

Dunlops Trip Canucks 6-2; Another Win Means Cup

TORONTO (CP)—Whitby Dunlops came from behind Friday night to defeat Vernon Canadians 6-2 and move to within one victory of the Allan Cup.

A win in the fourth game here tonight will give the Dunlops a sweep of the best-of-seven series and their second Canadian amateur senior hockey championship in three years.

The Dunlops, world amateur champions last year, were led by right-winger Sandy Air and centre Jack Kane, who each bagged two goals. Right-winger George Samolienko, returning to the lineup after a one-game absence, and defenceman Ted O'Connor scored one each.

Right-winger Jim Moro and defenceman Harry Smith were the snipers for Vernon, 1956 Allan Cup champs, who lost the first two games of the present series by identical 5-2 scores Sunday and Wednesday.

Unlike the previous games, Canadians carried the play at the start of Friday night's contest and had a 1-0 lead going into the second period on the strength of Moro's goal four minutes after the start of the game.

Over 40 Boxers To Trade Punches

TORONTO (CP)—More than 40 boxers will trade punches this weekend in search of Canadian titles and a berth on the Canadian team for the Pan American Games.

Preliminaries and semi-final bouts in 10 title events will be fought today with the championship finals Monday night at the annual Lions Club boxing night at Toronto's Palace Pier.

Ontario entries dominate the cards with 21 boxers. The list also includes eight from Quebec, four from British Columbia, three from Alberta and five Canadian Army champions.

Top interest centres on the featherweight division in which Gabby Mancini, 18-year-old Montrealer, is a favorite. He was Canadian champion at the age of 16 but was unable to defend the title a year ago because of illness.

His opposition includes Grant O'Reilly of Oshawa, Willy Schell of British Columbia and Pte. Allen Steele of the Royal Canadian Regiment at London, Ont., who originally comes from Reserve Mines, N.S.

The middleweight division is expected to produce some excitement with Robert Peel, 20, of Windsor Mills, Que., seeking his third straight title. He has never lost a fight in Canada and was beaten only at the British Empire Games.

Gord Mullins of Toronto and Vince Valvasori of Hamilton are bidding to dethrone Peel.

Lindsay Lindmeyer of British Columbia, a former United States open lightweight champion, is favored in the light heavyweight division. Gunner Jim King, 25, from Glace Bay, N.S., will provide the opposition.

ONE OF AMERICA'S greatest baseball cities is getting disgusted about the way things are going.

Detroit Tigers have won one game in ten starts and the folks in the Motor City are really fed up. They have indeed been a patient lot and nobody dare accuse them of jumping too fast. They've been waiting patiently for 'next year' a long time now 'next year' just never seems to come.

THIS CITY has seen some really great ball clubs in its day. There were the Tigers of 1934 that carried St. Louis Cardinals to the full seven games before admitting defeat. One year later, the Briggs Stadium occupants went all the way beating Chicago Cubs in six games in the annual fall classic.

The Bengals were right back again five years later representing the American League in the October baseball show. That was the year the Tigers staged the sensational September drive to nip Cleveland's 'cry baby' Indians.

Cincinnati Reds won the world series but once again the Detroiters forced the series to the seven-game limit.

In 1945, Detroit captured the world championship in a thrilling seven-game battle with Chicago Cubs. The year before Detroit and St. Louis Browns were tied entering the final day of the regular schedule. But old Dutch Leonard beat the Tigers that Sunday afternoon while the Browns were topping the New York Yankees. That gave the Browns the right to meet St. Louis Cardinals in the 1944 series.

SO YOU CAN readily see that the Tigers have been accustomed to better things. These past few years they have had a pretty fair looking club on paper but nothing seemed to click. They always get away to a horrible start and then take about half the year to get straightened away. By that time it's a lost cause and the fans are advised to wait till 'next year.'

When Bill Norman succeeded Jack Tighe in mid-season in 1958, things brightened up for a couple of weeks. It looked like Norman might be the fellow to put some fight into the club. It was only a flash in the pan and things soon got back to normal.

There were many who were expecting these Tigers to really show their teeth this season. They figured the Bengals would become clawing, enough at least to get them into second place behind the New York Yankees.

However, to date they have been the tamest kind of Tigers, refusing to get aroused no matter how hard they were provoked.

It's indeed a pity that something wouldn't start them snarling.

ONE SPORT COLUMNIST in speaking of Chicago Cubs claims the Bob Scheffing crew "can go as far as their pitching will take them, or finish as low as their power hitters let them."

In 1958 the Cubs finished in a tie for fifth, but only a game out of seventh place. This season their young pitchers will have to come through if they are to get out of the second division for the first time in 13 years.

Chicago's leading man, of course, is still Ernie Banks. Behind him is a good supporting cast of long ball hitters like Walt Moryn, Dale Long, Bobby Thomson and Lee Walls. Among them they drove in 455 runs last year. Banks, the league's most valuable player and home run king, accounted for 129 of them. However, none of the others produced fewer than 72.

MANAGER SCHEFFING feels his mound corps has fine potential. But he doesn't maintain the potential will be realized this year.

Southpaw Taylor Phillips is the dean of the staff at 25. Then there are two pretty fair hurlers in Drabowsky and Dick Drott. Both righthanders, they won 28 games between them in 1957 but last season the total slumped to a mere 16. But Drabowsky looked plenty good Thursday when he beat St. Louis Cardinals on a 5-hitter.

