Committee Votes To Back Helfand

CHICAGO, (AP)—The executive committee of the National Boxing Association voted Saturday to back Julius Helfand's smashing of the New York Boxing Managers' Guild but took no stand on that group's parent organization, the International Boxing Guild. The action in a regularly scheduled meeting of 14 representatives from commissions in nine states promised "full support" of the New York State commission's activity, although that group is not an NBA member. In a three-part resolution, the executive committee took measures to prevent any jumping to another state by a boxing figure denied a New York licence and agreed to uphold "all suspensions and revocations" by any NBA member "for any state in the country." NBA President Lou Radtinda said there was no consideration given the International Boxing Guild's status and its members would be given licences on the basis of qualification.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Frank Shea, 33, veteran right handed pitcher who started with New York Yankees in the 1927 World Series, was released unconditionally Saturday by the Washington Nationals.

PRECIOUS NAIL
 LONDON (CP) — Lady Strathcona, chairman of a ball at a London hotel, showed guests what she called the "Family Nail," a large diamond brooch with a small iron nail in the middle. She said it was the "original last nail" driven in the Canadian Pacific Railway by the first Lord Strathcona. It now is a family heirloom.
