

England Could Lead Fashions

TORONTO (CP)—England has been outstripping France for the last two or three seasons in the world of women's fashions, a Hollywood fashion consultant and radio commentator said Tuesday.

Alfred Davidson, here for a radio program, said England could be the leader in the forward approach to fashion.

Italy, he said, is a close second.

Mr. Davidson, who worked for Oleo Cassini for 16 years, thinks "Paris is dead as an international fashion leader."

Identical wedding ring head dresses, topped with organza rosettes, and matching satin shoes were worn by the bride and bridesmaids. They were carried in white gloves and carried nosegays of white carnations with blue and white centerpieces.

The bride's jewelry was pearl earrings of the bride. Heather Dawn, the bride's maid, wore a flower girl carrying a basket of assorted flowers, and dressed in pink organza over taffeta. She wore a headband of pink and white miniature mums.

Miss Donna Moutreux, the groom's best man, Ushers were William Reilly, brother of the bride, and Gary Johnson, brother of the groom. The bride's bridesmaids were Miss Shirley White, sister of the groom, and Miss Sharon White. Each was given a gift in a street length of blue crystal organza over taffeta, with scalloped neckline.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hillside Club, Toronto, for 100 guests. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake with white miniature bride and groom and decorated with silver leaves and pink flowers. The groom's table was on the other side of the cake completed the setting.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Bryer Jones, cousin of the bride, to which the groom responded. Speeches at the reception were Mrs. James Dunn, Mrs. Milburn Reilly, Mrs. Bruce Graham, Miss Dorothy Molyneux, Miss Alice Macdonald, Miss Betty MacLure and Miss Doreen Graham. Miss Eaton Reilly, sister of the bride, attended the guest book.

Prior to their marriage the bride and groom were honored with a shower at the United Church Hall, Murray River. Following their return Mr. and Mrs. White were honored by a luncheon given in Murray Harbour North Hall.

The young couple will reside in Montague, where Mrs. White is a member of the faculty of the Montague Regional High School. White is employed by the T. Eaton Company, Charlottetown.

The mother of the bride-groom, was a gown of light blue chiffon, a white hat, and a corsage bouquet of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Don Poidt for 200 guests. Later Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara left on a wedding trip through Quebec and the Maritimes. The bride travelled in a blue-grey wool suit with a white lace hat, with a corsage of mauve orchids.

The groom wore a suit and Mrs. Peter Donnelly, of New Zealand sister and brother-in-law of the bride, was read by the best man. The happy young couple have taken up residence in their new home in LaSalle, Quebec, where the bride is on staff at St. Mary Hospital and the groom is employed by the International Harvester Co. Limited.

Out of town visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Michael Connelly and daughter Kathy and Colleen, Charlottetown; Mrs. James Connelly and daughter Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Connelly and son Charlie of Brooklyn, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frestak and son, Henry of Waterford, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Egger of Montreal.

Basilia Cowl Honors Director

Very Rev. P.F. Macdonald was guest of honor at the regular meeting of the Basilia C.W.L. on Tuesday, Sept. 3, at the new Recreation Center. Permittee to represent the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion on the Kensington Centennial planning program. Others of the committee are Mrs. Garret Turner, Mrs. Joston MacLean and the president, Mrs. Earle Mackay. Held in the Legion Home, this was the first regular meeting following the summer recess, and many raising suggestions were discussed but no definite plans were made.

Miss Georgette Kennedy R.N. returned to Truro on Monday after spending the holiday week end at her home at Kensington, Kildare.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McInnis and family returned recently to their home in Ottawa after spending a two week holiday on the island. They were the guests for a week at the home of Mrs. McInnis's sister, Mrs. Richard Hogan, Cumberland St., City. They also spent a week at Mr. McInnis's home in North Lake with his mother and two brothers.

Mr. G. Arthur Hayes, B.E.E. Chief Engineer, Dept. of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., Los Angeles, California, has returned to his home after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Hayes of this city.

Mr. Donald Thompson, Moncton spent the holiday week end at his home at Long River.

Mrs. David L. McInnis was appointed chairman of a committee to represent the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion on the Kensington Centennial planning program.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chaisson and sons Mark and Roger Blair, Calgary, Alta. left on return home after spending two weeks in Montreal. Chaisson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burhoe, Charlottetown.

Mr. William Sullivan, retired railway conductor, has returned to his home in Alderwood, N. B., after visiting friends in Charlottetown. He was a guest at the "Gateway House."

There were 10 tables in play at this week's Duplicate Bridge at the Charlottetown Hotel. Following are the scores. East and West: Mr. and Mrs. F. Grant, 84; Roche and Roche 81; MacLeod and Forsythe 80; Gleason and King 76; Tulle and Atkins 74; North and South: Green and Rogers 91; Hines and Duffy 78; Coffin and Toombs 74; Larabee and Bell 72; Russell and Gaudet 71.

