullpen in the sixth inning and batted his epic two-bagger that started a four-run St. Louis rally.

Musial had a 2-2 count, fouling off three pitches, before he tagged Chicago's Moe Drabowsky for the long double into deep left field.

The Cubs had fashioned a 3-1 lead after five innings, one run coming on league-leading Lee Walls' 10th homer in the third.

At Los Angeles, Willie Mays found his batting eye against the Dodgers, and besides the two homers, cracked out two triples and a single. He walked in his other appearance at the plate for a perfect performance.

Altogether nine homers were hit during the three-hour and 16-minute exercise. Charlie Neal hit two for Los Angeles, while Carl Furrillo and Gil Hodges delivered one each. Orlando Cepeda added another for the Giants.

Don Newcombe went 2½ innings and absorbed the beating.

NEW YORK (AP)—Right-hander Don Larsen stayed unbeaten, ran his shutout string to 23 innings, hit his second home run of the season and blanked Baltimore on four hits for his third victory Tuesday night as

New York Yankees defeated the Orioles 3-0.

Larsen, kept idle for three weeks by shoulder trouble and rain, also singled and walked for a perfect night at the plate while winning his sixth in a row over his old mates.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pittsburgh Pirates put together six hits, including a home run by Bill Mazeroski, a triple by Bill Virdon and a double by Ted Kluszewski for five runs in the third inning Tuesday night and went on to defeat Cincinnati 6-3 for their fifth straight victory.

Cincinnati jumped to a one-run lead in the second on a walk, a double by Gus Bell and an out-field fly. They finished their scoring in the third with two runs.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jackie Jensen drove in five runs with a bases-loaded homer and a single as Boston Red Sox beat Washington Senators and Pedro Ramos 9-6 Tuesday night.

Credit for the win went to rookie pitcher Bob (Riverboat) Smith.

Smith was relieved in the ninth when Neil Chrissy blasted a two-run homer.

Jensen got the Red Sox off a winging with his two-out grand slam in the first.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia Phillies defeated Milwaukee Braves 5-2 Tuesday night behind the pitching of veteran Robin Roberts. The Phillies cracked the Braves' seven-game winning streak.

Willie Jones hit a two-run home run in the second inning to give Roberts a lead he never lost.

Hank Aaron belted a home run with no one on base in the fourth for Milwaukee.

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Tigers poured on the extra base power Tuesday night and defeated Cleveland Indians, 11-1, behind Frank Lary's steady pitching. It was Detroit's fourth straight triumph.

Included in Detroit's (16) hit assault on four pitchers were home runs by Charlie Maxwell and Lou Skizas, plus five doubles. The Tigers scored at least once in each of the last six innings and pinned the defeat on Jim (Midcat) Grant.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Here is a letter we have been for the C.P.R. on the express, looking forward to for some time, and after the Christmas holidays. It is from Archie Llewellyn, well known driver from this province who has been with Armstrong Brothers, Brampton, Ontario, as assistant trainer for some months.

Armstrong Bros. race two stables, one with Del Miller in the United States, the top member of which is Dottie's Pick, p. 4, 1.56 4.5. Last year Dottie won $74,130 and her total winnings are $238,912.

WHERE LEFT OFF Here is Archie: "I intended to write you a long time ago, but kept putting it off. As this is an off night for me, I am going to commence a letter where I left off last fall when I went down to the Harrisburg sale and came back to Toronto. Then I worked

ANNUAL MEETING CH'TOWN CURLING CLUB
WILL BE HELD AT THE CLUB
THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1958
at 7.30 p. m.

Lary, posting his third straight victory after two defeats, pitched flawlessly after giving up a lead-off home run in the first inning to Roger Maris.

Music Festival

(Continued From Page 2)

finals in Class 86—Girls Solo 7 years, completed last evening at Queen Charlotte High School. QUALIFIED IN CLASS 83

Bethany MacIntyre of Charlottetown and Faye Edwards, of Charlottetown qualified to perform in the finals of Class 83—Girls Solo, 13 years and under to be held this evening at Prince of Wales College.

