

The Queen's Birthday

Presently we come to our first anniversary holiday! How hearts already beat high in anticipation. It seems we have waited so long...

She reigned for 63 years, all the while fulfilling a promise of childhood uttered when she first saw the world...

ELEANOR ROSS

What Do Your Windows Say About Your Home?

Windows tell a story. They can reflect the community in which we live, the type of family...

EASILY WASHED Today, home-makers can wash almost any variety of window decoration in a matter of minutes...

COATED WITH PLASTIC Vertical slats are a bit different but they have been designed for quick and easy care...

WASH REVERSE SIDE Try a soft sponge or brush shaken from dense soap or detergent...

PATTERN A 718 by William Fox PROMINENT DESIGNER William Fox Originals need no introduction to the woman who wears exclusive, custom designs!

WOMEN

Page 8, The Guardian Sat., May 19, 1956

HAPPENINGS

Miss Elaine Mutch whose marriage to Mr. Gerald Raymond Foster is taking place on Monday morning...

The business girls of the Charlottetown Curling Club entertained on Wednesday evening, May 9th...

On Friday evening, Mrs. John P. Nicholson and Mrs. T.N. Rogers were hostesses at a supper bridge for Miss Mutch and Mr. Foster...

Mrs. Donald Martin and Miss Joyce Coffin entertained during the week at a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Martin, Pownall Street...

On Saturday afternoon, May 12th, Mrs. W.R. MacNeill and Mrs. Wendell H. Worth entertained at the tea hour at 185 Euston Street...

Mrs. Ralph Dumont was hostess on Thursday evening at her home, 129 Brighton Road, honouring the bride and groom at a mixed evening bridge...

Friday evening, Mrs. W.W. Mutch, mother of the bride, entertained at dinner at her home, 104 School Street, for the bridesmaids and girl friends of her daughter...

On May 3, Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Beck were hosts to seventy-five of their church friends at a cleverly arranged party, in honor of Harold Stewart and Margaret MacLure...

Friday evening, the attractive office nurse, while Mrs. LeRoy White and Mrs. Kenneth Norris cleverly portrayed in pantomime the nervous strain they were under at Dr. Stewart's first patients' a poem from Ralph Beck's facile pen and many congratulatory messages were read...

Ethel MacQuarrie, Shirley Beck, Marilyn Norris and Verna MacKinnon assisted. Mrs. Albert De-war, grandmother of the groom-to-be, presented to the bride elect, sandwiches and coffee, home made ice cream and cake were served...

The setting of Georgian Government House in Victoria Park with its magnificent view of Charlottetown Harbour was greatly admired by the guests and Countess of Home. They strolled for a long time, carping at the beauty of all this natural scenery, with the added loveliness of the formal Government House Gardens in the foreground...

On Monday, May 14th, following the graduation exercises, the Jr. League of the Charlottetown Hospital entertained the graduating class of 1956, their parents and friends in the nurses dining room of the Charlottetown Hospital...

The beautifully appointed tea tables were covered with lace cloths and centerpieces of flower baskets of white mums, flashed with silver candleabra and blue tapers. The rooms were tastefully decorated with baskets of mixed flowers...

Pouring were the President, Mrs. Reginald Mahar, Mrs. Percy MacDonald and Mrs. Reg. Cronin. Servers and replenishers were Mrs. Jack MacEachern, Mrs. John MacInnis, Miss Mary Cronin, Mrs. Carl MacKenna, Mrs. Angus MacEachern, Mrs. Henry Blanchard, Mrs. Bernard Hughes, Mrs. Jack MacCarville, Mrs. Vincent Pineau, Mrs. Chris Gallant, Mrs. Maurice MacAleer, Miss Emma Whalen and Mrs. Bryon Burns...

Convenors were Mrs. Joseph Gill, Miss Blanche Conway, Mrs. Ivan Laurie and Mrs. John MacInnis. Mrs. D.A. Citra, Fernie, B.C. is spending a month with her sisters, Mrs. Bob Clark and Miss Jean Nicholson, Summerside. An en route to the Island she spent two weeks in Montreal...

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Foster of Marshfield, arrived home on Tuesday evening from Sackville. There they had attended the Senior Music Recital, and the Gilbert and Sullivan opera "Patience," in each of which their daughter, Betty, a music student at Mt. Allison Conservatory of Music, took part...

