THE Governor General's cup for General Efficiency, won last year for the third time in succession by No. Battery G. A., Captain Moore commanding, has arrived. It is a beautiful specimen of the jeweler's handicraft, and will no doubt be highly prized by the banner artillery company of the Dominion.

IT is a notorious fact that Government Pond is in a disgraceful state. We consider it is bad enough at the best; but with the water drawn off, it is abominable. In view of the jubilee celebration and the arrival of H. M. S. Canada, the City authorities will do well to have its putridity and ugliness covered up for the time being at least.

MISS JENNIE MCGARRY, at the request of several ladies and gentlemen, will give a few appropriate readings and lessons in elocution to the school children, on Saturday afternoon, at 2.30 in the Y. M. THE following communication was received yesterday by His Worship the Mayor:—

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, June 23, 1887.

Hon. T. H. Haviland, Mayor and Chairman Jubilee Committee.

MY DEAR SIR,—I have received the following telegram from the Admiral dated 23rd, (Halifax):

"The Canada will arrive Charlottetown twenty-ninth. Please inform Jubilee Committee. Yours sincerely,

A. A. MACDONALD.

ABOUT half past ten o'clock last night a large bottle of chemicals exploded in the rear apartment of the Apothecaries Hall. The marble top of the table upon which the bottle was placed was smashed, as was also the scales, bottles, etc., in the apartment. Panes were also broken out. In the outer store many of the shelves were emptied of their contents, the show case was broken and several of the large plate glass panes of the show window were smashed. The exploding chemicals set fire to some of the furniture in the store; but the flames were promptly extinguished. The noise of the explosion was distinctly heard in the Royalty, and many of the houses in the neighborhood were shaken. The fire bell was sounded once or twice. The proprietor had left the store only a few minutes before the explosion. Mr. Hughes estimates his loss at about $800; no insurance.

THE Guardian and Patriot prefer a serious charge against "the parties who put the fence around St. Peter's Church." If the fence around St. Peter's Church, if the city has suffered, or if it is likely to suffer, any damage on account of the alleged "encroachment," the matter is one to be investigated. We are informed that the new fence was placed on a line laid down under the authority and superintendence of the City Surveyor, and that it is directly in line with the street fence on the neighboring property. Before the new fence was put up, there was an ugly "jog" in the street, but now the line of the street is straight, and the City Surveyor claims much improved. As the street is upwards of seventy feet in width, we do not think the public is likely to suffer much, on account of the alleged "encroachment." The street is now, however, actually wider opposite St. Peter's Church than it is at a block further north; and it has not yet been decided that the land included by the City Surveyor is not the rightful property of St. Peter's Church.

LONDON, Ont., June 23.

As a C. P. R. train was crossing the bridge over a ravine at Thorndale last evening, both ends simultaneously gave way. The train, which was going slowly at the time, promptly stopped just as it reached the centre of the bridge. The train men tried to repair the damage but failed. Meantime rigs were procured and the passengers driven to Thorndale. The break was owing to the action of recent heavy rains. At last accounts the train was still on the bridge.

Miss McGarry—in Y. M. C. A. Hall.

MISS JENNIE MCGARRY is a genuine artist. The audience in Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening enjoyed, in her readings, a very delightful treat. Our only regret is that a greater number had not the rare pleasure of hearing her. Her rendition of "Nora and the Spirits," "The Leap Year Wooing" and "The Man of the World" was humorous in the highest and best sense, eliciting hearty laughter and applause. On the other hand, her reading of the pathetic selections proved equally effective in exciting the opposite emotions and drawing forth the sympathetic tear. Miss McGarry is an accomplished elocutionist, possessing a good presence, fine sensibility and very rare histrionic power. Her entertainment was last evening varied by the again this evening—pleasantly varied by the songs of Mrs. Lear, who sings to the piano accompaniment of Mr. Lear. Mrs. Lear won a well deserved encore. She is certainly an excellent and popular vocalist. We hope to see a large audience at the Y. M. C. A. this evening, and confidently recommend the entertainment as thoroughly enjoyable.

Miss McGarry has, we understand, consented to give a reading for the benefit of the children, on Saturday afternoon, with some remarks on elocution. Parents who wish their children to read well, and to appreciate good reading, should make it a point to be sure that they are present.

The steamer Worcester sailed last evening for Boston, with a large cargo of eggs, potatoes and other produce, and the following passengers: Mr. Thomas Knight, Miss S. Walsh, Mrs. McQuarrie, Mrs. Connolly, Miss Connolly, Joseph McDonald, Wm. McDonald, Edward Carr, E. McKim, J. McDonald, Mrs. Edwards, James McDonald, Miss Mitchell, P. Perry, J. Campbell, E. B. McPhail, A. McKim, Mrs. Cunningham, Miss McDonald, F. J. Moore.

N. B. AND P. E. ISLAND CONFERENCE—MONDAY MORNING—FIFTH DAY.

MARYSVILLE, June 20.

After singing and prayer by Mr. H. Rackham and Rev. J. V. Jost, some routine business was disposed of.

The Conference then proceeded to the order of the day. Mr. A. C. Bell, B. A., B. S. T., and Mr. Robert W. J. Clements were examined and passed a satisfactory examination. Conference agreed to receive them into full connection and to ordain them.