At Queen Charlotte High School preliminaries in Classes 159, 160, and 161 were also adjudicated by Dr. Peaker during the morning and afternoon sessions.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

OFFICIALS Chairman at the morning session at Prince of Wales College was Dr. G. D. Steele with Mrs. Wallace Andrew as Platform Secretary. At the afternoon session Platform Secretary was Mrs. L. C. Callbeck with Mrs. J. I. MacLean at Platform Secretary.

At the morning session at Birchwood High School Platform Chairman was Mrs. G. D. Steele and Mrs. R. B. Cutcliffe was Platform Secretary. In the afternoon Mrs. Preston Beck was Platform Chairman with Mrs. Godfrey as Platform Secretary.

REMEMBER WHEN . . . Charlie Warde of England nosed out South Africa's Bobby Locke and Australia's Ossie Pickworth in the playoff after a triple tie in the Daily Mail golf tournament at Walton Heath near London, eight years ago today.

Warde had a total of 146 strokes, while Locke, then British Open champion, took 149 and Pickworth 157.

At Queen Charlotte High School preliminaries in Classes 159, 160, and 161 were also adjudicated by Dr. Peaker during the morning and afternoon sessions.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

At Queen Charlotte High School preliminaries in Classes 159, 160, and 161 were also adjudicated by Dr. Peaker during the morning and afternoon sessions.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

Adjudicating at Prince of Wales College at morning and afternoon sessions was George A. Smale of Brantford, Ontario. At Birchwood High School at morning and afternoon sessions Dr. Leslie Bell, adjudicated and at Queen Charlotte High School Dr. Charles Peaker of Toronto was in charge.

STANDINGS

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
National League

Team	W	L	Pct.	GBL
San Francisco	17	9	.654	—
Milwaukee	15	8	.652	½
Pittsburgh	16	9	.640	½
Chicago	13	14	.481	4½
Cincinnati	9	12	.429	5½
Philadelphia	10	15	.400	6½
St. Louis	9	14	.391	6½
Los Angeles	9	17	.346	8

Chairman was Mrs. L. C. Callbeck with Mrs. J. I. MacLean at Platform Secretary.

At the morning session at Birchwood High School Platform Chairman was Mrs. G. D. Steele and Mrs. R. B. Cutcliffe was Platform Secretary. In the afternoon Mrs. R. G. White was Platform Chairman, and Mrs. A. S. Frizzell was Platform Secretary.

Platform Chairman at Queen Charlotte High School for the morning session was Mrs. J. L. B. Anderson with Mrs. W. Storey as Platform Secretary. In the afternoon Mrs. Preston Beck was Platform Chairman with Mrs. Godfrey as Platform Secretary.

MORNING SESSIONS At Prince of Wales College yesterday morning Pamela MacKinnon of Charlottetown placed first in Class 157A—Beginner's Piano Solo—8 years and under, with the high mark of 86. Following closely in second place with a mark of 85 was Kathryn Rodd of Milton and placing third with a mark of 84 were Heather Burden and Gretchen Walters, both of Charlottetown.

In Preliminaries held at Prince of Wales yesterday morning Eileen Grant and Janet Malone, both of Charlottetown and Nancy Thompson of North Milton qualified to appear in the finals of Class 82—Girls Solo, 15 years and under.

In the afternoon preliminaries of this class Margaret MacIntyre and Leigha Jamieson, both of Charlottetown, also qualified to appear in the finals.

TWO PARTS The class was broken into two separate parts during the large number of contestants.

Preliminaries were also held at Birchwood High School yesterday morning in Classes 81, 86 and 80.

In Class 81—Girls Solo Low Voice, 18 years and under, Austina Kennedy of Charlottetown and Janet Rodd of North Milton qualified to appear in the finals of this class to be held this evening at Prince of Wales College.

Marlene Matheson, Mermald, and Trudy Stewart of Charlottetown qualified for finals in Class 86—Girls Solo, 7 years and under held at Queen Charlotte last evening.