Mrs. E.A. Large arrived Tuesday evening from California where she had been spending the winter. On her way home, Mrs. Large visited relatives and friends in Vancouver, Edmonton, and Swift Current, Saskatchewan...

Dr. and Mrs. W.C. Haines, Moncton, are the weekend guests of Mayor and Mrs. W.A. Currie, Summerside.

The nursing staff of the E.K.M. Hospital, Wolfville, entertained a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Edward Stewart in honor of Miss Betty Inman, who is to be a June bride. Miss Inman has been on the staff of this Hospital for the past year and recently returned to her home in St. Eleanors.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rogers entertained Friday evening at their residence 63 Goodwill Avenue in honour of their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Troop.

Friends of Mrs. G. M. Mulholland will regret to hear that she is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.

FO J.R. MacDonald, Winnipeg, is the guest of Mayor and Mrs. W.A. Currie, Summerside.

At the recent graduation exercises at St. Mary's Hospital, Montreal, Miss Barbara Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Dalton, was awarded a special prize for the most promising undergraduate nurse. She was also elected president of the student body.

Miss Mary Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thompson, Summerside, was awarded a prize at the convocation exercises at St. Francis Xavier University for having the highest aggregate of the freshman class.

The regular meeting of the Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held at the home of Mrs. Inez Gallant on Wednesday evening, May 16. Guest at the meeting was Mrs. John Hodgson, Fredericton, N.B. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jean Hornby, and Mrs. Velma Hooper.

On Tuesday, May 15th, Miss Marjorie Stewart, Greenfield Avenue, was hostess to all the groups competing in the Marathon Bridge held by the Earl of Hillsborough Chapter I.O.O.F. The lucky prize tinner for by Mr. W.A. Stewart, Honorary Regent of the Chapter, was won by Mrs. Carl Burke. The tallies for the evening and for the Marathon Bridge were also donated by the Faberge Company. First prize was won by Mrs. W.S. McMurtry and consolation by Mrs. Frank Johnston. Prizes for the winners of the Marathon Bridge were presented to Mrs. W.W. Reid and Mrs. W.A. Henry. A buffet lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Margaret McMillan.

CLYDE RIVER L.O.B.A.

The Clyde River L.O.B.A. was entertained at the home of Mrs. Harold Scott, Cornwall, on the April meeting and at the home of Mrs. Gordon MacKinnon, Clyde River for the May meeting. Both were well attended.

At both meetings after the business was finished, a social hour was enjoyed by all.

HARTSILLE W.M.S.

The May meeting of the Hartsille W.M.S. met in the hall. Call to Worship Psalm 103: 1-2 was read by president Mrs. E. Lamont, followed by prayer by Mrs. John A. MacInnis.

Theme for the meeting was "Mother". Scripture reading: 1:9-20: 24-28 was read responsively. Exposition of the lesson "A Godly Mother" was read by Mrs. Ben Cousins; followed by a season of prayer. After another hymn roll call was answered by 8 members with a verse of scripture containing the word "Mother". Minutes were read and approved. Correspondence was read by Sec. rel., Mrs. Duncan MacIntosh.

The Treasurer, Mrs. John A. MacInnis gave her report. Study book entitled "Low ceilings" was read by Mrs. James Nicholson. Mrs. John McLennan takes the book for next meeting, $2.00 was passed in for Home Helpers; $2.92 collection; $1.06 emergencies. Word for roll call for next meeting is "Thanks". Two members paid dues.

Meeting closed with a hymn and Mizpah benediction.

EMERALD W.I.

Mrs. G.C. Green was hostess to the Emerald Women's Institute at her home Tuesday evening, May 1st. The president presided. Meeting opened by singing "Institute Ode" followed by collect in unison. Roll call was answered by eleven members exchanging plant slips. Minutes of previous meeting were read and adopted.

Sick committee reported three calls on motion a bill of $1.85 was paid. Mrs. Alfred Sinnott and Mrs. Clayton Hughes were reappointed. Correspondence consisted of a letter from J.L. Dewar, secretary of Federation of Agriculture asking members to encourage their husbands to become members of the Federation. A letter from Mrs. J.A. Lawson, Prov. Pres. of C.A.C. was read. It was moved and seconded a $1.00 membership fee be sent for 10 monthly bulletins from C.A.C. A card of acknowledgement.

