Two Cases Adjudicated, Another Is Withdrawn

Charged with the theft of Money from the New Glasgow Dairy Company, Phyllis Edith Dickson, New Glasgow, had her case further adjudicated on Nov. 16 by Magistrate James MacLeod, QC, in Queen's County magistrate's court yesterday.

Also adjudicated was the case of Hollis S. Sturgeon Mackay, Charlottetown, charged with failing to stop at the scene of an accident. The case was adjudicated until Nov. 19.

A charge of driving while impaired against James Angus MacLinn, Grand Traverse, was withdrawn by the Crown.

Pleading guilty to a charge of speeding, Ivan Douglas MacLeod, Clyde River, was fined $15 and costs or five days in jail. For parking on the wrong side of the highway, a fine of $10 and costs or five days was meted out to Joseph Francis Trainor of Charlottetown.

Fines of $10 and costs or five days were also meted out to one accused for failing to transfer the registration of a motor vehicle and to another for driving without an operator's licence.

For operating a motor vehicle with defective electrical equipment an accused was fined $5 and costs or two days. A fine of $1 without costs or one day in jail was given a person for failing to carry his operator's licence when driving.

Charged with failing to report to the RCMP with his vehicle for re-inspection an accused had his case adjourned until Nov. 5.

College Jayvees Tangle Today In Grid Action

Saint Dunstan's Jayvees, coached by Jack Kane and Jack Froude's PWC Jayvees tangle today in the second game of their best of three grid series out of Saint Dunstan's.

The Welshmen, favored to win the opener, find themselves with their backs against the wall having lost the opener by a close score but coach Froude hopes to keep the series alive with a victory over the Malpeque road students today and coach Kane is just as determined to take the series to two straight so it shapes up as a mighty interesting battle.

Game time is 2 o'clock sharp.

Executive Were Luncheon Guests

Executive members of the P. E. I. Tourist Association were guests yesterday of Dr. Frank MacKinnon, principal of Prince of Wales College, at luncheon at Montgomery Hall prior to the opening of the association's annual meeting.

After luncheon, the party toured the hall and were shown its facilities.

Queens, Kings Guiders Hold Course At Morell

Close to 50 guiders from Queens and Kings Counties attended the leadership course, which was held at Morell High School last Saturday.

The blue guiders were instructed on patrol systems and code of honor by Mrs. B.W. Patterson, while Mrs. Earl Taylor gave demonstrations in the ceremonies of flag procedures, marching and enrolment.

In an evening camp-fire music training was conducted under the direction of Mrs. George Warner. The training program for the day was planned by Mrs. A.E. Ings, Kings County, and the provincial training committee under the direction of Mrs. E.M. Fould, provincial training commissioner.

Thanks of the guides and commissioners in attendance to Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. MacArthur and the Morell association for the work in preparing for the rally and the supper served.

Syllabus For Music Festival Reported Available By Ass'n

The syllabus of the 1963 provincial music festival is now available from the P. E. I. Music Festival Association and those who are planned to enter the festival are urged to get their copies so they will be able to order music from music stores as soon as possible.

Announcement that the syllabus is available was made at a recent meeting of the association held at Prince of Wales College.

It was decided that choral reading will be adjudicated next year at a time separate from the festival as a sponsor for choral reading could not be found by the association.

Decision was made to sell the association's public address system to Prince of Wales College as the system is not in use. Chairman of the meeting was F.A. Large, QC, past president of the association. Next meeting will be held in Summerside.

Tenor To Sing In Churches

The noted American tenor, Emanuel Mansfield who will be appearing here in a concert for the Charlottetown Rotary Club, will be featured soloist at two city churches tomorrow.

In the morning, Mr. Mansfield will be heard in a solo at Trinity United Church and in the evening will sing at the First Baptist Church.

Firemen Quell Two Blazes

City firemen were called to 60 Summer Street shortly before 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Fire officials said a pair of rubber boots hanging next to a space heater ignited, causing heavy smoke but no damage.

A second general alarm fire of the morning called firemen to Condon's Woods Mills Ltd., Queen Street, about 11:30.

Firemen quickly quenched the blaze, burning in bulk wool, with a booster fan. One man was hooded to a stand pipe as a precautionary measure but his services were not required.

The Stafford Gordon farm in Brudenell.

He said the property has been taken over by the provincial government and the barns and out-buildings will come under the jurisdiction of the centennial agricultural committee, which will undertake to "bring the farm back to pioneer days."

Dr. MacKinnon said the Women's Institute will take over the house and it has been bought and other handcraft exhibits.

"It will be fitted out in first class style and history will be displayed in appropriate setting."

Dr. MacKinnon also stated the centennial symbol has been finished and is a "work of art."

He said the Attorney-General is trying to get it patented in Ottawa.

Mr. Hayward referred to the many conventions booked by the province for 1964 and also entertainment being sought by the committee for that year.

Mayor Gaudet said 43 conventions have been established and many others still haven't decided. He gave a complete list of the conventions.

The dinner was chaired by the retiring president Gordon Shaw.

Cabinet Briefed On Building Plans

Dr. Frank MacKinnon, chairman of the Fathers of Confederation Memorial Building Foundation, met the provincial cabinet Thursday at the regular meeting of the Executive Council.

The cabinet was shown the plans for the Confederation Memorial Building that is to be built in Charlottetown and brought up to date on the activities of the foundation.

There were no announcements on building plans following the meeting but Dr. MacKinnon is to attend a foundation meeting in Montreal next week and there are indications that an announcement will be made following that session.

Court Hears Five Cases

A light docket faced Magistrate James Haslam in city police court yesterday.

One motorist was fined $10 and costs for driving a vehicle with defective brakes. Another was fined $5 for failing to have license plates attached on the front and rear of his vehicle.

One man was fined $5 and costs for failing to stop at a flashing red light, and two other motorists were fined $5 and costs for failing to stop at stop signs.