In Class 80—Girls Solo, High Voice, 18 years and under, Rachel Ann Minchin of New Perth and Virginia MacDougall of Charlottetown qualified for finals to be held this evening at Prince of Wales College.

The three other living members of the exclusive 3,000-hit club—Tris Speaker, Napoleon Lajoie and Paul Waner—joined Cobb in welcoming the 37-year-old Mus 1 to their inner sanctum Tuesday when the great St. Louis Card hammered a pinch-hit double in the sixth inning of the Cards' game with the Cubs at Chicago.

"For the last three days so many people were giving it so much attention that . . . Just then 'another wave of photographers came up the lane which leads from the dugout to the clubhouse. Musial, ever the gentleman, fulfilled all posing requests and answered all questions.

"It isn't every day a man gets his 3,000th hit," said The Man. "I knew it was in there and I'm sure glad it was a good, clean shot."

When Musial drove his double into left field in the sixth inning of the game, play was suspended. The ball was retrieved and given to Musial and photographers dashed on the field.

More than 20 minutes after the game ended, Musial still was surrounded by a swarm of photographers and interviewers alongside the Card dugout.

After coming off the field, Musial walked over to the stands and kissed his wife, Lillian. "Was she excited?" someone asked Musial.

"No," said The Man, "She has more confidence than I do in my hitting."

Musial said the pitch he hit on the momentous occasion was a curve ball.

NEW YORK (AP)—Congratulations, Stan. We're pleased and proud to welcome you."

Stan Musial probably will cherish these words more than any other praise heaped upon him during his long career since he left Donora, Pa., to try his hand in professional baseball 20 years ago.

The words were uttered by Ty Cobb, generally acclaimed as the greatest among the giants of baseball.

NEW YORK (AP)—Congratulations, Stan. We're pleased and proud to welcome you."

Stan Musial probably will cherish these words more than any other praise heaped upon him during his long career since he left Donora, Pa., to try his hand in professional baseball 20 years ago.

The words were uttered by Ty Cobb, generally acclaimed as the greatest among the giants of baseball.

NEW YORK (AP)—Congratulations, Stan. We're pleased and proud to welcome you."

Stan Musial probably will cherish these words more than any other praise heaped upon him during his long career since he left Donora, Pa., to try his hand in professional baseball 20 years ago.

The words were uttered by Ty Cobb, generally acclaimed as the greatest among the giants of baseball.

Musial Joins Elite Group Of Baseball Immortals

CHICAGO (AP) — "Well, I'm glad that's over with," said Stan Musial shortly after cracking out his 3,000th major league hit Tuesday in the unfamiliar role of a pinch hitter.

The two-base hit sparked a rally which led to a 5-3 victory for St. Louis Cardinals over Chicago Cubs.

"For the last three days so many people were giving it so much attention that . . . Just then 'another wave of photographers came up the lane which leads from the dugout to the clubhouse. Musial, ever the gentleman, fulfilled all posing requests and answered all questions.

"It isn't every day a man gets his 3,000th hit," said The Man. "I knew it was in there and I'm sure glad it was a good, clean shot."

When Musial drove his double into left field in the sixth inning of the game, play was suspended. The ball was retrieved and given to Musial and photographers dashed on the field.

More than 20 minutes after the game ended, Musial still was surrounded by a swarm of photographers and interviewers alongside the Card dugout.

After coming off the field, Musial walked over to the stands and kissed his wife, Lillian. "Was she excited?" someone asked Musial.

"No," said The Man, "She has more confidence than I do in my hitting."

Musial said the pitch he hit on the momentous occasion was a curve ball.

NEW YORK (AP)—Congratulations, Stan. We're pleased and proud to welcome you."

Stan Musial probably will cherish these words more than any other praise heaped upon him during his long career since he left Donora, Pa., to try his hand in professional baseball 20 years ago.

The words were uttered by Ty Cobb, generally acclaimed as the greatest among the giants of baseball.

NEW YORK (AP)—Congratulations, Stan. We're pleased and proud to welcome you."

Stan Musial probably will cherish these words more than any other praise heaped upon him during his long career since he left Donora, Pa., to try his