Mr. David L. Ellis, Hamilton, Ontario, New home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ellis, Summerside East, for his vacation. David is a designing draftsman for the combined companies of Essex Cabinet Makers and Capital Quality Homes. He will be returning to Hamilton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland O'Connor, accompanied by their three children, Carol, Robert and Brenda, have returned to Providence, Rhode Island, after visiting Mr. O'Connor's father, W. Emmett O'Connor of Kildare, and Mrs. O'Connor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laughlin, Sherbrooke.

Mr. Edward Laughlin, B.Sc. on the teaching staff of Pauline Johnson Collegiate and Vocational School, Bramford, Ontario, and Mrs. Laughlin have returned to their home in Bradford after completing a two month tour by car of the ten provinces of Canada and the southern states of U.S.A. While in P.E.I. they spent a few days visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laughlin, Sherbrooke, and Mr. Emmett O'Connor of Kildare.

The Women's Institute of Centre Queens No. 1, District headquarters awarded scholarship of $50 each to the students in their area attaining the highest marks in the Grade Ten provincial examinations.

Wayne Church, a student from Sherwood, received the scholarship from schools of two or more classrooms. Wayne is the son of W.O. F.B. Church, R.C.A.P., Naino, Alberta. The Church family resided several years in Sherwood and recently moved to Alberta.

Robert Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Thompson, North Milton, was the recipient of the scholarship from one-roomed schools.

The convention area includes the following schools: East Royalty, West Royalty, Parkville, Sherwood, South Windloe, Brackley, North Milton, South Milton, Harrington, Brackley Point and Springville.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. Barrett spent the Labor Day weekend in Dartmouth, N.S., visiting his mother, Mrs. M. J. Barrett, and Mrs. A.A. Allen, whose daughter Jocelyn Victoria celebrated her fourth birthday.

Mrs. Frank L. Dillon, Charlottetown, has given her sisters, Mrs. M.C. Hutchinson of Calgary, Alta.; Mrs. M.H. Canning, Jamaica Plain, U.S.A.; and her nephew, Robert Canning, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hogg and family have returned to Virginia after visiting with Dr. Hogg's mother, Mrs. W. H. Hogg, Brighton Road and at her summer home in Grand Terrace, Md.

HAPPENINGS

month tour by car of the ten provinces of Canada and the southern states of U.S.A. While in P.E.I. they spent a few days visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laughlin, Sherbrooke, and Mr. Emmett O'Connor of Kildare.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McInnis and family returned recently to their home in Ottawa after spending a two week holiday on the island. They were the guests for a week at the home of Mrs. McInnis's sister, Mrs. Richard Hogan, Cumberland St., City. They also spent a week at Mr. McInnis's home in North Lake with his mother and two brothers.

Mr. G. Arthur Hayes, B.E.E. Chief Engineer, Dept. of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., Los Angeles, California, has returned to his home after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Hayes of this city.

Mr. Donald Thompson, Moncton spent the holiday week end at his home at Long River.

Mrs. David L. McInnis was appointed chairman of a committee to represent the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion on the Kensington Centennial planning program.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chaisson and sons Mark and Roger Blair, Calgary, Alta. left on return home after spending two weeks in Montreal. Chaisson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burhoe, Charlottetown.

Mr. William Sullivan, retired railway conductor, has returned to his home in Alderwood, N. B., after visiting friends in Charlottetown. He was a guest at the "Gateway House."

There were 10 tables in play at this week's Duplicate Bridge at the Charlottetown Hotel. Following are the scores. East and West: Mr. and Mrs. F. Grant, 84; Roche and Roche 81; MacLeod and Forsythe 80; Gleason and King 76; Tulle and Atkins 74; North and South: Green and Rogers 91; Hines and Duffy 78; Coffin and Toombs 74; Larabee and Bell 72; Russell and Gaudet 71.

Mr. David L. Ellis, Hamilton, Ontario, New home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ellis, Summerside East, for his vacation. David is a designing draftsman for the combined companies of Essex Cabinet Makers and Capital Quality Homes. He will be returning to Hamilton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland O'Connor, accompanied by their three children, Carol, Robert and Brenda, have returned to Providence, Rhode Island, after visiting Mr. O'Connor's father, W. Emmett O'Connor of Kildare, and Mrs. O'Connor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laughlin, Sherbrooke.

The Women's Institute of Centre Queens No. 1, District headquarters awarded scholarship of $50 each to the students in their area attaining the highest marks in the Grade Ten provincial examinations.

Wayne Church, a student from Sherwood, received the scholarship from schools of two or more classrooms. Wayne is the son of W.O. F.B. Church, R.C.A.P., Naino, Alberta. The Church family resided several years in Sherwood and recently moved to Alberta.

