COMMISSIONER FOR CLERKS.—Shop-keepers are not enough thought of," said Mrs. Portington after having been out making some purchases.

The way we marry—ring the bride's finger and then writing her heart.

An urchin remarked that the chief branch of education in his school was the willow branch.

"Here's to internal improvements," as Dobbs said when he swallowed a dose of salts.

A young lady, whose father is improving the family mansion, insists upon having a beau window put in for her benefit.

There is a man in York so opposed to Catholicism that he won't eat beef for fear it might be a portion of the Pope's bull.

An exchange paper says:—"Never let people work for you gratis. Two years ago a man carried a bundle for us, and we have been lending him 25 cents a week ever since."

A minister out West advertised, in the hope of making young people come forward, that he would marry them for a glass of whiskey, a dozen eggs, the first kiss of the bride and a quarter of a pig.

A temperance editor in calling attention to an article against the use of ardent spirits, in one of his papers, says:—"For the effects of intemperance, see our inside."

A gentleman from Ireland, on entering a London tavern, saw a countryman of his, a Tipperary squire, over his pint of wine in the coffee room.

"My dear fellow," said he, "what are you about? For the honor of Tipperary, don't be after sitting over a pint of wine in a house like this."

"Make yourself easy, countryman," was the reply; "Its the seventh I've had, and every one in the room knows it."

Agricultural.

A Horse's Petition To His Driver.—Going up hill, whip me not, Coming down hill, hurry me not, On level road, spare me not, Loose in stable, forget me not.

Of hay and corn, rob me not, Of clean water, stint me not, With sponge and brush, neglect me not, Of oat dry hay, deprive me not.

Tired or hot, wash me not, If sick or cold, chill me not, With bit or reins, O! jerk me not, And when you are angry, strike me not.

TREATMENT OF HORSES. Many valuable horses are yearly spoiled, or nearly so, by the improper management of those having them in charge.

Careless or ill tempered grooms do much mischief to horses. They first do their work in a slovenly manner, while the last, thorough enough as regards labor, perform their operations in so rough a manner as to excite the animal to resistance.

The first thing to be done, in taking a strange horse in hand, is to come to a pleasant understanding with him. On approaching the animal for the first time, if of the right stamp, the horse will examine the person making his acquaintance with great intusiveness. This scrutiny should be mutual—eye meeting eye steadily, and, on the part of the groom, pleasantly, if the result of this examination on the part of the horse be favorable, a deep and long drawn respiration will succeed, followed by a return to the food upon which he had been solacing himself when first interrupted, implying thereby that he is ready to be dealt with in such a way as may be deemed best for the benefit of all concerned.

On the contrary, if the interview has not been agreeable, the horse will throw up his head, look angry, and move restlessly about, intimating that a continuance of the acquaintance is not desirable. In this case, soothing words with corresponding manipulations; the exercise of patience, a virtue as effective with horses as with the genus homo, will generally terminate in a good understanding. This once established, there will be little chance of trouble hereafter. If severity at any time, becomes indispensable, let it be of a character so decisive as to carry conviction and reformation with it. These attained, let the treatment be such as to convince the animal that nothing is remembered to his detriment in consequence of past disagreements.

In grooming a horse a man sometimes uses a heavy curry-comb and a heavier hand, not because they are necessary to the cleaning process, but simply to see how the animal will "cut up." This is all wrong, and it is a pity that a groom thus abusing his power, could not be made to change places with the horse as often as wrong is perpetrated. Many horses, and good ones too, are thin-skinned, and peculiarly sensitive to the touch of the curry-comb. Such might well be spared the infliction, since a wisp of straw or card with fine teeth will be found ample for the process of cleaning and friction. A heavy and rough instrument used with an upstaring hand, makes the horse suspicious, sours his temper and sometimes induces disagreeable retaliation. A horse well and properly groomed twice a day, will appear better, work better, and work more vigorously, and be less likely to become ill, than if neglected or left to such grooming only as a fence corner or a friendly rack supply.

New Triumphs of Rogers' Medicines.

Run your eye over them and tell your friend a neighbour about it. Miss Soley, 5 years a Cripple, made to Walk by Rogers' Medicine.

NORTH RIVER, Onslow, May 1st, 1866. MESSRS. ROGERS & Co. —

About five years ago, my left knee began to swell and feel weak, and at the same time, my health began to fail. I went to a Doctor and he wanted to perform an operation on my knee, but I would not consent to it. I was then advised blistering, which I tried, but it did not help me any. I then tried a great many remedies advised by neighbors and friends, but I kept getting worse. I used British Oil but it did not have the least effect on my knee. I took a few bottles of Kennedy's discovery; and a few bottles Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Both of them seemed to help me a little at first, but after a little they did me no good. At last an ulcer broke out on my cheek. Then my father took me to another Doctor and he doctored me for some time. He cured the ulcer, but he did not help my knee. Soon after that I began to use your Medicines. I had not taken them long before I began to get better, and I have been getting better ever since, and am now well.

GEORGINA SOLEY. This Lady writes us that she had not walked on her leg for five years. R. & Co. LOCHABER, Antigonish Co. Sept. 24, 1866.

MESSRS. ROGERS & Co. — GENTS.— About nine years ago, a small wart grew just above my eye. It continued to enlarge and in about eighteen months it ulcerated and became very troublesome, and seemed to assume a cancerous nature. The Doctors could not cure it. I used various remedies in vain, until I became quite discouraged. Hearing of your wonderful medicine, I procured a box of it, and used it for two weeks, and it was entirely cured. With cheerfulness I recommend your medicine to those similarly afflicted. MARY COOPER.

Big GLACE BAY, Sep. 2, 1866. MESSRS. ROGERS & Co. — GENTS.— My little boy having for several years been afflicted with running sores in his arms and legs and various remedies been applied without effect, I was induced to try your Scrofula Ointment and Syrup. I accordingly purchased a box of the Ointment and a bottle of Syrup, and am happy to state that from using two Boxes and Bottles my boy is now able to go about with hardly any appearance of lameness. I believe it to be all that it is recommended to be, and would strongly recommend persons so afflicted to give it a trial. I am, Gentlemen, yours truly, FRANCIS LEWIS.

MESSRS. ROGERS & Co. — GENTS.— In reference to the case of EPIPHLOMA of the Lip, in which I used Ointment, I beg to say that the Patient entirely recovered, and has continued well ever since. I have also used the medicine in some cases of obstinate skin diseases with much benefit. I believe it to be a valuable remedy to many other intractable cases. Windsor, N. S., May, 1866. H. READ, M. D.

Stornott, Guysboro, 17th April, 1866. MESSRS. ROGERS & Co. — GENTS.— Your medicine has made another wonderful cure. THOS. COOPER, Esq., of Lochabar Lake, (Store-keeper) got some for his wife who had been effected with scrofula for seven years, and nothing she got from the Doctors could do her any good. Mr. Cooper says her face was in a dreadful state with running sores, and is now well; as he expressed it: "it made a total cure of her." Yours truly, S. F. MILWARD, J. P. DAVID ROGERS. Summerside, N. S.

Old Dr. Judson's Dead Shot Worm Candy.

KILLS WORMS. CHILDREN TEETHING. MRS. WINSLOW, An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers, her SOOTHING SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants. We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this manner "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in thousands of cases. It not only relieves the almost intolerable pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and sweetest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhoea in Children, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None Genuine unless the face-smile of CLIFTON & PEIKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal office, No. 48 Dey Street, N. Y. Price, only 35 Cents per Bottle.
