LETTERS TO EDITOR.

Ward One Meeting.

Quite a number of electors of Ward 1 met in McEachern's Building last evening to discuss civic politics and nominate a councillor for coming civic election.

Jouncillor Eden occupied the chair. In opening the meeting he referred to the statements through the press claiming the city has a deficit of $700. This, he explained, was owing to the fact that the coupons, which had not yet been presented were charged in the accounts. According to this style of reckoning, the last year would have ended with a deficit of $2000. He thought the monies for the year had been judiciously expended, especially in the macadamizing of the Streets. Mr. Eden declared his intention of retiring, and did not wish to be re-elected.

Mr. D. Nicholson thought there was not much fault to find with Mr. Morris and Mr. Eden. They had worked things on the same system as their predecessors. We should not be fault-finding with men who worked for the city without any fee. Mr. David Small nominated Charles Lyons Esq. as a candidate for civic honors.

Mr. S. Bolger in seconding the nomination spoke approvingly of the conduct of Councillors Morris and Eden and the necessity of a councillor paying particular attention to the streets of Ward 1. as they have the principal traffic of the town. Mr. G. Foster supported the resolution and spoke at some length of the necessity of all the councillors working in unison to secure the best results in the interests of the city.

Mr. Lyons thanked the meeting for the honor done him but declined nomination.

As the meeting was not largely attended (owing to the shortness of notice) it was decided to adjourn till Monday evening at 8 o'clock that a better representation might be obtained.

REMEMBER the clearing out sale of boots and shoes at Stampers' Corner. The shop has to be vacated for building purposes. Now is the time to get bargains in fine boots, overshoes, slippers, &c., as the stock must be sold. R. K. Jost.—41 Feb 1.

SUMMERSIDE NEWS.

THE American Consul had the Stars and Stripes floating at half-mast yesterday, the day appointed for the burial of Prince Victor.

A grand public temperance rally will be held to-night in the Market Hall. This promises to be one of the most interesting meetings on the temperance question held in our town for a long time. A new and attractive innovation, which shows advance thought in making gatherings of this nature interesting, is shown by the programme, which is arranged on the principal of an entertainment. Speeches by prominent men will not at all times bring together and hold a mixed audience an hour or two on the temperance question without becoming prosy to some. This fact is now entirely overcome by the improved idea of introducing songs, recitations and instrumental music from the best talent obtainable, along with short, interesting speeches on this great subject. Another feature in connection is the "Corus" Band, which is always a drawing card. No entrance fee is charged and there is no doubt this will be the monster gathering of this year.

A GRAND musical treat greeted the audience at the Y. P. L. S. concert, on Tuesday night. Although the evening came on with a wild blustering storm, quite a number of people put in an appearance and were far from being sorry at facing the weather. Had the evening been fine there is no doubt the Market Hall would have been filled with well-pleased patrons as the Y. P. L. S. has gained a well-earned reputation in the past for arranging the entertainments so that the best local talent is brought before the public to please and edify. The first to be observed on entering the hall was the tasty manner in which the stage was decorated with large spruce trees. Sharp on time Prof. Earle took his seat at the piano and drew forth sweet strains of melody, followed next by the Presbyterian choir in a piece called "Mountain Lund." The above choir has been under the instruction of Mr. A. L. Rice for sometime, and it can be said of a truth, the improvement was noticeable both in the voices and time. A quartette "Dancing o'er the waves" by Misses McSween and Caldwell and Messrs McKinnon and Caldwell was well rendered. "Life's dream is over" by Miss Earle and Mr. F. Davies was sweetly sung, showing a harmony and blending of voices that is somewhat unusual to hear from our stages. A strong encore brought back Mr. Davies only who sang "Marguerite," following again, according to programme, with "Tell her I love her so" for which he received considerable applause. A change in the programme was now made, owing to Mr. L. Morris being indisposed with a cold. Mr. H. Walker filled the vacancy with a bass solo entitled the "Tempest." The "Little Farm" a comic trio by Messrs Walker, McKinnon and Rice was heartily applauded. Mr. R. D. Rice who has a strong melodious voice was next to appear in a bass solo entitled "Nelson." He was called back and for the encore gave the "Skipper." One half of the programme was concluded with a male chorus of eleven voices in "Comrades to Arms." Mr. Knight with his clarinet accompanied by Mr. Earle on the piano played several fine selections which were highly appreciated. "Oh hush thee" by the choir was "silly good." A duet by the Rice Brothers, "On to the field of glory" was finely rendered. These gentlemen possess rich powerful voices of great compass harmonizing splendidly. They may well feel proud of voices that are sure to infuse spirit into any audience. A rapid encore brought them to the front with a verse from "Mother's Bible." A glee by the choir "You stole my love" was nicely sung. The twelfth selection by Miss Earle who is a favorite on our stage was "The Star of Bethlehem," a serio-comic song. She received a strong encore and rendered "Daddy" with considerable pathos. A reading by Mrs. D. Stewart, selected from James Russel Lowell's works, came next. Mrs. Stewart displayed no mean elocutionary power. Her selection, "Forlorn," required a pathetic touch, which she was quite able to give it. Mr. Earle's piano solo and his rendering of Scotch airs infused life into the audience, and soon a few thoughtless feet were beating time. Loud applause brought him back and he kindly thanked the assembly, but thought it would be better for Mr. A. L. Rice to give a solo instead. Mr. Rice responded with the piece of the evening "Auldree" showing him to be undoubtedly one of the leading singers in this province, with a voice clear as a bell that could fairly shake the building. Mr. Rice received a vociferous encore to which he sang "The Old Man's Song," a medley of comic songs, at the same time playing his own accompaniment. This piece created considerable amusement. A male chorus with Mr. Turner as solist in "Slumber Soft" was exceedingly good. The deep round voices blending with good effect. The finale chorus, an "Evening Flyn" solo, by Miss Brown, with full choir chorus, was good. Miss Annie McSween accompanied the choir choruses on the Piano throughout the Programme and deserves special mention for her skilful playing. God save the Queen was the signal for retiring and the audience dispersed quite satisfied with the evening's performance. The sum of $50 was realized at the door.

THE importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is inherited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing elusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes eczema, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.