Robert Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Thompson, North Milton, was the recipient of the scholarship from one-roomed schools.

The convention area includes the following schools: East Royalty, West Royalty, Parkville, Sherwood, South Windloe, Brackley, North Milton, South Milton, Harrington, Brackley Point and Springville.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. Barrett spent the Labor Day weekend in Dartmouth, N.S., visiting his mother, Mrs. M. J. Barrett, and Mrs. A.A. Allen, whose daughter Jocelyn Victoria celebrated her fourth birthday.

Mrs. Frank L. Dillon, Charlottetown, has given her sisters, Mrs. M.C. Hutchinson of Calgary, Alta.; Mrs. M.H. Canning, Jamaica Plain, U.S.A.; and her nephew, Robert Canning, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hogg and family have returned to Virginia after visiting with Dr. Hogg's mother, Mrs. W. H. Hogg, Brighton Road and at her summer home in Grand Terrace, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McInnis and family returned recently to their home in Ottawa after spending a two week holiday on the island. They were the guests for a week at the home of Mrs. McInnis's sister, Mrs. Richard Hogan, Cumberland St., City. They also spent a week at Mr. McInnis's home in North Lake with his mother and two brothers.

Mr. G. Arthur Hayes, B.E.E. Chief Engineer, Dept. of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., Los Angeles, California, has returned to his home after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Hayes of this city.

Maggie Morris Has Successful Announcer Role

TORONTO (CP)—When Margaret Morris first read a news-cast over CBC radio last May, more than a dozen men called the station wanting to know what had happened.

Now they have become accustomed to Maggie's voice, reading the news and sports, filling in for vacationing disc jockeys and conducting her own record show once a week.

A once antagonistic male wrote recently to say he thought she was doing well. And her superiors are pleased with the first woman announcer they have hired in a decade.

Maggie, who says she hates Marie Curie because that's what her name is called in England) is no novice in the radio and television field.

She made her debut in Winnipeg 10 years ago, she worked in Little Theatre and radio drama, and after moving to Toronto she worked for Mrs. J.E. Fleming at the University of Toronto. She has since worked on Tuesday afternoons as the news reader for the station, and her duties are acute at this time.

The new director, Rev. William Simpson was welcomed by the president and asked to speak to the members. Fabert Simpson stressed the renewal which is taking place in the church, not only for the people but for the people as well as the apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

He stressed the National Catholic Council in Canada, the official organization of the Catholic Church in Canada; he encouraged the ladies to bring in more members and make them welcome. He concluded by leading the closing prayer.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

Basilia Cowl Honors Director

Very Rev. P.F. Macdonald was guest of honor at the regular meeting of the Basilia C.W.L. on Tuesday, Sept. 3, at the new Recreation Center. Permittee to represent the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion on the Kensington Centennial planning program. Others of the committee are Mrs. Garret Turner, Mrs. Joston MacLean and the president, Mrs. Earle Mackay. Held in the Legion Home, this was the first regular meeting following the summer recess, and many raising suggestions were discussed but no definite plans were made.

Miss Georgette Kennedy R.N. returned to Truro on Monday after spending the holiday week end at her home at Kensington, Kildare.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McInnis and family returned recently to their home in Ottawa after spending a two week holiday on the island. They were the guests for a week at the home of Mrs. McInnis's sister, Mrs. Richard Hogan, Cumberland St., City. They also spent a week at Mr. McInnis's home in North Lake with his mother and two brothers.

Mr. G. Arthur Hayes, B.E.E. Chief Engineer, Dept. of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., Los Angeles, California, has returned to his home after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Hayes of this city.

Mr. Donald Thompson, Moncton spent the holiday week end at his home at Long River.

Mrs. David L. McInnis was appointed chairman of a committee to represent the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion on the Kensington Centennial planning program.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chaisson and sons Mark and Roger Blair, Calgary, Alta. left on return home after spending two weeks in Montreal. Chaisson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burhoe, Charlottetown.

Mr. William Sullivan, retired railway conductor, has returned to his home in Alderwood, N. B., after visiting friends in Charlottetown. He was a guest at the "Gateway House."

There were 10 tables in play at this week's Duplicate Bridge at the Charlottetown Hotel. Following are the scores. East and West: Mr. and Mrs. F. Grant, 84; Roche and Roche 81; MacLeod and Forsythe 80; Gleason and King 76; Tulle and Atkins 74; North and South: Green and Rogers 91; Hines and Duffy 78; Coffin and Toombs 74; Larabee and Bell 72; Russell and Gaudet 71.

