Congratulations and best wishes are being extended to Mr. Richard T. Taylor who celebrated his 94th birthday on August 11th. Although having attained this advanced age he is still in full possession of his faculties. To prove that he loses very little of his agility, as the years roll by, he still walks over a mile every day to his old home. Mr. Taylor resides with Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson at the Edgewood Hotel, Lower Montague.

SLIGHT DELAY

QUEENSTOWN, South Africa (CP)—When 22-year-old Robin Halse, a South African, motored home from Britain, he passed through a score of countries without a hitch at any border. Then he was stopped at his own border while authorities held his English automobile up for some days until he permitted its entry.

SWINDON, England (CP)—Housewives and others in this Wiltshire community invaded hardware stores to buy garbage cans and dust bins after the council announced that all garbage collectors would be given a simultaneous two-weeks' holiday this summer.

Keen competition was the predominant feature at the King's County elimination swimming meet held at Cardigan Saturday afternoon. Each class was well filled by contestants from Souris, Cardigan and Georgetown, the only three localities to be represented. A large crowd was in attendance, and they were greatly impressed by the swimming and diving ability of the boys and girls in the different age groups. This is a direct result of the swimming and water safety classes which have been conducted by the Red Cross during the past number of years, and the success of its work was clearly defined on Saturday as the youngsters put on a splendid performance.

Mr. Paul Cudmore, Charlottetown, was well pleased with the large number of entries and their performance. The results of the meet are as follows:

Men's diving open—1. Kimball Jarvis, Souris; 2. Floyd Martell, Georgetown; and Buddy Martell, Georgetown; 3. Camille Gallant, Souris.

MacAdam - Perry Wedding

A lovely mid-summer wedding of wide interest was that of Miss Daphne Perry and Mr. Walter MacAdam on Wednesday morning, August 13th in the Little Flower Church, Morell Village, P.E.I. The pastor, Reverend Phelan McKenna, performed the marriage ceremony and sang the nuptial High Mass. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Perry of Bristol and one of the Island's young school teachers. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alban MacAdam of Morell Village.

Mr. Perry gave his daughter in marriage, and she had for her maid of honour Miss Catherine (Cathy) MacDonald of Bristol, P.E.I., and Halifax, N.S. The bridesmaid was her cousin, Miss Eulalia O'Hanley of Toronto, and formerly of St. Peter's Bay. The little flower girl, also a cousin of the bride, was Sheila O'Hanley of Halifax.

Mr. Bertram MacAdam was best man for his brother, and acting ushers were Jack Coffin and Alban Eldershaw of Morell.

The family pews were beautifully decorated with nosegays of mixed flowers and the altar and sanctuary were adorned with pink and white gladioli.

The bride's gown was of white net over nylon skirt with fitted bodice of brocade satin and chanelly lace, with long sleeves fastened in points over the bands. Her shoulder length veil fell from a small tiara. Her bouquet was of red roses.

The maid of honor wore a floor-length gown of mauve net over nylon with fitted bodice, and lace mitts. Her matching headress was held in place with small flowers, and she carried a nosegay of mixed sweet peas and rosebuds.

The bridesmaid's floor-length gown was of yellow net over taffeta with fitted bodice and matching headress and nosegay. The flower girl's dress was floor-length pale green organza with veil and wreath, and she carried a satin covered basket of flower petals with yellow and green satin ribbon streamers.

During the Mass, soloist Mr. Frank Kelly of Charlottetown sang "O God of Loveliness," "Just For Today," and "Oh Lord I Am Not Worthy." Also Misses Catherine Steele, Genevieve Rossiter and Jane Bonnell rendered beautifully, "Lord of Glory" and "Remember, Holy Mary." Mr. Owen Kelly was the organist.

Mrs. Perry, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The groom's mother chose a navy blue corded silk dress with mauve and white accessories and wore a corsage of mauve and white sweet peas.

A wedding breakfast and reception was held at the bride's home immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake flanked by pink and white tapers and vases of pink and white snapdragons. Father Phelan McKenna proposed the toast to the bride and groom to which the groom responded.

Mr. and Mrs. MacAdam left in the afternoon on a wedding trip through Nova Scotia, travelling by automobile. For going away the bride wore a mauve nylon dress with yellow accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a travelling case and the bride's gift to the groom was a combination lighter and cigarette case. On their return they will reside in Morell Village where Mr. MacAdam has purchased a property and is employed by the Co-operative Association.

Cardigan Defeats Morell 11-10

Cardigan defeated Morell 11-10 in a regular Kings County Baseball League feature yesterday afternoon. Delonew went the whole way for the winners while Morell used Eldershaw and O'Brien. The schedule closes with Murray River and Peakes fighting for first and second positions, and Cardigan, Morell and Souris for third and fourth positions. It is expected that following the conclusion of the games on Wednesday, the semifinals will get under way next week.

Cars Collide On Montague Highway

Four persons were rushed to the P. E. Island hospital at six p. m. yesterday for immediate examination and superficial treatment as a result of a collision between two cars at the junction of the Montague Highway and the road to Village Green. The injured persons, two men and two women were allowed to leave the hospital shortly after.

One of the cars was headed towards the city, and the other was proceeding in the opposite direction, when for some reason which has not yet been explained, the cars collided, resulting in the complete wrecking of the Island car, and severe damage to the Ontario car which figured in the mix-up.

The R.C.M.P. were promptly on the scene and rendered the necessary assistance, followed by an investigation.

A wedding breakfast and reception was held at the bride's home immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake flanked by pink and white tapers and vases of pink and white snapdragons. Father Phelan McKenna proposed the toast to the bride and groom to which the groom responded.

Mr. and Mrs. MacAdam left in the afternoon on a wedding trip through Nova Scotia, travelling by automobile. For going away the bride wore a mauve nylon dress with yellow accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses.

SEVEN DAYS

7. Sunday: And to close out this week's column is a poem by Grace Noll Crowell—

WIFE IS THAT MAN

Wife is that man who can stop his work and there Lay hold of the blessed privilege of prayer.

Wife is he, who baffled, turns to look For words of guidance in God's holy book

And he is wise who lets no hindering bars Keep him from scanning the night sky for the stars.

And very wise indeed is he who sees The value of earth's old simplicities.

Who counts his store of blessings, finds that health And deep content is better far than wealth.

Who comes to know that worrying is waste And hurrying is needless, useless haste.

Wife is that man who moves across earth's sod Straight and stalwart—hand in hand with God.