SCHEFFING IS LOOKING for a better year from Phillips but so far the southpaw obtained from Milwaukee Braves hasn't picked up a victory. He has been beaten twice the last time by the Cardinals and Vinegar Bend Mizell on Wednesday afternoon.

However young Glen Hobbie who was 10-6 last season could prove quite the moundsman this season. Tuesday he threw a one-hitter at the St. Louis gang and that is certainly a fine afternoon's work.

Chief of the bullpen is Don Elston who had a fine 2.88 ERA in 1958.

THERE'S VERY LITTLE CHANCE of watching Chicago Cubs in the world series this fall. However, these same Cubs will likely have a lot to say regarding who does represent the senior circuit in baseball's greatest spectacle.

Chicago has real power that has capabilities of exerting itself at any given time. When that power does start showing up, the club that happens to be the opponent is in for a rough afternoon or evening.

And with fellows like Drott, Drabowsky, Hobbie and Hillman reaching anything near their peak, opposition batters will not find the going any too easy.

NEW YORK YANKEES still trail the Cleveland Indians but that isn't causing too much worry in the Bomber's camp.

A fellow by the name of Whitey Ford pitched fourteen innings of scoreless ball Wednesday night at Washington as the Yankees edged the Senators 1-0 on Bill Skowron's four base blast.

Whitey struck out fifteen Nationals in his superb performance and his great show gaddened the hearts of Casey Stengel and all Yankee supporters. Any worries about Ford's arm must certainly have disappeared after that marathon. You just don't do that kind of a chore if you're not 100 per cent.

Other American League teams have their notice now. Ford is right and when he is there's bound to be trouble for the opposition.

Batters had better start preparing for the worst. This fellow Whitey can be pure poison.

Giants Edge Cubs 4-3

CHICAGO (AP)—San Francisco Giants, kept in the running on a perfect throw to home plate in the ninth inning by Felipe Alou which cut off what would have been the winning run, scored a 4-3 National League victory over Chicago Cubs Friday on Darrel Spencer's 11th-inning sacrifice fly.

A single by Orlando Cepeda, a double by Alou and Spencer's sacrifice fly ended what turned into a shabby contest after a great pitching duel between Johnny Antonelli of the Giants and Dave Hillman of Chicago.

Antonelli and Hillman were locked in a 1-1 tie when the Giants scored two runs in the eighth. Searching for his fourth victory against no defeats, southpaw Antonelli had a four-hitter going until he walked the Chicago leadoff man in the ninth. Manager Bill Rigney yanked him in favor of Al Worthington but the strategy backfired as the Cubs tied the score 3-3. Alou's perfect throw to the plate came when Alvin Dark tried to score on Ernie Banks' single which had brought home the tying run.

Stu Miller who relieved Worthington in the ninth was the winning pitcher.

Pirates Beat Phillies 8-5

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Smoky Burgess doubled home a pair of ninth inning runs enabling Pittsburgh to beat the Philadelphia Phillies 8-5 after the Pirates had blown an early four run lead at Connie Mack Stadium Friday night.

Trailing 5-4 as they came to bat in the ninth the Pirates scored four runs of relief pitchers Al Schroll and Dick Farrell. Bill Virdon and Bob Clemente singled and Burgess rifled his two bagger off the rightfield wall. Dick Stuart then singled sending Dick Schofield, running for Burgess to third. A sacrifice fly scored Schofield and a wild pitch and single by Bill Mazeroski scored Stuart.

Earlier, Pittsburgh had taken a 4-0 lead on Dick Stuart's two run homer in the first and a two run third inning fashioned on three singles sandwiched around an error by shortstop Granny Hamner.

Don Jordan Retains Title; Gains Decision Over Akins

ST. LOUIS (AP)—World welterweight champion Don Jordan, stunned in the second round, rallied viciously to score a unanimous 15-round decision over former champion Virgil Akins and retain his title in a bruising rematch Friday night.

Akins, disappointing a home crowd, twice buckled Jordan's knees in the second round and then succumbed to the swift attack of the youthful Los Angeles champion, making his first title defence.

The crowd boomed lustily at the finish of the match which had marked similarity to the Dec. 5 one in Los Angeles when Jordan dethroned 31-year-old Akins over the 15-round route.

Referee Harry Kessler called it the closest, voting for the 24-year-old Jordan 70-66 under the five-point must scoring system. Judge Fred Connell called it for Jordan 70-66 and judge Howard Hess voted for the champion 71-60.

SIZZLING AT START Akins started as though he meant to make short work of the agile Jordan. He banged away with sizzling body shots in the first round.

The, in the second, Akins exploded with a right to the chin which buckled Jordan's knees. With the crowd roaring in anticipation of a knockout, Akins whistled another right to the chin which shook the champion. Akins continued his furious attack in the third round but then slowly ran out of power.

Jordan, bleeding at the nose as the third round ended, began to score with left-right combinations. By the fifth, the pace had slowed both fighters considerably but the younger Jordan had much more stamina than the 31-year-old Akins.

By the seventh round, Jordan was in command of the fight. He would lash away with a series of left jabs and then score with lusty lefts and rights. Akins began bleeding from the nose in this round.

In his dressing room, Jordan said he had fought with a badly-bruised right hand after the second round. He was to be taken to a hospital for examination of the injury. Jordan said the injury was not enough to make him quit. Jordan said the injury was not enough to make him quit.
