HUGE CATCH

For the first five months of 1952 the Bay of Fundy sardine catch was 21,498,000 pounds, worth $365,000 to fishermen.

N. S. Baseball

(By The Canadian Press)
 Liverpool Larrupers lost a chance to strengthen their Halifax and District Baseball League supremacy Wednesday when they split a double-header with lowly Kentville Wildcats, losing the nightcap 7-1 after winning 6-2.

One of the world's first children's hospitals was opened in 1852 in Great Ormond, London, England.

Walcott-Marciano Title Bout May Not Be In N. Y.

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 6—(CP)—The world heavyweight championship fight between Jersey Joe Walcott and Rocky Marciano probably will not be held in New York, Walcott's manager, Felix Boechicchio, said today.

Boechicchio is not licensed as a fight manager in New York and he said he doesn't intend to apply for one. Bob Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, has indicated he doesn't think too highly of Boechicchio.

Walcott's manager said the gate will probably suffer from the fight being held outside New York but "Joe and I are willing to sacrifice a few extra dollars from our cut if it means the difference between my being able to manage him or not."

Other possible sites for the fight include Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago or Jersey City.

Be Sure And Meet Elsie At The Big Fair

Beauregard's visitor decides he had better drink his milk and enjoy it and grow big like Beauregard.

Elsie, the world famous cow, and her baby son, Beauregard, will arrive in Charlottetown, Monday, August 11th staying Tuesday and Wednesday only. They will appear at the Provincial Exhibition Grounds.

During Elsie's years of public service in this country, she has visited countless communities, been received by mayors and presented with the keys to several major cities, had her picture taken with celebrities and visited thousands of children in orphanages and hospitals.

It will be seen that Elsie is no ordinary cow. The queen of cowdom and her calf travel and are shown in a brand new mobile boudoir, installed in a huge tractor-trailer. When shown here she will live in Mother Goose surroundings especially created for her. During her rather spectacular career this renowned cow has raised many thousands of dollars for many worthy and charitable causes. Anyone can see Elsie and her imp of a son without admission fee. However the sponsoring organization will invite visitors to donate what they may wish for a good cause. Proceeds received from her visit here will go to the aid of the Y Youth Camp, Holland Cove. Elsie's visit is sponsored by the Centennial's Men's Club.

On her arrival here Monday, Elsie will visit the Orphanages where the children will be given an opportunity to see this remarkable animal. She also will be presented with the key to the City.

Beauregard shares the honors with his famous mother when they are receiving guests. In his corner of Elsie's boudoir, where he sits in a playpen surrounded by his toys, weigh scales, bottle warmer and other personal belongings, Beauregard greets thousands of his mother's admirers.

Elsie's boudoir is the most unusual bedroom in Canada. There's a fine chandelier made from a wagon wheel and barn lanterns. Elsie has a floor lamp made from a butter churn and milk bottle lamps on her dressing table. Her books such as "Practical Psychology" and "Calves or a Career" are other fascinating furnishings.

Kid Gavilan To Defend Title Early In October

HAVANA, Aug. 6—(AP)—Kid Gavilan, Havana's world welterweight champion, will defend his title here against Billy Graham of New York sometime during the first week of October in a 15-round bout.

Contracts were signed today after discussions between James Norris of New York, president of the International Boxing Club; Irving Cohen, Graham's co-manager; and Fernando Baldo, one of Gavilan's managers.

Gavilan defeated Baldo in New York by a split decision in a previous meeting.

Terms of the contract were not announced, but it is understood that Gavilan will get $30,000 and Graham $18,000.

Hambletonian Stakes Postponed By Rain

Rain was the big winner today at Good Time Park and for the second straight year, a muddy track caused postponement of the Hambletonian Stakes.

With 16 horses ready to dispute the three-year-old trotting championship, a noon shower washed out everything until tomorrow. There was no change in the race outlook itself. The Duke of Lullwater from the stable of Walter T. Cander of Decatur, Ga., still is the 3 to 1 favorite.

Last year the race was held over one day and Mainliner won the rich pot in two consecutive heats. It hurt the crowd, for many were unable to stay over a day. For this reason track president William H. Cane made every effort to run the event off on time this year.

The skies were cloudy, but thousands of spectators streamed into town for Goshen's biggest day, hoping the rain would stay away. It did for four hours, just long enough to let the people start on their picnic lunches.

Because of state law, racing cannot start before noon, EST (1 p.m. EDT) tomorrow, when the first race on the program will be called. Several stake races scheduled for today and tomorrow will be combined. The first heat of the Hambletonian is set for 3 p.m. EDT.

One horseman drove onto the track after the first shower and came right off as the sulky wheels caked thick with mud.

"I wouldn't even try to jog a horse around this track," said Johnny Simpson, driver of the favored Duke of Lullwater. That was before the second shower.

The 14 colts and two fillies will be shooting for the second richest purse since the Hambletonian began in 1926. The gross swag is $87,637, and the winner's share is $47,236.

Four Fresh Hands Join The Pirates

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 6—(AP)—Four fresh hands boarded the sinking hulk of Pittsburgh Pirates today.

General manager Branch Rickey called four of his rookies from farm clubs to bring the National Baseball League team's roster up to the legal limit of 25.

Strike-out hopeful pitcher Ronnie Necciai will take his first crack in the major leagues. The three others—pitcher Brandy Davis, and outfielders Jim Waugh and Lee Walls—all started with the Bucs early this season before being farmed out.

Rickey said: "I want to exhaust the potential of these men and find out what I have to work with. My goal is not sixth, fifth or fourth place—but the pennant."