MISS PATSY SHAW who modelled at the Centennial Y's Menetics Fashion show wore this vivid blue cotton sateen with its touches of fagoting adding quaint charm to the tucked bibbed front. The dress seems just right for high school or cokes at the soda bar and has a youthful pointed collar with tiny bow. Patsy is wearing white pumps and what is her favorite record? GUARDIAN PHOTO

HEALTH NURSE HONORED—Mrs. Elaine Murray, R.N., health nurse for Livermore Falls and surrounding communities, was honored by the Business and Professional Women's Club, this week. Mrs. Murray (right) is pictured above receiving a scroll in her honor from a fellow member, Mrs. Celia Tavote (left).

Former Island Nurse Is Women Of The Year

LIVERMORE FALLS, Maine—The Business and Professional Women of this town dedicated a program, this week, to Mrs. Elaine Murray, R.N., health nurse for Livermore Falls and surrounding communities. A handpainted hand-printed scroll, made by the sisters of the St. Rose of Lima School, was presented to her by a fellow member, Mrs. Mary Page, along with a cake dedicated to her, with the inscription on the top, "To Elaine Murray, Our BPW 'Woman of the Year'."

The scroll was inscribed as follows: "To Mrs. Elaine Murray, public health nurse of Livermore Falls and surrounding communities. ment was received from Mrs. Austin Murphy and family. An interesting letter from Mrs. Charles Jones convener of Ag. leulu was received. After some discussion it was decided to hold a pantry sale in Kensington in the near future. Mrs. G. C. Green, Mrs. Clayton Hughes, Miss Elsie Mayne and Mrs. Leland Mayne are on the committee for same. Two new members were welcomed. Collection amounted to 90 cents. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Leland Mayne, roll call to be answered by the name of your first school teacher. It was decided to have sale of remnants at June meeting. Meeting adjourned. Lunch was served by hostess.

After some discussion it was decided to hold a pantry sale in Kensington in the near future. Mrs. G. C. Green, Mrs. Clayton Hughes, Miss Elsie Mayne and Mrs. Leland Mayne are on the committee for same. Two new members were welcomed. Collection amounted to 90 cents. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Leland Mayne, roll call to be answered by the name of your first school teacher. It was decided to have sale of remnants at June meeting. Meeting adjourned. Lunch was served by hostess.

BRAZILIAN RUGS Brazil is the largest rug producer in South America, weaving all types of floor coverings.

COOK'S CORNER

SCOTCH CHEWS 1/2 cup white sugar 1-3 cup melted butter 2 cup rolled oats 1/4 tsp. salt 1/4 c.p. honey 1 tsp. vanilla Mix all together. Pack in a small pan and bake in a 350 oven about 30 minutes. Cut in squares.

MARY HAWORTH

Daughters Row Over Father's Marriage Plans

Dear Mary Haworth: I am one of three sisters, all in our thirties. The problem is that my two sisters are raising Cain because our widowed father, 57, is dating and may marry a nice lady near his age. He lives with me, and frankly I am very pleased to see him coming alive again, after mother's passing.

But my sisters can't bear the thought of another woman in father's arms. They fear that he will grow away from us; that the family will break up, etc. They have wept and said that he won't seem like their father any more. They can't understand why I feel as I do.

Dad has lived with me for three years and I will be glad to see him in a home of his own once more, with a wife to look after him. Then I won't have to worry about his health, plan and fix his meals and entertain him. The children will miss "Gramps"—but I know he is lonely, and marriage would be so much better for him, if his children are for it and wish him happiness.

CALL IT UNFAIR

However, my sisters think he should just go on living with me and my family, letting me do all the worrying and nursing when he is sick. They don't have any of that.

They say they can't go to his wedding, as they will be thinking of mother; that it isn't fair to her. But isn't it a good sign when a widower remarries? Doesn't it mean that his first marriage was happy? So isn't it a compliment to the departed? Had their partnership been unhappy he wouldn't think of trying again.

FUSSY SISTERS

Dear V.K.: Your friendly, even grateful response to the prospect of a nice new wife for your dad makes sense. It is a realistic attitude, which takes account of your good as well as his. Whereas your sisters' Cain-raising reaction is adolescent nonsense, unbecoming to their adult years.

All their arguments against dad's remarriage boil down to this—they are wholly preoccupied with self. They consider nobody's feelings but their own. They are concerned about dad's loneliness, nor their own household, nor their own well-being, nor their own multiplied burdens and worries, in trying to give him the care he needs.