Mr. David L. Ellis, Hamilton, Ontario, New home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ellis, Summerside East, for his vacation. David is a designing draftsman for the combined companies of Essex Cabinet Makers and Capital Quality Homes. He will be returning to Hamilton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland O'Connor, accompanied by their three children, Carol, Robert and Brenda, have returned to Providence, Rhode Island, after visiting Mr. O'Connor's father, W. Emmett O'Connor of Kildare, and Mrs. O'Connor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laughlin, Sherbrooke.

The Women's Institute of Centre Queens No. 1, District headquarters awarded scholarship of $50 each to the students in their area attaining the highest marks in the Grade Ten provincial examinations.

Wayne Church, a student from Sherwood, received the scholarship from schools of two or more classrooms. Wayne is the son of W.O. F.B. Church, R.C.A.P., Naino, Alberta. The Church family resided several years in Sherwood and recently moved to Alberta.

Robert Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Thompson, North Milton, was the recipient of the scholarship from one-roomed schools.

The convention area includes the following schools: East Royalty, West Royalty, Parkville, Sherwood, South Windloe, Brackley, North Milton, South Milton, Harrington, Brackley Point and Springville.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. Barrett spent the Labor Day weekend in Dartmouth, N.S., visiting his mother, Mrs. M. J. Barrett, and Mrs. A.A. Allen, whose daughter Jocelyn Victoria celebrated her fourth birthday.

Mrs. Frank L. Dillon, Charlottetown, has given her sisters, Mrs. M.C. Hutchinson of Calgary, Alta.; Mrs. M.H. Canning, Jamaica Plain, U.S.A.; and her nephew, Robert Canning, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hogg and family have returned to Virginia after visiting with Dr. Hogg's mother, Mrs. W. H. Hogg, Brighton Road and at her summer home in Grand Terrace, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McInnis and family returned recently to their home in Ottawa after spending a two week holiday on the island. They were the guests for a week at the home of Mrs. McInnis's sister, Mrs. Richard Hogan, Cumberland St., City. They also spent a week at Mr. McInnis's home in North Lake with his mother and two brothers.

Maggie Morris Has Successful Announcer Role

TORONTO (CP)—When Margaret Morris first read a news-cast over CBC radio last May, more than a dozen men called the station wanting to know what had happened.

Now they have become accustomed to Maggie's voice, reading the news and sports, filling in for vacationing disc jockeys and conducting her own record show once a week.

A once antagonistic male wrote recently to say he thought she was doing well. And her superiors are pleased with the first woman announcer they have hired in a decade.

Maggie, who says she hates Marie Curie because that's what her name is called in England) is no novice in the radio and television field.

She made her debut in Winnipeg 10 years ago, she worked in Little Theatre and radio drama, and after moving to Toronto she worked for Mrs. J.E. Fleming at the University of Toronto. She has since worked on Tuesday afternoons as the news reader for the station, and her duties are acute at this time.

The new director, Rev. William Simpson was welcomed by the president and asked to speak to the members. Fabert Simpson stressed the renewal which is taking place in the church, not only for the people but for the people as well as the apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

He stressed the National Catholic Council in Canada, the official organization of the Catholic Church in Canada; he encouraged the ladies to bring in more members and make them welcome. He concluded by leading the closing prayer.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

On TV PANEL She also did interviews for a variety television program, played the role of a housewife for the National Film Board and visited the homes of armament time signal for a personality or aspects affecting all apostolic groups. He advised study to have better appreciation of the Eucharistic Liturgy.

In 1962, Maggie brought her children - Glennie, 11, and Jane, 8½ - to Toronto where she hoped to find a vacancy on the "Open House," an afternoon woman's show.

She ended up as a panelist on the quick program Flashback to which she'll return when her summer announcing stint ends.

MAKING COURSE

Miss Marilyn McCullam, a recent graduate of the Charlottetown Hospital's School of Nursing, has received a bursary from the Provincial Department of Health enabling her to take a post-graduate course in psychiatric nursing at McGill University. Miss McCullam, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. McCullam, left for Montreal Tuesday morning.

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

Sept. 15. Although a pioneer in a field largely reserved for men, Maggie stresses she is not a militant feminist.

"I am working for the sole and simple reason I have myself and two children to support."

But the little brunette who dashes through CBC corridors calling everybody "sweetie" describes her work as "awfully good fun."

MR. AND MRS. EVERETT WHITE

Young Couple Honeymoon At Niagara Falls, Ontario

Roses and mums decorated, nylon organza over satin, she entered the church on the arm of her father. A portrait necklace topped the fitted bodice which had full length organza skirt extended from the back of the waist into a train effect. A rose centered crown of pearls held the shoulder length nylon tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and her jewelry was a single strand of pearls and tiny pearl earrings, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Donna Moutreux as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Shirley White, sister of the groom, and Miss Sharon White. Each was given a gift in a street length of blue crystal organza