

Don't Go To Bed Hungry.

When people sit up at night, particularly if they are delicate, they should eat something, if only a slice of bread or butter before retiring. This seems heretical, but is not. Animals after eating, instinctively sleep. Human beings become drowsy after a full meal. Why? Because blood is solicited toward the stomach to supply the juices needed in digestion. Hence the brain receives less blood than during fasting, becomes pale, and the powers become dormant. Sleep therefore ensues. This is physiological. The sinking sensation is sleeplessness is a call for food. Wakefulness is often merely a symptom of hunger. Gratify the desire and you will fall asleep. The feeble will be strong at dawn if they eat on going to bed. Fourteen hours lie between supper and breakfast. By that time the fuel of the body becomes expended. Consequently, the morning toilet fatigues many. Let such eat at bedtime, and take a glass of warm milk or beef tea before rising. Increased vigor will result. "But the stomach must rest." True. Yet when hungry we must eat. Does an infant's stomach rest as long as an adult's? The later eats less often merely because his food requires more time for digestion. Seldom can one remain awake until half-past ten or eleven o'clock without hunger. Satisfy it and sleep will be sounder. During the night give wakeful children food, and sleep will follow. The sick should invariably eat during the night. This is imperative. At night the delicate and children may take slowly, warm milk, beef tea or oatmeal gruel. Vigorous adults may eat bread and milk, cold beef, mutton, chicken and bread, raw oysters, all, of course, in moderation. Do not eat if not hungry. Eat if you are.

Thackeray was one day sauntering away from the Garrick Club, then close to Covent Garden, and, strolling through Cranburne Alley, stopped opposite to a pie-shop, around which several urchins of both sexes were gathered, looking with wolfish eyes upon some pork-pies which the baker had just placed in the window for sale. Thackeray had a great kindness for children and dumb animals; so his soul was touched by the sight of the hungry-looking children. Calling the tallest, a slip of a girl some eleven or twelve years old, he gave her half-a-crown, telling her to buy five or six penny pies, take one for herself, and give the others to her little companions. Presently he saw the girl with the five-penny pie, one in her hand and the others in her apron, making off at her best pace. Overtaking her he reproached her with taking all and not giving her friends any, whereupon the girl screamed out, "Let me alone, you nasty, dirty old beast, or I'll call a policeman!" The novelist dropped this flower of St. Giles like, as he said, "a hot potato," and never dabbled in practical philanthropy again.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White's Excessive or Painful Menstruation, Green Stitches, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfeebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

GAS COOKING STOVES.

WE have made arrangements with the best makers of Gas Stoves in the United States, which we will be able to supply the public, at the lowest possible price. We have also agreed with the Gas Company (for the purpose of introducing these stoves), to sell the first fifteen (15) for which we may receive orders.

At their Net Cost, LANDED HERE.

TESTIMONIALS.

The following are a few testimonials from a list of several hundred:— The capacity of the Stove is surprising. With a No. 8 Stove we cooked for a party of seven, giving them broiled oysters, steak, lamb chops, and baked biscuit, in 45 minutes, at a cost for gas of 4 1/2 cents. On another occasion we gave a dinner in courses of twenty men, the bill of fare as follows: Broiled shad, beef steak, roast quarter of lamb, baked biscuit and coffee; heating the water for washing the dishes four times, re-setting the table three times. All was accomplished in one hour and forty minutes, at an expense for gas of eight cents. This work was all done on one No. 8 Stove. All were enthusiastic over the manner in which the oysters, fish and meats were cooked; none had experienced any so tender, juicy, and of such full flavor before. We consider the stove a great success, and most complete in all its parts and arrangements. A. C. WOOD, Supt.

I bought one of your No. 12 Gas Cooking Stoves last September, for use in my restaurant, and have used it ever since for baking, broiling, and stewing. I can say for it that it is always ready and does its work rapidly; that there is no dust, no dirt, no surplus heat, as we are using only that portion that we need, and as soon as the article is cooked the gas is extinguished and there is no waste. I think it will do the same amount of work at less cost than coal, even at the high price of gas. It takes much less room than a coal range that would do the same work. I am perfectly satisfied with it and would not be without one for double the price. J. T. HARKER.

The Gas Stove you sent me, I am glad to say has proved an entire success. If my testimony is of any value to you, you are at liberty to use it. The decrease in the coal bill more than offsets the increase in the gas ditto. The cooking is excellent and uniform in its operation. No dirt or dust irritates the careful housewife, and Mrs. S. describes it as a "real treasure."

In my humble opinion, any man who really wants to add to the number of allotted days of his better-half, had better invest in a Gas Stove and save her worry, and himself expense. W. H. SEYMOUR.

We are perfectly delighted with our Gas Stove. It gives entire satisfaction in every respect. Mrs. M. PENNINGTON, 2103 Vine St.

Your favor of the 1st inst. was duly received asking my opinion of the Gas Cooking Stove bought last May, and in reply, would state that the satisfaction rendered by the stove was far beyond my expectations, and the work it will accomplish is marvelous, together with the small expense and comfort attending the same. EDWIN A. GARRETT.

Having used one of your No. 7 Gas Cooking Stoves for a considerable time past, it is with pleasure that I bear testimony to its genuine merits. It boils, bakes, broils, roasts, and in fact, does everything that a first class stove or range can do, and with a saving of time and labor, that can only be appreciated by those who use them.

It has given us the most entire satisfaction, and to use my wife's words, "I would not be without it for ten times the cost." From statements of our gas meter taken, we find it more economical than coal. MERCER E. GIBSON, 4029 Powelton Ave.