They find it convenient to put dad on a shelf, as it were, and forget him—satisfied that there are they are they concerned with their own. They find it convenient to put dad on a shelf, as it were, and forget him—satisfied that there are they are they concerned with their own. They find it convenient to put dad on a shelf, as it were, and forget him—satisfied that there are they are they concerned with their own.

MEAN QUALITY

It is childish meanness on their part to claim they can't attend dad's wedding—if he decides to marry again—because they're grieving for mother. Very likely he misses her more than they do inasmuch as he and she had a life in common before they were born. Moreover, it is generally true, as you say, that widowers who were happy in their first alliance are most disposed to marry again. They are so conditioned to sympathetic teamwork as to be "lost" without it.

It is my view that children should be friendly, affirmative and loyal, in wishing a widowed parent "the very best" in the event he or she elects to marry again. M.H. or Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

When you buy MOLASSES be sure it's PURE Barbados

NOTICE OF EXAMINATIONS

Examination for registration and license by the Association of Nurses of Prince Edward Island will be held on Tuesday, July 17th, Wednesday, July 18th and Thursday, July 19th, 1956. The examination center will be Charlottetown.

Application forms must be presented at least 30 days prior to the date of examinations, together with fee.

MRS. J. E. VERNON BOLGER, R.N., Secretary-Registrar.

LET'S EAT

Sweets To Sweets

By Ida Jean Kala

To be sure, sweets are a treat for all of us. The problem arises when the desire for sweets becomes a craving, as in today's letter from a discouraged overweight.

"I am 31 years old, 5' 2", weigh 190. I have tried lots of pills along with diet, but can't lose. The pills don't cut my craving for sweets, and I find it hard to stick to a diet when the family eats ice cream, cake and candy in front of me.

"The trouble is I crave sweets. I find myself wanting sweets so badly, that if I haven't any in the house, I'll go to the kitchen and make something, and when it's done, sit and eat and eat. I don't really want to do this, but I can't seem to help myself. If I could resist this craving, I could reduce."

The irresistible desire for sweets is not just a mental desire, but is a physical reaction brought on by overeating on sweets. Here's the scientific explanation: Sweets furnish quickly absorbable sugar which rapidly forces the blood sugar level high, stimulating insulin production. Nature furnishes more insulin than is needed to take care of the sweet eaten. Since the sugar is quickly burned, you're left with extra insulin. This results in a lowering of the blood sugar...

hunger, and the cycle starts again. For this reason, the more sweets you eat, the more you want.

STAY WITH DIET Once you catch on to the fact that by indulging in sweets you trigger the powerful stimulus to insulin production, you'll understand what is back of the craving.

When you diet, you crave sweets for still another reason. For a while, the mechanism which the body has set up to handle the accustomed inflow of sugar is still in force. For this reason, when sweets are left out, blood sugar lowers and you feel a definite hankering. However, here's the key fact: If you stay with your diet, avoiding sweets, the stimulus to insulin production wanes and so does the craving.

To take your mind off forbidden foods and help nature help you out of your dilemma, get out of the house and away from the kitchen with all its temptations. If the family insists on rich desserts, plan a special low calorie treat for yourself or, after the main course, take your beverage into the living room. Don't go back into the kitchen for 30 minutes. By then you will feel satisfied.

A happy way to reduce is to join a slimming club, or get yourself a dieting pal... and reduce together. To make the going easier, concentrate on the rewards.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

The engagement has been announced of Miss Agnes Marie O'Donnell, daughter of Mrs. Arthur O'Donnell of Beaverbank, and the late Arthur O'Donnell, to Lieutenant Michael Kelly, Royal Canadian Navy, son of Mrs. Karl Kelly of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, and the late Karl Kelly. The wedding will take place June 2, at 9 o'clock in Saint Ignatius Church, Bedford, N.S.

Words Of The Wise

The most destructive criticism is indifference. —(E.W. Howe)

PLANT A HEDGE—ORDER NOW

PINK MONEYSUCKLE Lovely sweet smelling flowers—very hardy—fast growing. 18-inch size, 25 for $6.98 or 100 for $28.98.

PRIVET "Amurensis" variety, medium growth—the only hardy kind! 18-inch size, 25 for $3.98 or 100 for $18.98.