Dr. Pickard presented the report from the Superannuated Fund Committee. The following are the receipts:—

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes St. John District ($180 71), Fredericton (150 87), Miramichi (87 42), Sackville (146 42), St. Stephen (53 15), P. E. Island (190 00), Total ($808 00).

being an increase of $109 over last year, but only reaching $7.83 per member, instead of the minimum sum of ten cents per member.

Conference adjourned till benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Prayer by Rev. A. E. LePage. After confirming journal, a telegram from Moncton Quarterly Board was received, asking Conference to meet there next year. It was decided to accept the invitation.

SUSTENTATION FUND.

This matter came up in the regular order of the day. A recommendation came up from a committee charged with this matter. The resolutions were:—

1. That the object of the Sustentation scheme be the formation of a fund to augment the salaries of our ministers and preachers on domestic missions.

2. That the sources of income for this fund shall be:—

1. A collection taken up at a public meeting to be held for the advocacy of the fund at the principal preaching places on each circuit or domestic missions.

2. Subscriptions, donations and legacies.

3. That arrangements be made by the financial district meetings to hold such meetings.

4. That the fund shall be under the control of a Conference committee, composed of one minister and one layman from each district meeting.

5. Resolved that the Conference committee appoint a sub-committee of six of its members to distribute the fund according to the basis of estimated receipts.

There was a great deal of discussion on various points, in which the following among others took part: Dr. Stewart, Mr. J. M. Hood, Rev. G. Steel, H. P. Cowperthwaite, Dr. Pickard, S. W. Sprague, but the resolutions as above were finally carried.

After transacting some matters of routine, Conference adjourned with benediction from the Secretary.

ORDINATION

of Mr. A. C. Bell and Mr. Robert J. W. Clements, both of P. E. Island.

In the evening the above named gentlemen were ordained for the ministry. There was a large audience. Rev. R. Wilson conducted the service. On the platform were Dr. Stewart, G. H. Paisley, A. M., Henry Daniel and J. Shenton. After singing the Rev. H. Daniel led in prayer.

The candidates recited their religious experiences and calls to the ministry. The choir then sang "How beautiful upon the mountains." The following clergymen took part in the laying on of hands: Revs. R. Wilson, C. H. Paisley, A. M., Dr. Stewart, H. Daniel, S. W. Sprague, R. Wilson, Job Shenton and E. Evans. After giving each of them a bible and saying "Take thou authority to preach the gospel and administer the sacraments in the churches," Dr. Stewart delivered the charge.

He took for his text, "Make sure of your ministry, or as the revised edition gives it, 'fulfill your ministry.'" You are called to be ministers of Christ. You must live in communion with God. You not only need to be men of sense, but to be gentlemen in your habits. Walk in the light of God's countenance. You will be watched. Do not live in a family without exercising a Christian influence. Live alone to God. Watch, stand fast in the faith. Quit you like men. Be strong. Study God's word. Bring forth things new and old. Do not gather together scraps or poetic figures. Let the word of God dwell in you richly. "Live and move and have your being in God." You must deal with the conscience in preaching. You are to be holy men and to make others holy. Give attention to pastoral work. Deal kindly with all, but especially with the sick and the poor and the children. Train the members of your church to work. In our churches there is a vast amount of material going to waste. In early Methodist every man had his work. Be men of prayer and of power. Do not get into the habit of repeating what you preached three or ten or twelve years ago. Give attention to our Connectional Funds. Explain them to our people. Christ was not afraid of speaking about giving. "It is more blessed to give than to receive." You must fight against the great cursed liquor traffic. Stand up among your fellowmen as witnesses for Jesus. Love and honor your brethren. Preach repentance. Do not neglect christian perfection. Do not read your sermons but preach them. For common people there is no need of M. S. S. You may be preachers of the 20th century. Take care of your health. If you arise early and do not sit up too late, and give attention to pastoral duties, and do not stay too long in your studies, you can preserve your health. God bless you, a thousand times, God bless you, and may He make you soul saving men. The service, which was most interesting, was brought to a close by the President giving the benediction.

Bounty of the Princess Louise.

THE Lady Superiors of the Charlottetown Hospital is in receipt of a case of medicine, together with stretchers, etc., together with the following explanatory letter from the Deputy-Minister of Militia and Defence:—

DEPARTMENT OF MILITIA AND DEFENCE, OTTAWA, 17th June, 1887.

REVEREND SISTER,—When the Militia of Canada were suddenly called upon for active operations in the field, for the suppression of the Northwest Rebellion in 1885, Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, with characteristic generosity, forwarded for their use a quantity of medical and surgical stores and appliances, which proved of the greatest service at the time, but of which a considerable remnant was returned to store in consequence of the prompt and speedy way in which our troops put an end to the rising.

The Princess has now given a further proof of her goodness and the kind interest that she takes in the Dominion, by directing the distribution of the residue of such stores among the principal hospitals of this country.

The Minister of Militia and Defence therefore, on behalf of Her Royal Highness, requests your acceptance, for the use of the Hospital under your control, of the box, &c., which accompany this letter, and for the receipt of which your acknowledgment is requested.

I have the honor to be, Reverend Sister, Your obedient servant,

HUGH ANET, Deputy Minister of Militia and Defence.

Reverend Sister St. Paschal, Superiress Charlottetown Hospital, Charlottetown, P. E. I.
