HAPPENINGS

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell Driscoll entertained at their home at Mt. Herbert in honour of Senator and Mrs. J. J. MacDonald, prior to their departure for Ottawa.

Other guests included Mr. Heath MacQuarrie, M.P. Victoria, and Mrs. MacQuarrie and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew MacRae, East Royalty. Mrs. Driscoll was assisted by her niece, Miss Mary Roberts.

Mrs. A. G. Putnam returned last night from New York City where she has been visiting for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Banks, Halifax, have been on a short visit to the province and were the guests of Miss Jean Macmillan and Miss Marion Macmillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rogers have recently been in Brunswick, Georgia. They had visited the historic Burton Parish Church of Williamsburg, Virginia, in which many of the great American patriots of revolutionary days once worshipped.

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Frank, who have been in residence at the Queen Hotel for the winter months, have now returned to their home at Rosebank.

Mrs. Milton Dingwell and Miss Bertha McKie, who have been guests at the Regent Hotel for the winter months, have returned to their home in Fortune.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Horn of Calgary, who are on a motor trip through the United States and Canada, have been recent visitors to Prince Edward Island. Their itinerary has included California, then across the continent to New York and Digby, Nova Scotia, the latter place being Mrs. Horn's old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Horn came to this province to visit Miss Bertie Stewart, whose brother Frank is a friend of the Horns in Calgary. The Horns arrived Thursday in Charlottetown and left Friday calling en route at Summerside. They were registered at the Charlottetown Motel. With all the places they had seen Mr. and Mrs. Horn spoke of the friendliness of the people of this province. Also they were very much impressed with the red soil in contrast with the black or gray they have in Alberta.

Miss Jean Isabel Macdonald, student at Dalhousie University, is home for the summer holidays.

Queen Hotel Employee Is Honored At Party

Mr. Arthur LeClair was the guest of honor, Friday evening, at a party given by the management and staff of the Queen Hotel. The party was held at Mrs. Gladys MacDonald's residence, Euston Street.

Mr. LeClair, who has been desk clerk at the Queen Hotel has been employed there for twenty-nine years. These many years of happy association have been under the proprietorship of Mr. R. H. Sterns, Mr. Harry Brown and Mr. Daniel O'Rourke. At all times Mr. LeClair has been a faithful and trustworthy employee, as well as being most courteous to the resident guests and traveling public.

During the evening Miss Jennie MacDonald, daughter of the hostess, played most beautifully of Montague, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Saturday, April 26th, when a small family dinner was held at the Hillside Inn.

In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Beer were at home to their many friends and many congratulatory calls were made. Miss Bessie Beer presided over the tea, while assisting in serving were Miss Marjorie Cox of Charlottetown, Mrs. Alan Nelson and Mrs. G. S. A. Inman. Miss Charlotte Gordon received the guests, and replenishing were Mrs. Arthur Bruce of Charlottetown and Mrs. A. C. MacKay. Among out of town guests was Mr. George A. Leard of Souris.

for her mother's guests. Miss MacDonald, a student now at Prince of Wales college, was a former pupil at Notre Dame Academy, where she studied piano with such excellent teachers as Sister Saint Honora and Sister Saint Adolph. Miss MacDonald played classical and popular numbers, which included favorite selections of the guest of honor.

A presentation of a generous cheque was made to Mr. LeClair by Mr. Daniel and Mr. Paul O'Rourke, a silver tea service and tray by the staff, and flat silver and other gifts by guests at the hotel.

Mr. Daniel O'Rourke made the presentations and Miss Lena McLure read the address.

Mr. LeClair was deeply moved and other gifts by guests at the kind tokens of appreciation he concluded by saying he would always remember his happy days at the Queen Hotel, Charlottetown.

MR. AND MRS. CHEVERIE AND PARTY

St. Dunstan's Basilica Is Setting For Wedding

A pretty wedding was solemnized recently in Saint Dunstan's Basilica by Reverend Monsignor Patrick McMahon who also performed the nuptial mass in a double ring ceremony at the marriage of Virginia Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walker, Georgetown, and John Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheverie, Charlottetown. The church altar was beautifully decorated with cut flowers.

Entering the church to the strains of the Bridal Wedding March, played by Mrs. Joseph Dougan, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She looked charming in her waltz length gown of white velvet made with draped cowl neckline and three quarter length sleeves with matching velvet mitts.

Her tulle illusion veil fell softly from a headress of velvet, adorned with pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of Bethe time roses. The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Miss Barbara McQuillen, who wore a red velvet dress made in a similar style to that of the bride's. She wore matching mitts and headress and carried a nosegay of white mums.

The groom was supported by his brother-in-law, Mr. Ian MacQuarrie. The ushers were Mr. Winston Cheverie and Mr. Leonard Arsenault. The nuptial mass was served by Mr. Carl Cheverie, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Walker chose for her daughter's wedding a cocoa brown tweed suit with beige accessories and corsage of yellow mums. The groom's mother wore a beige tweed suit with yellow accessories and corsage of bronze and yellow mums.

After the ceremony a delightful reception was held at the Queen Hotel for about fifty guests. The bride's table was centered with the traditional wedding cake and decorated with white and yellow mums. The toast to the bride was proposed by Reverend Preston Hammill and responded to by the groom in a very pleasing manner.

Complimentary and humorous remarks were also made by Reverend Walter Reed, Mr. Sidney Green and Mr. I. MacQuarrie. Among congratulations received was a message from the Reverend Charles Cheverie, Washington, D.C., brother of the groom.

Amid confetti and best wishes, the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a pale green worsted suit with black and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The happy couple will reside in Charlottetown. Photo by Granhum

ELLEN'S DIARY

Not "Sums", Granny— Problems In Arithmetic!

There was the letter of yesterday. It came to us at Alderlea across the width of a continent, from sea to sea. Its writer was a neighbor of once with whom we had lost contact for a number of years.

"Every life is a fairy-tale" someone has said "and we write the story ourselves!"

The letter took us back over the years to hours spent in the school Granddaughter and Mack now attend, which little changed outwardly since then, sits neat and precise over the farms from us, down by the River Road.

Names and faces of the pupils, we picture now as they were then, the girls and boys, young and older who sat at the scarred "double" desks of those years. And remembering, we wonder what seed of teacher could have prophesied with any degree of accuracy the subsequent course of their lives.

Who could have dreamed of the distances to which playmates of once would be scattered? Who say then in that peaceful era of living that already the shadow of war lay across desks of lads destined to be drawn into its maelstrom at their country's call? And that some of them should not be given to rest in the quiet of one or the other of the near churchyards at life's close, but to sleep "the sleep that knows no waking" leagues away over the seas?

And who would presume to foretell the varied callings and occupations that would eventually claim this girl or that lad? Or that the ranks of the mostly happy band should thin sadly before