ROSA MULTIFLORA "Klartus" Hedge of "Hardy Roses"—2-ft. size, 25 for $3.98 or 100 for $18.98.

PEONY ROOTS Exhibition varieties in Red, White or Pink 3 for $2.98.

FREE THREE FALL FLOWERING ASTERS FOR EARLY ORDERS ALSO CANADA'S FINEST COLORED GARDEN GUIDE BROOKDALE-KINGSWAY NURSERIES BOWMANVILLE (Phone Day or Night, Market 3-3345) ONTARIO

MARY HAWORTH

Daughters Row Over Father's Marriage Plans

Dear Mary Haworth: I am one of three sisters, all in our thirties. The problem is that my two sisters are raising Cain because our widowed father, 57, is dating and may marry a nice lady near his age. He lives with me, and frankly I am very pleased to see him coming alive again, after mother's passing.

But my sisters can't bear the thought of another woman in father's arms. They fear that he will grow away from us; that the family will break up, etc. They have wept and said that he won't seem like their father any more. They can't understand why I feel as I do.

Dad has lived with me for three years and I will be glad to see him in a home of his own once more, with a wife to look after him. Then I won't have to worry about his health, plan and fix his meals and entertain him. The children will miss "Gramps"—but I know he is lonely, and marriage would be so much better for him, if his children are for it and wish him happiness.

CALL IT UNFAIR

However, my sisters think he should just go on living with me and my family, letting me do all the worrying and nursing when he is sick. They don't have any of that.

They say they can't go to his wedding, as they will be thinking of mother; that it isn't fair to her. But isn't it a good sign when a widower remarries? Doesn't it mean that his first marriage was happy? So isn't it a compliment to the departed? Had their partnership been unhappy he wouldn't think of trying again.

FUSSY SISTERS

Dear V.K.: Your friendly, even grateful response to the prospect of a nice new wife for your dad makes sense. It is a realistic attitude, which takes account of your good as well as his. Whereas your sisters' Cain-raising reaction is adolescent nonsense, unbecoming to their adult years.

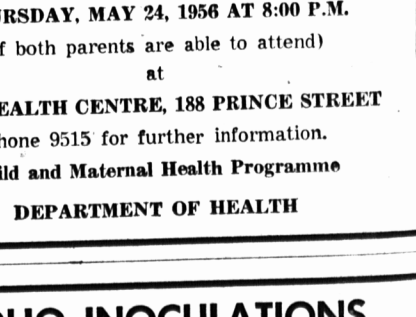

All their arguments against dad's remarriage boil down to this—they are wholly preoccupied with self. They consider nobody's feelings but their own. They are concerned about dad's loneliness, nor their own household, nor their own well-being, nor their own multiplied burdens and worries, in trying to give him the care he needs.

They find it convenient to put dad on a shelf, as it were, and forget him—satisfied that there are they are they concerned with their own. They find it convenient to put dad on a shelf, as it were, and forget him—satisfied that there are they are they concerned with their own.

MEAN QUALITY

It is childish meanness on their part to claim they can't attend dad's wedding—if he decides to marry again—because they're grieving for mother. Very likely he misses her more than they do inasmuch as he and she had a life in common before they were born. Moreover, it is generally true, as you say, that widowers who were happy in their first alliance are most disposed to marry again. They are so conditioned to sympathetic teamwork as to be "lost" without it.

It is my view that children should be friendly, affirmative and loyal, in wishing a widowed parent "the very best" in the event he or she elects to marry again. M.H. or Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

When you buy MOLASSES be sure it's PURE Barbados

NOTICE OF EXAMINATIONS

Examination for registration and license by the Association of Nurses of Prince Edward Island will be held on Tuesday, July 17th, Wednesday, July 18th and Thursday, July 19th, 1956. The examination center will be Charlottetown.

Application forms must be presented at least 30 days prior to the date of examinations, together with fee.

MRS. J. E. VERNON BOLGER, R.N., Secretary-Registrar.

THE CORNWALLIS HOTEL

7-11 HOLLIS ST. HALIFAX, N. S. A Good Moderately Priced, Friendly Hotel Fifty single and double comfortably furnished rooms with and without bath. Two minutes walk from Railway Station, Steamship Piers, Business and Theatrical District. Lunch Counter, Fruit, Magazines, Toiletries and Barber Shop in Hotel building. Free Parking.